School, Society, and State Tracy L. Steffes,2011-04-01 Democracy has to be born anew every generation and education is its midwife wrote John Dewey in his classic work The School and Society In School Society and State Tracy Steffes places that idea at the center of her exploration of the connections between public school reform in the early twentieth century and American political development from 1890 to 1940 American public schooling Steffes shows was not merely another reform project of the Progressive Era but a central one She addresses why Americans invested in public education and explains how an array of reformers subtly transformed schooling into a tool of social governance to address the consequences of industrialization and urbanization By extending the reach of schools broadening their mandate and expanding their authority over the well being of children the state assumed a defining role in the education and in the lives of American families In School Society and State Steffes returns the state to the study of the history of education and brings the schools back into our discussion of state power during a pivotal moment in American political development School, Work and Subjectivity Misook Kim Cho, 1997 The Educator-journal ,1912 Childhood, Culture and Society Michael Wyness, 2018-06-27 Written with clarity and thoroughly argued Wyness confirms his place as one of the key authors within contemporary social science writing on children and childhood A formidable exploration of the nature of contemporary childhood in globally disparate regions Pia Christensen Professor of Anthropology and Childhood Studies University of Leeds UK A multifaceted and extensive analysis of the study of children and childhood Linking key concepts themes and problems together the text offers an interdisciplinary approach with its topical and timely case studies and illustrations which illuminate the latest research in the field Key features include A number of international case studies including children and military conflict child migrants children and networking sites child trafficking and children as consumers Questions which help you to make connections between topics and get you reflecting on your own childhood Engaging learning features including chapter aims boxed sections summaries and further reading suggestions Who's in Charge Here?
