Schooling And Society In Australia Sociological Perspectives:

Schooling and Society in Australia Lawrence J. Saha, John P. Keeves, 1990 Historical and sociological perspectives on Australian schooling focusing on the social structures and processes which explain the Australian education system The fourteen chapters are based on major topics within the sociology of education and are written by specialists in this field

APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service, Sociological Theory and Educational Reality Alan Barcan, 1993 An examination of the major classical sociological theories relevant to education and of the rise and decline of the new sociology of education Author also discusses the vexed questions of equality of opportunity the relationship between school and society the growth of educational bureaucracies and the roles of state church and family in education in Australia since 1949 Includes endnotes tables and index The International Handbook on the Sociology of Education Carlos Alberto Torres, Ari Antikainen, 2003 This handbook discusses the social context of education outlining the challenges as well as the advances in public and private education systems at the start of the new millennium It presents an integrated account of social theory and methodologies along with applied perspectives

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education P. Stevens, A. Dworkin, 2014-01-22 This comprehensive state of the art reference work provides the first systematic review to date of how sociologists have studied the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality over the last thirty years in eighteen different national contexts Australian Education Lois E. Foster, 1987 This book introduces the tools of sociology theory and methodology and applies them to Australian education in order to reveal a realistic picture Its goal is to enable the reader to analyse aspects of social behaviour in educational settings and the structure of educational systems and organisations In this edition much greater emphasis has been placed on application with each part of the book ending with a discussion of the implications for teachers and teaching Sociology of Education Today J. Demaine, 2001-03-13 It is almost twenty years since Macmillan published Jack Demaine's Contemporary Theories in the Sociology of Education This completely new book brings together important recent work of the most prominent sociologists working in the field of education today and reaffirms the reputation of sociology of education as an international discipline at the forefront of original research and analysis The book examines a wide range of empirical issues and different theoretical perspectives The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens, A. Gary Dworkin, 2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data

Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education sociology race and ethnicity studies and social policy Chapter 20 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at SpringerLink https://link.springer.com/chapter/10.1007/978-3-319-94724-2_20

Globalization and Educational Restructuring in the Asia Pacific Region K. Mok, Anthony Welch, 2003-03-13 The focus of this book is to examine the growing impact of globalization on education policy and development in the Asia Pacific region It analyses the reaction of selected societies and the strategies that their governments have adopted in response to the tidal wave of marketization corporization commercialization and privatization Particular attention is paid to educational restructuring in the context of globalization

Sociological Perspectives on Educating Children in Contemporary Society Arslan-Cansever, Belgin, Önder-Erol, Pelin, 2019-12-27 Children of the post industrial society must achieve financial status by their own efforts sustained from early periods life and are supposed to be equipped with various qualities both in terms of formal and informal education and extracurricular and leisure activities Contemporary children almost inherently know how to use the devices of information technology and through these devices they encounter ideas languages etc that are different from the ones immediately experienced within their social frame Consequently students themselves demand new inclusive teaching practices that expose them to global cultures Sociological Perspectives on Educating Children in Contemporary Society is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of how culture influences the way children are educated While highlighting topics including global economics multicultural teaching and education differentiation this book is ideally designed for teachers sociologists school administrators curriculum designers course developers academics researchers and students seeking current research on the interrelationship between children education and society

Sport, Policy and Politics Barrie Houlihan, 2002-02-07 Sport Policy and Politics is a genuinely comparative analysis of sport policy making in five countries Australia Canada Ireland the United Kingdom and North America Some of the issues raised in this book include the process of sport policy making the administrative framework for sport the responsibilities of central or federal governments state governments and local authorities the division of responsibility between different levels of government how policy making has addressed the topical problems of drug abuse in athletes and the provision of sport and physical education in schools

Education, Change and Society Raewyn Connell, 2007 Written in an engaging manner by Australia's leading sociology and education academics Education Change and Society is written to assist students in their understanding of how and by what mechanisms contemporary education in Australia operates The broader issues concerning Australian society are examined in the context of educational institutions and policies promoting critical reflection and facilitating in depth analysis Sport and Physical Activity Jacqueline Merchant, Barbara Griffin, Anne Charnock, 2017-09-16 This authoritative introduction to physical activity applies the main theories models and approaches in health promotion to the field of sport and exercise It draws together the disciplines of psychology sociology physiology and social policy to look at issues affecting the health of individuals of communities and of society as a whole International Handbook of Philosophy of Education Paul Smeyers, 2018-06-09 This handbook presents a comprehensive introduction to the core areas of philosophy of education combined with an up to date selection of the central themes It includes 95 newly commissioned articles that focus on and advance key arguments each essay incorporates essential background material serving to clarify the history and logic of the relevant topic examining the status quo of the discipline with respect to the topic and discussing the possible futures of the field The book provides a state of the art overview of philosophy of education covering a range of topics Voices from the present and the past deals with 36 major figures that philosophers of education rely on Schools of thought addresses 14 stances including Eastern Indigenous and African philosophies of education as well as religiously inspired philosophies of education such as Jewish and Islamic Revisiting enduring educational debates scrutinizes 25 issues heavily debated in the past and the present for example care and justice democracy and the curriculum New areas and developments addresses 17 emerging issues that have garnered considerable attention like neuroscience videogames and radicalization The collection is relevant for lecturers teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in philosophy of education as well as for colleagues in teacher training Moreover it helps junior researchers in philosophy of education to situate the problems they are addressing within the wider field of philosophy of education and offers a valuable update for experienced scholars dealing with issues in the sub discipline Combined with different conceptions of the purpose of philosophy it discusses various aspects using diverse perspectives to do so Contributing Editors Section 1 Voices from the Present and the Past Nuraan Davids Section 2 Schools of Thought Christiane Thompson and Joris Vlieghe Section 3 Revisiting Enduring Debates Ann Chinnery Naomi Hodgson and Viktor Johansson Section 4 New Areas and Developments Kai Horsthemke Dirk Willem Postma and Claudia Ruitenberg Disciplinary: Functional Linguistic and Sociological Perspectives Frances Christie, Karl Maton, 2011-02-03 Disciplinary knowledge is under threat in the modern world Claims abound that we are entering a landscape in which the division of disciplines is obsolete implying a commitment to outdated values in scholarship Notions of discipline are critiqued as reflecting social power and representing the worldview of dominant social groups By addressing and challenging such claims this edited collection argues that proclamations of the death of disciplines have been greatly overstated Not only are the notions of disciplinarity still important for understanding how we come to know the world but this volume demonstrates how significant disciplinarity is to understanding different forms of knowledge if we wish to improve the building of knowledge and educational practice Using analytical tools from systemic functional linguistics theory and social realist sociology this volume illustrates how different disciplines can collaborate and cross fertilize successfully without losing their distinctive insights and disciplinary integrity The subsequent theory developed will thereby extend both linguistic and sociological approaches to the topic and make a major contribution to educational theory Researching Education with Marginalized Communities M. Danaher,J. Cook,P. Coombes,2013-10-31 This collection provides evidence based strategies for conducting effective and ethical education research with individuals and groups who are marginalised from mainstream society The book explores circus and fairground communities disabled vocational education students environmental lobbyists and retired people from across the globe Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero,2024-12-16 In Social Problems Community Policy and Social Action Anna Leon Guerrero provides a thorough exploration of the social problems that permeate our world today The book is designed around three key connections the link between sociology and the study of social problems the relationship between social problems and their solutions and the personal connection readers can make in recognizing and addressing social problems in their own communities Each chapter focuses on a specific social problem examining its roots in social inequality and its manifestations in various social policies and programs The Eighth Edition is enriched with personal stories of ordinary individuals who have accomplished extraordinary feats in their communities providing readers with inspiration and guidance on how they too can make a difference Disability and Society Len Barton,2018-10-08 The study of disability has traditionally been influenced mainly by medical and psychological models The aim of this new text Disability and Society is to open up the debate by introducing alternative perspectives reflecting the increasing sociological interest in this important topic Disability and Society brings together for the first time some of the most recent original research in this rapidly expanding area The contributors both disabled and non disabled are all leading thinkers in their field and suggest new ways of understanding disability developing policy and challenging current practice Education and Society Joseph I. Zajda,2001 Education and Society third edition is a completely new edition of this popular text In fifteen wholly new chapters the authors outstanding educators writers and leaders in their particular fields focus on questions which have a highly current relevance for students of education in 2001 and beyond Future teachers for our twenty first century will read chapters which deal with such key issues as education for active citizenship democracy and education social identity conflict and education for peace social class in children s lives reconciliation and multiculturalism Asian values and human rights minority school settings marketing schools gender and ethnicity and achievement Information Technology education and new literacies and issues arising from emerging technology society relations in cyberspace and information technology dependence The new edition of Education and Society third edition complements the excellent selection of chapters in Education and Society and can be used in conjunction with the earlier edition in order to offer students a wide and stimulating introduction and overview to the major issues in the debate over the relationship between the school and the social and economic and political institutions which surround it inc
