Schopenhauer and the Wild Years of Philosophy Rüdiger Safranski, 1991 With equal attention to both the life and work of his subject Safranski places the visionary skeptic in the context of philosophical predecessors and contemporaries like Kant Fichte Schelling and Hegel and explores the sources of Schopenhauer's profound alienation from their secularized religion of reason

Alois Riegl in Vienna 1875-1905 Diana Reynolds Cordileone, 2017-07-05 In Alois Riegl in Vienna 1875-1905: An Institutional Biography Diana Cordileone applies standard methods of cultural and intellectual history for close readings of Riegl's published texts several of which are still unavailable in English Further the author compares Riegl's work to several of the early works of Friedrich Nietzsche that Riegl is known to have read before 1878 Using archival and other primary sources this study also illuminates the institutional conflicts and imperatives that shaped Riegl's oeuvre The result is a multi-layered philosophical cultural and institutional history of this art historian's work of the fin de siècle that demonstrates his close relationship to several of the significant actors in Vienna at the end of the nineteenth century an epoch of innovation culture wars and political uncertainty The book is particularly devoted to explaining how Riegl's theories of art were shaped by debates outside the purview of the academic art historian Its focal point is the Austrian Museum for Art and Industry where he worked for 13 years and it presents a new interpretation of Riegl based upon his early exposure to Nietzsche

Overcoming Matthew Arnold James Walter Caufield, 2016-05-13 Opening the way for a reexamination of Matthew Arnold's unique contributions to ethical criticism James Walter Caufield emphasizes the central role of philosophical pessimism in Arnold's master tropes of culture and conduct Caufield uses Arnold's ethics as a lens through which to view key literary and cultural movements of the past 150 years demonstrating that Arnoldian conduct is grounded in a Victorian ethic of renouncement a form of altruism that wholly informs both Arnold's poetry and prose and sets him apart from the many nineteenth century public moralists Arnold's thought is situated within a cultural and philosophical context that shows the continuing relevance of renouncement to much contemporary ethical reflection from the political kenosis of Giorgio Agamben and the pensiero debole of Gianni Vattimo to the ethical criticism of Wayne C Booth and Martha Nussbaum In refocusing attention on Arnold's place within the broad history of critical and social thought Caufield returns the poet and critic to his proper place as a founding father of modern cultural criticism     The Concealed Art of the Soul Jonardon Ganeri,2007-07-05

Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Voices that Come from the Abyss is the first scholarly monograph on the concept of loss in Albanian poetry and life writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It represents the first academic contribution to an international audience dedicated to three women writers that personified loss in communist Albania and two eminent poets who wrote representative and outstanding poetry on the meaning of loss in Albanian literature Through the work of these three politically persecuted women writers and two modern poets this book analyzes loss in relation to pain grief memory death freedom and love inquiring on the meeting point between life writing and poetry and the point where they part ways The book explores the work of Musine Kokalari the first Albanian woman writer and political dissident Bedi Pipa the first woman known to have authored a diary in Albanian literature Drita Lomo author of a diary and poetry written in secret in political exile under communism Fatos Arapi the Albanian poet who has been awarded the most important international literary prize to date and who has elaborated on the ethical implications of freedom grief and death in relation to personal loss Ali Podrimja a cornerstone of contemporary Albanian poetry author of a volume that marked a definite turn to modernity in Albanian poetry in the Republic of Kosovo and to date one of the best volumes of poetry written in the history of Albanian literature Lum Lumi where he explores the depth of grief pain loss and love The works of these five authors bring forth the necessity to re visit the history of Albanian literature and promote interdisciplinary and comparative studies beyond Albanian literature Shatro studies the unique traits of their life writing the specific link between different literary genres and the exceptional capacity of poetry to carry loss to the point of articulating the unsaid thus giving a voice to silence She argues that through diary memoir epistolary and poetry all five authors provide different views of loss and its challenging ethical implications in relation to death memory and freedom

The Two Wings of Catholic Thought David Ruel Foster, Joseph W. Koterski (s.j.), 2003 John Paul's choice to yoke faith and reason together in an encyclical on the twin sources of knowledge caught the world's attention By stressing the two wings of Catholic thought the pope captures in the lively image of a soaring bird the same point that theologians like von Balthasar communicate by calling truth symphonic The beauty of this symphony like the flight of the bird is even better appreciated when one has studied the component parts Knowing the various components only increases our wonder when we hear the music or see the bird take flight The purpose of this volume is to deepen the appreciation for the stereophonic approach to truth that the Holy Father recommends The essays are in three sections 1 doctrinal themes 2 contemporary implications and 3 historical aspects In the first Avery Cardinal Dulles S J discusses the twentieth century answers to a question that has long haunted Christians who felt the attraction of pagan philosophy Can philosophy be Christian Prudence Allen R S M and Joseph Koterski S J then treat two philosophical topics that have been the most affected by centuries of contact with the Christian faith the philosophy of the person and metaphysics David Meconi S J reflects on the Marian framework that is so typical of Pope John Paul II's thought In the second section Bishop Allen Vigneron considers the significance of this encyclical for Catholic intellectual life today David Foster discusses the implications of Fides et ratio for Catholic universities In the final section Koterski reviews the importance of biblical wisdom literature for the encyclical Michael Sweeney and Timothy Quinn treat medieval philosophy and modern philosophy respectively Finally Cardinal Dulles considers the Church pronouncements on faith and reason from Vatican I to John Paul II David Ruel Foster is Associate Professor of Philosophy in the School of Theology at Seton Hall University Joseph W Koterski S J is Associate Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Department of Philosophy at Fordham University He is also editor of International Philosophical Quarterly Contributors Prudence Allen R S M St John Vianney Theological Seminary Avery Cardinal Dulles S J Fordham University David Ruel Foster Seton Hall University Joseph W Koterski S J Fordham University David Vincent Meconi S J Jesuitenkolleg Innsbruck Timothy Sean Quinn Xavier University Michael Sweeney Xavier University and Most Rev Allen Vigneron Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK The real contribution of The Two Wings of Catholic Thought is to convey very effectively better than the encyclical itself does just why Fides et Ratio ultimately matters inside the Church and for important issues in wider culture Joseph M Incandela Catholic Education There are several remarkable things about this anthology First and best of all it creates a thirst to go to the source to read the actual encyclical It stirs up a desire to go back to its depths and clarity of vision Second it is a remarkable resource If a criterion of a successful theory or idea is its fruitfulness this book would prove the encyclical's worthiness beyond doubt The seeds of insight in the encyclical blossom beautifully here Here we find a treasure chest of essays on the relation of faith to reason Gregory Kerr Ph D The Maritain Notebook Professors and students in programs that study philosophy and theology together could use this book with profit William L Portier The Thomist

Reading Goethe at Midlife Paul Bishop,2020-07-13 This book explores the history of the idea of the midlife crisis using the writings of C G Jung and Goethe to investigate its relevance for today Tracing how the ages of humankind became the stages of life in which the midlife crisis represents a pivotal moment Paul Bishop offers a detailed analysis of a paper by Jung on this subject He then shifts the focus to Goethe s interest in Orphic wisdom and one of Goethe s major later poems Primal Words Orphic Urworte Orphisch Using Jungian ideas to explore the psychological implications of this poem Bishop draws on Goethe s own commentary and other background material to uncover its vital message Reading Goethe at Midlife reveals the remarkable symmetry between the ideas and Jung and Goethe Jung s analysis of the stages of life and his advice to heed the call of the self are brought into the conjunction with Goethe s emphasis on the importance of hope showing an underlying continuity of thought and relevance from ancient wisdom via German classicism to analytical psychology At a time when many Jungians are turning to neuroscience to provide an external underpinning for Analytical Psychology this scholarly book is very welcome it returns to psychology s home territory placing Jung firmly in a long cultural tradition Impressively well read in many fields extending from literature and the history of ideas to psychoanalysis and Jungian studies Paul Bishop allows a text by Jung and a late poem by Goethe to mirror and enhance each other demonstrating Jung s intellectual proximity to the tradition of German classicism The wealth of amplifications that Bishop brings to the many themes treated allows us to experience a living reality a continuity of ideas across different times and cultures

A Kingdom Not of This World Kevin C. Karnes,2013-07-30 Typically regarded as reflecting on a culture in social political or psychological crisis the arts in fin de si cle Vienna had another side they were means by which creative individuals imagined better futures and perfected worlds dawning with the turn of the twentieth century As author Kevin C Karnes reveals much of this utopian discourse drew inspiration from the work of Richard Wagner whose writings and music stood for both a deluded past and an ideal future yet to come Illuminating this neglected dimension of Vienna s creative culture this book ranges widely across music philosophy and the visual arts Uncovering artworks long forgotten and providing new perspectives on some of the most celebrated achievements in the Western canon Karnes considers music by Mahler Schoenberg and Alexander Zemlinsky paintings sculptures and graphic art by Klimt Max Klinger and members of the Vienna Secession and philosophical writings by Nietzsche Schopenhauer and Maurice Maeterlinck Through analyses of artworks and the cultural dynamics that surrounded their creation and reception this study reveals a powerful current of millennial optimism running counter and parallel to the cultural pessimism widely associated with the period It discloses a utopian discourse that is at once beautiful moving and deeply disturbing as visions of perfection gave rise to ecstatic artworks and dystopian social and political realities

Multiple Selves Richard Lebow,2024-11-28 Multiple Selves offers an original take on identity self fashioning and the problems of identity politics It

bridges the genres of political science sociology philosophy and even self help It draws on current debates in psychology philosophy and political science as well as art and literature to address a serious life issue that has important political and ethical implications Multiple Selves denies that we have a single identity are unique or could use either identity or uniqueness as a source of political and ethical guidance We are a jumble of multiple self and social identifications that change in character and rise and fall in importance over time Some of these identifications are reinforcing others are in conflict and all are context dependent The book offers a critique of identity politics on both the right and the left It proposes more realistic ways of self fashioning described as much as a social as an individual enterprise Recognition of our fragmented selves can produce important ethical insights and greater psychological contentment Ecstatic Naturalism Robert S. Corrington,1994-04-22 Semiotic theory which has restricted its focus largely to human forms of significations is transformed by Robert S Corrington into a semiotics of nature itself Corrington situates the divide between nature naturing and nature natured within the contest of classical American pragmatism and postmodern psychoanalysis At the heart of this new metaphysics is an insistence that all signs participate in larger orders of meaning that are natural and religious Meanings embodied in nature point beyond nature to the mystery inherent in positioned codes and signs A Fierce Hatred of Injustice Winston James,Claude McKay,2001-03-17 The first detailed consideration of McKay s formative years the themes and politics of his early poetry and his pioneering use of Jamaican creole The Subjective Eye Richard Valantasis,Deborah J. Haynes,James D. Smith,Janet F. Carlson,2006-05-15 One of the great joys of the academic life is to pay homage in a Festschrift to a scholar who has influenced both colleagues and students over years of interaction and friendship both professional and personal This volume honors a scholar and theologian of historical theology a theorist and a practitioner of religion and the arts and a keen analyst of cultural trends both ancient and modern Margaret R Miles s prodigious production as a scholar has legendary qualities Her dozen plus books alone explore history patristics ancient philosophy art and art history spiritual formation and religious practice critical theory film ethics and values personal growth gender and women s studies as well as her true academic loves Augustine and Plotinus The breadth and depth of her own work and her influence upon others demands an expansive volume which the editors of this Festschrift unfortunately had to restrict to four categories Historical Theology Religion and Culture Religion and Gender and Religion and the Visual Arts in order to capture the heart of our appreciation for her from the Introduction A Book About Books, Volume III of III E. H. Bernstein,2024-11-13 This book is Volume III of a three volume book plus accompanying website www bookaboutbooks com which adds to subjects already in the book or presents some books and subjects not contained in the books The other volumes are available from the same booksellers as this volume A Book about Books discusses what nonfiction books and subjects the author believes are important to know about This book tries to point to problems in how we live and to see if books have any answers Even though the books are complete the author will update the website periodically in the future E

H Bernstein is a former librarian turned author The subtitle of the book describes the author s objective A handbook in three volumes to a choice of essential books writers and subjects in order to understand the world we live in about big questions and possible answers about books and writers that may improve people s lives about neglected writers and other books and subjects A Book about Books attempts to share what the author has learned from nearly 50 years of nonfiction reading and to provide the reader with samples of the most important authors and subjects from that reading While the book is based on research it is intended to be a handbook or guide by trying to make that research understandable to the general reader and to students and for teachers by pointing to what the author believes is missing from today s education A curriculum proposal for college teachers is on the author s website Note about how the volumes are related each chapter is on a separate subject So the chapters can be read individually but the full message requires reading all the volumes Volume I is important but preliminary to the more important Volumes II and III Note also that the book is not just about books since other sources are also mentioned The author believes we should listen to many voices so the book draws on many types of writers from different times and countries The author says A contemporary writer once said that one of the purposes of writing is that books should be useful I hope that my book will be of use
