dialogue of his era make for fascinating reading These twenty nine provocative essays from 1956 to 1980 from the man who invented the term pop art bring art film iconography cybernetics and culture together for analysis and investigation and do indeed examine the context content and role of the critic in art and visual culture Featuring a critical commentary by Richard Kalina and preface by series editor Saul Ostrow Imagining the Present will be an enthralling read for all art and visual culture students

Charlotte Brontë: The Imagination in History Heather Glen, 2004-03-18 This stimulating study of Charlotte Brontë's novels draws on extensive original research in a range of early Victorian writings on subjects ranging from women's day dreaming to sanitary reform from the Great Exhibition to early Victorian religious thought It is not however merely a study of context Through a close consideration of the ways in which Brontë's novels engage with the thinking of their time it offers a powerful argument for the literary as a distinctive mode of intelligence and reveals a Charlotte Brontë more alert to her historical moment and far more aesthetically sophisticated than she has usually been taken to be The study will be of interest not only to students of Victorian literature and society but also to those literary critics and theorists who are beginning to reconsider the nature of the aesthetic and its relation to ideology

Imagine Math 6 Michele Emmer, Marco Abate, 2018-11-06 Imagine mathematics imagine with the help of mathematics imagine new worlds new geometries new forms Imagine building mathematical models that make it possible to manage our world better imagine combining music art poetry literature architecture and cinema with mathematics Imagine the unpredictable and sometimes counterintuitive applications of mathematics in all areas of human endeavour Imagination and mathematics imagination and culture culture and mathematics This sixth volume in the series begins with a homage to the architect Zaha Hadid who died on March 31st 2016 a few weeks before the opening of a large exhibition of her works in Palazzo Franchetti in Venice where all the Mathematics and Culture conferences have taken place in the last years A large section of the book is dedicated to literature narrative and mathematics including a contribution from Simon Singh It discusses the role of media in mathematics including museums of science journals and movies Mathematics and applications including blood circulation and preventing crimes using earthquakes is also addressed while a section on mathematics and art examines the role of math in design A large selection presents photos of mathematicians and mathematical objects by Vincent Moncorge Discussing all topics in a way that is rigorous but captivating detailed but full of evocations it offers an all embracing look at the world of mathematics and culture

Imagining the Americas in Medici Florence Lia Markey, 2016-11-30 The first full length study of the impact of the discovery of the Americas on Italian Renaissance art and culture Imagining the Americas in Medici Florence demonstrates that the Medici grand dukes of Florence were not only great patrons of artists but also early conservators of American culture In collecting New World objects such as featherwork codices turquoise and live plants and animals the Medici grand dukes undertook a vicarious conquest of the Americas As a result of their efforts Renaissance Florence boasted one of the largest collections of objects from the New World as well as representations of the Americas in a variety of media

Through a close examination of archival sources including inventories and Medici letters Lia Markey uncovers the provenance history and meaning of goods from and images of the Americas in Medici collections and she shows how these novelties were incorporated into the culture of the Florentine court More than just a study of the discoveries themselves this volume is a vivid exploration of the New World as it existed in the minds of the Medici and their contemporaries Scholars of Italian and American art history will especially welcome and benefit from Markey's insight Imagine Math 8 Michele Emmer,Marco Abate,2022-09-07 This eighth volume of Imagine Math is different from all the previous ones The reason is very clear in the last two years the world changed and we still do not know what the world of tomorrow will look like Difficult to make predictions This volume has a subtitle Dreaming Venice Venice the dream city of dreams that miraculous image of a city on water that resisted for hundreds of years has become in the last two years truly unreachable Many things tie this book to the previous ones Once again this volume also starts like Imagine Math 7 with a homage to the Italian artist Mimmo Paladino who created exclusively for the Imagine Math 8 volume a new series of ten original and unique works of art dedicated to Piero della Francesca Many artists art historians designers and musicians are involved in the new book including Linda D Henderson and Marco Pierini Claudio Ambrosini and Davide Amodio Space also for comics and mathematics in a Disney key Many applications from Origami to mathematical models for world hunger Particular attention to classical and modern architecture with Tullia Iori As usual the topics are treated in a way that is rigorous but captivating detailed and full of evocations This is an all embracing look at the world of mathematics and culture Artists, Cosmopolitanism, and the Civic Imagination Maria Rovisco,2025-02-17 Artists Cosmopolitanism and the Civic Imagination unpacks the political agency of artists by looking at artists as moral reflexive and political agents Do artists play a role in civil society Can artists make a difference in the world In what ways do artists act politically To address these questions this book moves away from a focus on social organisation and the production of art to ask how artists attach meaning to their interventions in social and political conditions Maria Rovisco draws from in depth interviews with UK based visual artists and theatre practitioners with a migrant background and semiotic analysis of a theatre play visual artworks and film texts to argue that artists are quintessential cosmopolitans who care deeply about changing society for the better By explaining how artists get involved in cross cultural encounters this book reveals the processes of listening reflection imagination social learning and moral intentionality through which artists imagine and realise their visions of a better world In so doing it offers a new direction in thinking about the intersection of art and politics by showing how artists play a crucial role in building a civic culture outside traditional sites of political participation This book will be essential reading for students and scholars across the social sciences and the humanities with interests in migration citizenship and the public sphere cultural sociology media and culture cosmopolitanism and art Pigments of the Imagination Roy Osborne,2016 Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom,2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from

Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other      The Victorians and the Visual Imagination Kate Flint, 2000-08-28 The Victorians and the Visual Imagination is an exciting and innovative exploration of the Victorians' attitudes towards sight Tantalized by physiologists who proved the unreliability of the eye intrigued by the role of subjectivity within vision and provoked by new technologies of spectatorship the Victorians were also imaginatively stirred by the sense of a world which lay just out of human sight This interdisciplinary study draws on writers as diverse as George Eliot Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Rudyard Kipling as well as Pre Raphaelite and realist painters including Millais Burne Jones William Powell Frith and Whistler and a host of Victorian scientists cultural commentators and art critics Its topics include blindness the location of memory hallucination dust and the importance of the horizon a dazzling eclectic range of subjects linked together by the operations of the eye and brain      Imagining Resistance J. Keri Cronin, Kirsty Robertson, 2011-09-23 Imagining Resistance Visual Culture and Activism in Canada offers two separate but interconnected strategies for reading alternative culture in Canada from the 1940s through to the present first a history of radical artistic practice in Canada and second a collection of eleven essays that focus on a range of institutions artists events and actions The history of radical practice is spread through the book in a series of short interventions ranging from the Refus global to anarchist inspired art and from Aboriginal curatorial interventions to culture jamming In each the historical record is mined to rewrite and reverse Canadian art history reworked here to illuminate the series of oppositional artistic endeavours that are often mentioned in discussions of Canadian art but rarely acknowledged as having an alternative history of their own p Alongside authors consider case studies as diverse as the anti war work done by John Lennon and Yoko Ono in Montreal and Toronto recent exhibitions of activist art in Canadian institutions radical films performance art protests against the Olympics interventions into anti immigrant sentiment in Montreal and work by Iroquois photographer Jeff Thomas Taken together the writings in Imagining Resistance touch on the local the global the national and post national to imagine a very different landscape of cultural practice in Canada      The Material Imagination Matthew Mindrup, 2016-03-03 In recent years architectural discourse has witnessed a renewed interest in materiality under the guise of such familiar tropes as material honesty form finding or digital materiality Motivated in part by the development of new materials and an increasing integration of designers in fabricating architecture a proliferation of recent publications from both practice and academia explore the pragmatics of materiality and its role as a protagonist of architectural form Yet as the ethos of material pragmatism gains more popularity theorizations about the poetic imagination of architecture continue to recede Compared to an emphasis on the design of visual form in architectural practice the material imagination is employed when the architect thinks matter dreams in it lives in it or in other words materializes the imaginary As an alternative to a formal approach in architectural design this book challenges readers to rethink the reverie of materials in architecture through an examination of historical precedent architectural practice literary sources philosophical analyses and everyday experience Focusing on matter as the premise of an architect's imagination each chapter identifies and graphically illustrates how material imagination defines the conceptual premises for making architecture Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern Jacqueline

Taylor, 2023-11-28 The extraordinary life and work of architect Amaza Lee Meredith and the role modernism and material culture played in the aspiring Black American middle class of the early twentieth century Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern tells the captivating story of Amaza Lee Meredith a Black woman architect artist and educator born into the Jim Crow South whose bold choices in both life and architecture expand our understanding of the Great Migration and the Harlem Renaissance while revealing the importance of architecture as a force in Black middle class identity Through her charismatic protagonist Jacqueline Taylor derives new insights into the experiences of Black women at the forefront of culture in early twentieth century America caught between expectation and ambition responsibility and desire Central to Taylor's argument is that Meredith's response to modern architecture and art like those of other Black cultural producers was not marginal to the modernist project instead her work reveals the tensions and inconsistencies in how American modernism has been defined In this way the book shines a necessary light on modernism's complexity while overturning perceived notions of race and gender in relation to the modernist project and challenging the notion of the white male hero of modern architecture András Szántó. Imagining the Future Museum András Szántó, 2023-03-31

Following on the widely read The Future of the Museum 28 Dialogues which explored how museums are changing through conversations with today's generation of museum directors New York based author and cultural strategy advisor András Szántó's new compilation turns its attention to architects The conclusion of The Future of the Museum was that the software of art museums has evolved Museum leaders are working to make institutions more open inclusive experiential culturally polyphonic technologically savvy attuned to the needs of their communities and engaged in the defining issues of our time It follows that the hardware of the art museum must also change Conversations with a carefully selected group of architects survey current thinking in the field engaging not only architects who have built some of the world's most iconic institutions but also members of an emerging global generation that is destined to leave its mark on the museum of the future CONVERSATION PARTNERS Kunl Adeyemi NL David Adjaye Adjaye Associates Paula Zasnico Cardoso Carlos Alberto Maciel Arquitectos Associados David Chipperfield David Chipperfield Architects Minsuk Cho Mass Studies Elizabeth Diller Diller Scofidio Renfro

Imagining for Real Tim Ingold, 2021-11-11 What does imagination do for our perception of the world Why should reality be broken off from our imagining of it It was not always thus and in these essays Tim Ingold sets out to heal the break between reality and imagination at the heart of modern thought and science Imagining for Real joins with a lifeworld ever in creation attending to its formative processes corresponding with the lives of its human and nonhuman inhabitants Building on his two previous essay collections The Perception of the Environment and Being Alive this book rounds off the extraordinary intellectual project of one of the world s most renowned anthropologists Offering hope in troubled times these essays speak to coming generations in a language that surpasses disciplinary divisions They will be essential reading not only for anthropologists but also for students in fi elds ranging from art aesthetics architecture and archaeology to philosophy psychology human geography comparative literature and theology

Imagining AI Stephen Cave, Kanta Dihal, 2023-05-03 Chapters 16 and 19 from this book are published open access and are free to read or download from Oxford Academic AI is now a global phenomenon Yet Hollywood narratives dominate perceptions of AI in the English speaking West and beyond and much of the technology itself is shaped by a disproportionately white male US based elite However different cultures have been imagining intelligent machines since long before we could build them in visions that vary greatly across religious philosophical literary and cinematic traditions This book aims to spotlight these alternative visions Imagining AI draws attention to the range and variety of visions of a future with intelligent machines and their potential significance for the research regulation and implementation of AI The book is structured geographically with each chapter presenting insights into how a specific region or culture imagines intelligent machines The contributors leading experts from academia and the arts explore how the encounters between local narratives digital technologies and mainstream Western narratives create new imaginaries and insights in different contexts across the globe The narratives they analyse range from ancient philosophy to contemporary science fiction and visual art to policy discourse The book sheds new light on some of the most important themes in AI ethics from the differences between Chinese and American visions of AI to digital neo colonialism It is an essential work for anyone

Ballard's Surrealist Imagination Jeannette Baxter, 2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard's fictional and non fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard's appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard's work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard's illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard's textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard's Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge
