Science And Steepleflower:

Science & Steepleflower Forrest Gander, 1998 A breakthrough book for award winning poet Forrest Gander whose richness of language and undaunted lyric passion place him in traditions ranging from Emily Dickinson to Michael Ondaatje His poems in leading journals plumb the erotic depths of human interaction with the land The poems in SCIENCE STEEPLEFLOWER test this relationship with what PUBLISHERS WEEKLY has called an inbred and often haunting spirituality bringing us to new vistas of linguistic and perceptive grace Torn Awake Forrest Gander, 2001 A new collection by one of America's most respected young experimental poets The Cambridge History of American Poetry Alfred Bendixen, Stephen Burt, 2014-10-27 The Cambridge History of American Poetry offers a comprehensive exploration of the development of American poetic traditions from their beginnings until the end of the twentieth century Bringing together the insights of fifty distinguished scholars this literary history emphasizes the complex roles that poetry has played in American cultural and intellectual life detailing the variety of ways in which both public and private forms of poetry have met the needs of different communities at different times The Cambridge History of American Poetry recognizes the existence of multiple traditions and a dramatically fluid canon providing current perspectives on both major authors and a number of representative figures whose work embodies the diversity of America's democratic traditions The Measured Word Kurt Brown, 2001 Though the interests of science and art frequently seem to inhabit opposite poles The Measured Word assembles a brilliant anthology of twelve essays that illumine the historic and newly emerging relationships between the poetic and scientific imaginations Assembling the writings of leading contemporary poets essayists and thinkers Kurt Brown highlights ways in which poets use scientific discoveries and mathematical ideas to their artistic advantage and offers insight on the recently apparent integration of technology and other discoveries into the postmodernist poetry Here are meditations on the similarities and differences between the poetic and scientific imagination on the poetic use of fractals on hypertext on the changing shape of poetry in the scientific age Commentary by Czech poet and immunologist Miroslav Holub Paul Lake Alison Hawthorne Deming Alice Fulton Forrest Gander and Stephanie Strickland among others presents a diverse selection of opinions These viewpoints are complemented by many careful innovative readings of individual poems informed by the sciences The writings in this collection not only celebrate the advent of a new age of discovery but also identify the need for a revision of the western thinking that separates the mind and the heart replacing division with the reciprocity of mutual communication The Ecology of Wonder in Romantic and Postmodern Literature Louise Economides, 2016-05-06 This book traces the aesthetic of wonder from the romantic period through contemporary philosophy and literature arguing for its relevance to ecological consciousness Most ecocritical scholarship tends to overshadow discussions of wonder with the sublime failing to treat these two aesthetic categories as distinct As a result contemporary scholarship has conflated wonder and the sublime and ultimately lost the nuances that these two concepts conjure for readers and thinkers Economides

illuminates important differences between these aesthetics particularly their negotiation of issues relevant to gender based and environmental politics In turn readers can utilize the concept of wonder as an open ended non violent framework in contrast to the ethos of domination that often surrounds the sublime

Eye Against Eye Forrest Gander, 2005 Among the most gifted and accomplished poets of his generation Mark Rudman The three long poems in Eye Against Eye convey the wrought particulars of intimate human relations perceptions of the landscape and the historical moment tense with political exigencies Mayan ruins invoke the collapsing Twin Towers love between parents and child blister with tension and a bicycle thief shatters the narcotic illusion of a private accord Also contained is Late Summer Entry a series of poetic commentaries on Sally Mann's landscape photographs Eye Against Eye Forrest Gander's third book with New Directions cries out an ethical concern for the ways we see each other and the world the potential to share a vision that acknowledges our commonality As always with Gander's poetry suspensions and repetitions drive toward a complex emotional experience evoking the multifaceted multi vocal surge of our present

Till One Day the Sun Shall Shine More Brightly Derek Pollard, 2020-01-29 Since the publication of From the Abandoned Cities in 1983 Donald Revell has been among the more consistent influencers in American poetry and poetics Yet his work has achieved the status it has his honors include fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Guggenheim Foundation and awards from the PEN Center USA and American Poetry Review in a manner that has often tended to belie its abiding significance This collection of essays reviews and interviews is designed to ignite a more wide ranging critical appraisal of Revell's writing from his fourteen collections of poems to his acclaimed translations of French symbolist and modernist poets to his artfully constructed literary criticism Contributors such as Marjorie Perloff Stephanie Burt Dan Beachy Quick and Bruce Bond examine key elements in and across Revell's work from his visionary postmodernism Our words can never say the mystery of our meanings but there they are spoken and meaning worlds to us to his poetics of radical attention And so a poem has nothing to do with picking and choosing with the mot juste and reflection in tranquility It is a plain record of one's entire presence in order to enlarge our understanding of how and why that work has come to occupy the place that it has in contemporary American letters
