Hughes,2006-09-23 Education is a universal priority Currently it is at a crossroad In every society it is valued as a major road to produce more productive more harmonious and healthier citizens Yet in every setting there is deep dissatisfaction with the overall performance of education and there are major moves towards reform sometimes superficial but more often fundamental These reform processes have had only moderate and very uneven success Too often they are episodic reflecting a short term approach which is frequently changed for the latest enthusiasm or the most recent administration In Asia and the Pacific countries many systems are in the process of construction or reconstruction Can we learn from the experiences of others Given the multiplicity of efforts at reform and the variety of situations for reform there may well be lessons we can learn from each other s efforts and each others failures and successes This book features contributions from experienced researchers who have worked in many different settings and bring their own insights to attack this universal problem The

Secondary PSHE Co-ordinator's Handbook Colin Noble,2013-05-13 This handbook provides the Personal Social and Health Education PSHE co ordinator in a school with everything that they need to deliver good practice in this subject The book contains thorough guidance through policy and required practice and has a strongly practical bias It shows through examples of good practice what can be achieved and how this can generally help to raise standards in schools This is a topical lively and up to date book which tackles the real issues facing schools heads co ordinators and classroom teachers in an engaging and practical manner It quotes from examples and case studies where strategies worked and failed but also keeps the learning of the pupil as the focus of all activities The PSHE Co ordinators Handbook is what every Head and PSHE co ordinator needs to help them make practical sense of the new curriculum the new PSHE the new healthy school standard social inclusion citizenship school councils and the new Ofsted requirements and how these can be woven together in a coherent way to support the raising of academic standards Creativity and Education Anne Harris,2016-06-15 This book advances an environmental approach to enhancing creativity in schools by interweaving educational creativity theory with creative industries environmental approaches Using Anna Craft s last book Creativity and Education Futures as a starting point the book sets out an up to date argument for why education policy should be supporting a birth to workplace approach to developing creative skills and capacities that extends across the education lifespan The book also draws on the voices of
