

SEMIOTICS

Semiotics is the study of signs. It is both the theory & analysis of signs & signifying practices.

Ferdinand de Saussure
(1857-1913)

Saussure was a french linguist that was one of the first to produce a semiotic theory during work in the early 1900's. Saussure stated that a sign is made up of two parts, the SIGNIFIER and the SIGNIFIED.

Charles Sandes Peirce, was an American philosopher that also formulated a semiotic theory around the same time as Saussure, the early 1900's. Pierce stated semiotics to be the relationship between a SYMBOL, ICON and an INDEX.

Charles Sanders Peirce
(1839-1914)

SIGN

A successful, understandable form of communication.

SIGNIFIER

Any motion, gesture, image, sound, pattern, or event that conveys meaning and communicates.

CONNOTATION

The feelings, ideas and cultural meanings which are associated with the word or object. Not the literal meaning.

Rose

SIGNIFIED

The concept that a signifier refers to, the meaning it conveys.

DENOTATION

The literal or primary meaning of a word, in contrast to the feelings or ideas that the word suggests.

ICONS

Signs where the signifier resembles the signified.

SYMBOLS

Signs where the relation between signifier and signified is purely conventional and culturally specific.

INDEXES

Signs where the signifier is caused by the signified.

Syntagm

A single word or element of design that, when altered, can change the overall meaning.

The man walked stormed ran

the extent to which the Alice story world is vast and always growing Alice in Transmedia Wonderland Anna Kérchy, 2016-08-30 Part of Alice's appeal is her ambiguity which makes possible a range of interpretations in adapting Lewis Carroll's classic Wonderland stories to various media Popular reimaginings of Alice and her topsy turvy world reveal many ways of eliciting enchantment and shaping make believe Late 20th century and 21st century adaptations interact with the source texts and with each other providing readers with an elaborate fictional universe This book fully explores today's multi media journey to Wonderland Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking-Glass Lewis Carroll, 2009-09-10 But I don't want to go among mad people Alice remarked Oh you can't help that said the Cat We're all mad here The Alice books are two of the most translated most quoted and best known books in the world but what exactly are they Apparently delightful innocent fantasies for children they are also complex textures of mathematical linguistic and philosophical jokes Alice's encounters with the White Rabbit the Cheshire Cat the King and Queen of Hearts the Mad Hatter Tweedledum and Tweedledee and many other extraordinary characters have made them masterpieces of carefree nonsense yet they also appeal to adults on a quite different level Layers of satire allusion and symbolism about Victorian culture and politics as well as revelations about the intricate subconscious problems of their author add to their fascination and make them impossible to classify This new edition explores the phenomenal range of reference and the paradoxical appeal of two of the most inventive books in world literature It also includes an episode removed by Carroll from the proofs of Through the Looking Glass called The Wasp in a Wig ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation Slav Gratchev, Margarita Marinova, 2022-10-06 Although Mikhail Bakhtin's study of the novel does not focus in any systematic way on the role that translation plays in the processes of novelistic creation and dissemination when he does broach the topic he grants translation a disproportionately significant role in the emergence and constitution of literature The contributors to this volume from the US Hong Kong Finland Japan Spain Italy Bangladesh and Belgium bring their own polyphonic experiences with the theory and practice of translation to the discussion of Bakhtin's ideas about this topic in order to illuminate their relevance to translation studies today Broadly stated the essays examine the art of translation as an exercise in a cultural re-accentuation a transference of the original text and its characters to the novel soil of a different language and culture which inevitably leads to the proliferation of multivalent meanings and to explore the various re-accentuation devices employed over the span of the last 100 years in translating modern texts from one language to another Through its contributors The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation brings together different cultural contexts and disciplines such as literature literary theory the visual arts pedagogy translation studies and philosophy to demonstrate the continued international relevance of Bakhtin's ideas to the study of creative practices broadly understood

Alice's Adventures in Lacan-Land Ali Yansori, 2025-08-18 Alice's Adventures in Lacan Land is an accessible exploration of Lacanian psychoanalysis through the prism of Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and its sequel Through the Looking Glass Bringing concepts of reality truth and knowledge under scrutiny and assuming no prior knowledge of the original Alice books on the reader's part Ali Yansori looks at the treacherous nature of language He addresses questions about identity formation touching on concepts including the Imaginary alienation and the ego Finally the author considers the implications of Lacanian psychoanalysis for both the individual and society and critiques contemporary approaches to therapy higher education and other spheres of life Alice's Adventures in Lacan Land will be an essential book for anyone encountering Lacan for the first time It will also be of interest to more experienced readers seeking to engage with lesser explored yet vital aspects of Lacanian theory

Hybrid Englishes and the Challenges of and for Translation Karen Bennett, Rita Queiroz de Barros, 2019-03-13 This volume problematizes the concept and practice of translation in an interconnected world in which English despite its hegemonic status can no longer be considered a coherent unified entity but rather a mobile resource subject to various kinds of hybridization Drawing upon recent work in the domains of translation studies literary studies and socio linguistics it explores the centrality of translation as both a trope for the analysis of contemporary transcultural dynamics and as a concrete communication practice in the globalized world The chapters range across many geographic realities and genres including fiction memoir animated film and hip hop and deal with subjects as varied as self translation translational ethics and language change As a whole the book makes an important contribution to our understanding of how meanings are generated and relayed in a context of super diversity in which traditional understandings of language and translation can no longer be sustained

Building Anand Shanker Singh, 2016-09-23 The concept of nation building is a multi dimensional process addressing various components simultaneously It takes into account the various historical and geographical perspectives of the country in question noting the peculiarities and diversity of its cultural ethos including its social economic and political structures This volume addresses these inter linked aspects and the innovative development of these structures and institutions However such changes and development must be directed to create a more culturally homogenous and productive society so that basic human needs like food shelter healthcare and education are fulfilled at the optimum level All round development and growth for the nation can be achieved only with a robust economy and political stability As such the process of nation building and development is a multifaceted phenomenon In the context of India this process is associated with the central values embodied in the preamble of the country s constitution which advocates for the establishment of secular socialist and democratic society based on well defined fundamental rights This anthology reflects these academic spirits and vistas

Translating and Transmediating Children's Literature Anna Kérchy, Björn Sundmark, 2020-09-30 From Struwwelpeter to Peter Rabbit from Alice to Bilbo this collection of essays shows how the classics of children s literature have been transformed across languages genres and diverse media forms This book argues that translation regularly involves transmediation the telling of a story across media and vice versa and that transmediation is a specific form of translation Beyond the classic examples the book also takes the reader on a worldwide tour and examines among other things the role of Soviet science fiction in North Korea the ethical uses of Lego Star Wars in a Brazilian context and the history of Latin translation in children s literature Bringing together scholars from more than a dozen countries and language backgrounds these cross disciplinary essays focus on regularly overlooked transmediation practices and terminology such as book cover art trans sensory storytelling cart enfreakment foreignizing domestication and intra cultural transformation The Book of Job in Wonderland Ryan M. Armstrong, 2024-10-08 The Book of Job in Wonderland explores the theme of mediation in the biblical book of Job with a unique approach that examines the Hebrew language the history of its interpretation and a comparative literary analysis of Lewis Carroll s Alice s Adventures in Wonderland Both of these classics relentlessly subvert genre expectations in order to protest didactic religious instruction In addition to biblical studies this book makes contributions to lexicography hermeneutics medieval Jewish thought early and modern Christianity literary theory and Victorian literature From Sign to Signing Wolfgang G. Müller, Olga Fischer, 2003 This volume a sequel to Form Miming Meaning 1999 and The Motivated Sign 2001 offers a selection of papers given at the Third International Symposium on

Iconicity in Language and Literature Jena 2001 The studies collected here present a number of new departures Special consideration is given to the way non linguistic visual and auditory signs such as gestures and bird sounds are represented in language and more specifically in signed language and how such signs influence semantic conceptualization Other studies examine more closely how visual signs and representations of time and space are incorporated or reflected in literary language in fiction as well as experimental poetry A further new approach concerns intermedial iconicity which emerges in art when its medium is changed or another medium is imitated A more abstract diagrammatic type of iconicity is again investigated with reference to both language and literature some essays focus on the device of reduplication isomorphic tendencies in word formation and on creative iconic patterns in syntax while others explore numerical design in Dante and geometrical patterning in Dylan Thomas A number of theoretically oriented papers pursue post Peircean approaches such as the application of reader response theory and of systems theory to iconicity The Giallo Canvas Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2021-01-22 Beloved among cult horror devotees for its signature excesses of sex and violence Italian giallo cinema is marked by switchblades mysterious killers whisky bottles and poetically overinflated titles A growing field of English language giallo studies has focused on aspects of production distribution and reception This volume explores an overlooked yet prevalent element in some of the best known gialli an obsession with art and artists in creative production with a particular focus on painting The author explores the appearance and significance of art objects across the masterworks of such filmmakers as Dario Argento Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Umberto Lenzi Michele Soavi Mario Bava and his son Lamberto Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children's literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e g author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e g semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations
