Send Me An Angel Samuel Santana, 2012-09-11 In slow paced post World War I America Guadalupe is no different than any other town its size on the California Central Coast With its whistle stop ambiance sparse population and vibrant collection of personalities that make up the small farming community Guadalupe is a haven to those who prefer a tranquil existence and those who recognize a lucrative opportunity when they see it Jonah Quentin and long time friends Mel and Ona Archer came to the fertile Santa Maria Valley with nothing more than an idea and a surplus Curtiss Jenny biplane to set up shop as the valley's first crop dusting company the latest concept in agricultural pest control Even with its limitations Angel Dust Incorporated is an instant success though perhaps a little too successful for a corporation whose fleet consists of only one tired old surplus biplane flown by Jonah an ex Army Air Service fighter pilot who knows nothing about crop dusting Late in the evening on the Fourth of July 1926 Jonah wants nothing more than to cap off a night of celebration with a shot of whiskey and a beer at the B same Bar some even call it blasphemy Nobody wants a woman soaring high above the clouds in control of the world's most powerful and modern military aircraft undermining the male pilot's superior aptitude and physical prowess SEND ME AN ANGEL is a fictionalized account of the blatant prejudices and harsh chauvinism the 1 074 women of the Women Airforce Service Pilots endured and ultimately overcame and the intestinal fortitude it took to become a fully operational WASP

This . . . Is About Life Randi Owens, 2018-08-29 Randi Owens believes that poetry has the power to provide therapeutic relief from worries and stress In a collection of poems penned over twenty years Owens shares lyrical verse that teaches all of us that it is okay to be upset smile laugh cry and to simply embrace all that comes with living a full life Her poems begin in 1996 when Owens was venturing into midlife focused on being a parent to four teenagers while juggling the demands of a career She invites others to enter into the world of a woman willing to determine the outcome of her life without fear of the ending Owens encourages others to reflect on their own thoughts and emotions while witnessing her joys and struggles as she adapted to her shifting role in family relationships and her ever changing environment Included in her poignant collection are original poems from each of her four adult children This Is about Life shares a lyrical glimpse into one woman's mid life experiences as she approaches a new chapter with optimism vulnerability and hope Send Me an Angel

Alice Nisbet, 1946 This story includes several episodes in the life of Delilah a black woman In her youth she had been careless and free with her love now at forty she is old and worn Delilah is not an altogether lovely character She is mean stubborn and antisocial Each reader must decide for himself whether the circumstances of her life justify her attitudes Originally published in 1946 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
