Linda Linda M. Crandall, 2008-12-03 It is never possible to return literally to times and events of the past Even places revisited will not be the same as they were But we can at least to some extent go back in our minds In trying to capture some of the past and record for posterity my lifetime of adventures I find that my memory has been stretched more than I thought possible The mind is a funny thing and time is slippery stuff but someone has said that we remember more than we think we do that years after the fact one day things fall into place and we say Ah yes I remember that well

The Last Man on the Moon

Eugene Cernan,Don Davis,2007-04-01 From the Apollo 17 commander and NASA veteran an exciting insider s take on what it was like to become one of the first humans in space Publishers Weekly Eugene Cernan was a unique American who came of age as an astronaut during the most exciting and dangerous decade of space flight His career spanned the entire Gemini and Apollo programs from being the first person to spacewalk all the way around our world to the moment when he left man s last footprint on the moon as commander of Apollo 17 Between those two historic events lay more adventures than an ordinary person could imagine as Cernan repeatedly put his life his family and everything he held dear on the altar of an obsessive desire Written with New York Times bestselling author Don Davis The Last Man on the Moon is the astronaut story never before told about the fear love and sacrifice demanded of the few who dare to reach beyond the heavens Thrilling highlights a book not just about space flight but also about the often brutal competition that went on between the US and the Soviet Union Washington Times A fascinating book Charlotte Observer

Two Days After Christmas Lynn

Payne,2018-12-05 Christmas was beautiful at our home that year just like that glorious first Christmas when Jesus was born He came to save us from our sins but what about our sorrows Two days after Christmas my precious son Jacob died in an accident The Holy Spirit had already prepared me but still I wept what seemed like a million tears Like Rachel my voice rose up in lamentation weeping and great mourning weeping for her children refusing to be comforted because they are no more Matthew 2 18 The weeping of Rachel is first noted in Jeremiah 31 15 during a time of captivity for God s people Many are taken captive by sin addictions rebellion against God and the pain of injustices Yet I have found that no matter what your loss you can stop weeping and begin to live again If you put your faith in him God will give you beauty for ashes
