Natalie Fritz, Marie-Therese Mäder, 2022-05-01 Media produced images of people on the move and religion influence our conceptions of migration These images have varied content and intent Some provide awareness of the frequently disturbing situation of people who have lost everything who have had to leave their homes and families and are desperately searching for new possibilities Others exploit the traumatic topic and the fate of its subjects to entertain their audience with sensational news which may include images of vast streams of people making their way to a safe haven in new countries The mediatization of the phenomenon of flight introduces new pictures and perceptions into current debates about migration It also requires that we interrogate how we view and engage such images and audiovisual documents Ethical debates about responsibilities combine with questions about the role of religion and its functions The present volume approaches the subject of migration and religion from an interdisciplinary perspective with a focus on audiovisual representation The contributions consider feature films documentaries television reports short films and press photos      Scott, Byron and the Poetics of Cultural Encounter S. Uncrossing the Borders Daphne Lei,2019-07-01 Over many centuries women on the Chinese stage committed suicide in beautiful and pathetic ways just before crossing the border for an interracial marriage Uncrossing the Borders asks why this theatrical trope has remained so powerful and attractive The book analyzes how national cultural and ethnic borders are inevitably gendered and incite violence against women in the name of the nation The book surveys two millennia of historical literary dramatic texts and sociopolitical references to reveal that this type of drama was especially popular when China was under foreign rule such as in the Yuan Mongol and Qing Manchu dynasties and when Chinese male literati felt desperate about their economic and political future due to the dysfunctional imperial examination system Daphne P Lei covers border crossing Chinese drama in major theatrical genres such as zaju and chuanqi regional drama such as jingju Beijing opera and yueju Cantonese opera and modernized operatic and musical forms of such stories today Catalogue Montgomery Ward,1941 WILD WEST Boxed Set: 150+ Western Classics in One Volume Mark Twain,James Fenimore Cooper,Max Brand,James Oliver Curwood,B.
