Sergeant Getulio:

Sergeant Getúlio João Ubaldo Ribeiro, 1984      Sergeant Getulio João Ubaldo Ribeiro, 1978      Latin American Films, 1932-1994 Ronald Schwartz, 2015-09-17 In 1931 Antonio Moreno completed Santa Mexico's first true sound film. In it he established one of the foremost genres of Latin American cinema: the popular melodrama, which continues to this day. Latin American filmmakers came to the fore in the fifties and sixties, and as 1992's Como agua para chocolate (Like Water for Chocolate) showed, Latin American films continue to be a major part of the international film scene. In this work over 300 of the most significant films from Argentina, Brazil, Cuba, Mexico, Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, and other Latin American countries are covered. Each entry includes the English title, director, year of release, running time, language, country, and a detailed plot synopsis. Notes about the production and the filmmakers are also provided for many entries.

Dead Folks Jon A. Jackson, 2014-12-09 Detective Fang Mulheisen returns in a rollicking thriller hailed as a quirky comic delight that brings to mind early Elmore Leonard. Booklist Detroit's Det Sgt Fang Mulheisen is far from home and hunting for his seemingly unkillable nemesis: a hired gun named Joe Service who survived a gunshot to the head and escaped a hospital with the help of his beguiling nurse. Joe is in Salt Lake City looking for his longtime lover and partner in crime Helen Sedlacek, who is in hiding with millions in stolen mob money. The problem is Joe's injuries have left his memory a bit shaky, even if his skills with a gun are still rock solid, which leads to a whole lot of dead bodies in his wake. And those bodies leave a trail for Mulheisen to track his quarry. But there are a lot of other unpleasant people looking for Joe, all with itchy trigger fingers. And Mulheisen has to get between them all before his manhunt becomes a bloodbath. With a cast of unforgettably mad characters and an explosive climax, this is a murderously funny read you won't be able to put down. Kirkus Reviews

Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young, Odile Cisneros, 2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater provides users with an accessible single-volume reference tool covering Portuguese-speaking Brazil and the 16 Spanish-speaking countries of continental Latin America: Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay, and Venezuela. Entries for authors ranging from the early colonial period to the present give succinct biographical data and an account of the author's literary production, with particular attention to their most prominent works and where they belong in literary history. The introduction provides a review of Latin American literature and theater as a whole, while separate dictionary entries for each country offer insight into the history of national literatures. Entries for literary terms, movements, and genres serve to complement these commentaries, and an extensive bibliography points the way for further reading. The comprehensive view and detailed information obtained from all these elements will make this book of use to the general interest reader, Latin American studies students, and the academic specialist.

Fascinating series of conversations between the author an Australian journalist and traveller and a clutch of noted Latin American writers. Interviews with novelists such as Isabel Allende, Mario Vargas Llosa, Octavio Paz and Manuel Puig range over literary theory, culture and cultural conflict, politics and imperialism and a host of other interesting subjects. Includes notes on each author and a select bibliography. Brazilian Tequila Augustus Young, 2018-09-11. The book combines a travelogue with a semi-fictional story by an established author and journalist who has worked as an epidemiologist there and knows Brazil, its people and culture first hand. World Literature Today, 1990. House of the Fortunate Buddhas João Ubaldo Ribeiro, 2011. Set in 1940s and 50s provincial Brazil, House of the Fortunate Buddhas is perhaps most startling for its fiery uninhibited and highly compelling narrator. By force of her intelligence, courage and strength of will, she achieves an unlikely liberation of both mind and body and her sardonic frankness, some have called it pornographic monologue, is an unforgettable work of literary ventriloquism, telling the story of one woman's journey toward fulfillment. From the book, I decided to give my testimony orally instead of writing it down for several reasons, the major one being arthritis. No let's cut that last line out, I don't have arthritis and even if I did, I certainly wouldn't let any get into my book. So, fine, preface. I decided to give my testimony orally instead of in writing mainly because it's impossible to write about sex at least in Portuguese without coming off like a prostitute who's just been asked to talk dirty for the twentieth time in the same day. House of the Fortunate Buddhas has been translated into French, winning the Grinzane Cavour Prize, Italian and Spanish, and was adapted into a hit one-woman play in Brazil. Publication from <http://www.flipkart.com> Oct 18 2011. The New scholar, 1979.
