

The wolf and the lamb

One day, A lamb was eating sweet grass away from her flock of sheep. She didn't notice a wolf walking nearer to her. When she saw the wolf, she started pleading, "Please, don't eat me. My stomach is full of grass. You can wait a while to make my meat taste much better. The grass in my stomach will be digested quickly if you let me dance." The wolf agreed.

While the lamb was dancing, she had a new idea. She said, " I can dance faster if you take my bell and ring it so hard." The wolf took the bell and started to ring so hard. The shepherd heard the sound and ran quickly to save the lamb's life.

Taking Children Seriously Steve Decker, Angela

Greenwood, Sandy Kirby, Dudley Moore, 1999-08-01 In times of great change and development in the education system those children who experience difficulties in school because they are emotionally troubled are particularly vulnerable. Increasingly schools are under pressure to produce results which appear good in the public domain and so can feel forced to spend money on activities designed to enhance public reputation consequently neglecting those pupils who are difficult to teach because they are emotionally disturbed. Taking Children Seriously has been written by those trained and working in this field to provide insights into how to apply ideas and theories taken from psychotherapy and counselling to the context of education. The authors demonstrate to practising teachers approaches for working with feelings in the classroom and provide ideas which schools may wish to consider to supplement their present work with special needs pupils. Steve Decker is a Chartered Psychologist and Head of Counselling Division at Anglia Polytechnic University. Sandy Kirby is a counsellor and Professional Tutor at a London comprehensive. Angela Greenwood is an educational therapist and special needs co-ordinator who has worked in Britain and Zambia in the primary and pre-school sectors. Dudley Moore is a counsellor and former headteacher of a special school. All four editors are founders of the Counselling and Therapy Service for Schools.

Create Unforgettable Stories for Kids. You dream of writing stories that children respond to the kind they come back to again and again. Nancy Lamb can help you achieve that dream. She mixes insightful advice for mastering storytelling with dozens of examples that illustrate a variety of plot-building techniques. Nancy's instruction covers everything from format and content to setting and characterization. She also draws from a range of children's classics including Where the Wild Things Are, Charlotte's Web, and Bridge to Terabithia to explore and illuminate the unique nature of children's literature. Nancy also shares writing tips and tricks accumulated through years of successful storytelling, invaluable advice for crafting fiction that resonates with children of all ages from 4 to 14 and beyond      Featherless Chickens, Laughing Women, and Serious Stories Jeannie B. Thomas,1997 Interested in preserving her family folklore Jeannie B Thomas recorded detailed oral histories from her mother and two grandmothers While analyzing the tapes of these sessions she notices the inappropriate laughter often accompanied the retelling of painful stories In this book Thomas combines these personal narratives with original scholarship drawing on the work of Mikhail Bakhtin and Julia Kristeva to uncover meaning behind the startling presence of unconventional laughter in women s histories      Mighty Stories, Dangerous Rituals Herbert Anderson,Edward Foley,2019-02-01 Shaping our journey into the Divine This moving and enlightening book presents us with a compelling vision of what can happen when we take the opportunity to connect stories and rituals a vision of individuals and communities transformed through a deeper sense of connection to our loved ones our communities and God Herbert Anderson and Edward Foley reveal how when stories and rituals work together they have the potential to be both mighty and dangerous mighty in their ability to lift us up and help us make these connections beyond ourselves and dangerous in challenging us to learn to live with complexity and contradiction They show how much more meaningful a baptism wedding or funeral can be when liturgy is made to include and recognize the personal stories of those involved Suddenly these familiar life cycle rituals are infused with new life as participants become connected in a narrative web linking past and present human and divine Newly created rituals can also help us connect our stories to the divine story giving meaning to what we experience and bringing us closer to God Ministers worship leaders and pastoral caregivers can use this approach to storytelling and ritual to find ways to bring together worship and pastoral care      Children Taken Seriously Jan Mason,Toby Fattore,2005-01-15 In Children Taken Seriously leading researchers and policy makers consider how children can be recognized as social actors rather than passive consumers or victims Using children s own views and experiences as a starting point they explore how children can be involved as partners in the decision making processes that affect them in social work education health care and broader social policies Chapters on the theoretical background draw parallels between developments in children s and women s rights and discuss communication issues and social and sexual constructions of children Other chapters explore issues of policy and practice in a variety of areas from Family Group Conferencing and child protection to child labour and notions of active citizenship Highlighting the important role of schools in empowering children the authors discuss children s engagement in and participation in their own education and how children s rights theory influences debates over discipline This accessible and thought provoking book is a rich source of insight and ideas for social workers teachers mental health professionals and anyone working with children      Social Stories for Kids in Conflict John Ling,2017-07-05 This is a practical guide to help young people improve their behaviour Designed to help all those who work and or live with young people who have difficulties with their behaviours and relationships with others this book is a practical guide to help young people become more aware of their behaviour and its effect on other people Focusing on mediation including communication the unblocking of channels the breaking down of barriers the righting of wrongs making amends and restorative justice the book includes dialogues used by a neutral person to highlight difficulties and possible changes in behaviour cartoons and other visual techniques that can be used to present alternative ways to discuss problems examples of social stories covering personal stuff daily routines home life social skills homework work and playtime PE and games as well as a guide to writing your own social stories and Powerpoint presentation for staff parents and carers

Popular Children's Literature in Britain Julia Briggs, Dennis Butts, 2016-12-05 The astonishing success of J K Rowling and other contemporary children's authors has demonstrated how passionately children can commit to the books they love But this kind of devotion is not new This timely volume takes up the challenge of assessing the complex interplay of forces that have created the popularity of children's books both today and in the past The essays collected here ask about the meanings and values that have been ascribed to the term popular They consider whether popularity can be imposed or if it must always emerge from children's preferences And they investigate how the Harry Potter phenomenon fits into a repeated cycle of success and decline within the publishing industry Whether examining eighteenth century chapbooks fairy tales science schoolbooks Victorian adventures waif novels or school stories these essays show how historical and publishing contexts are vital in determining which books will succeed and which will fail which bestsellers will endure and which will fade quickly into obscurity As they consider the fiction of Angela Brazil Enid Blyton Roald Dahl and J K Rowling the contributors carefully analyse how authorial talent and cultural contexts combine in often unpredictable ways to generate and sometimes even sustain literary success

Barking with the Big Dogs Natalie Babbitt, 2018-11-20 In this collection of essays and speeches written over the course of four decades beloved storyteller Natalie Babbitt explores what it was like to be a little dog in the literary world continually being forced to justify her choice to write books for children instead of doing something more serious Babbitt offers incisive commentary on classic children's books as well as contemporary works and reveals colorful insights into her own personal creative life Filled with a voice that rings with truth wisdom and humor across the years the essays gathered in Barking with the Big Dogs exemplify on every page true reverence for children and an endless engagement with the challenge to write the books that shape them

Conflict Narratives in Middle Childhood Marsha D. Walton, Alice J. Davidson, 2017-03-27 Conflict Narratives in Middle Childhood presents evidence from twenty years of research examining nearly 3 000 narratives from 1 600 children in eight settings in two countries about their own experiences with interpersonal conflict Close readings combined with systematic analysis of dozens of features of the stories reveal that when children are invited to write or talk about their own conflicts they produce accounts that are often charming and sometimes heartbreaking and that always bring to light their social emotional and moral development Children's personal stories about conflict reveal how they create and maintain friendships how they understand and react to the social aggression that threatens those friendships and how they understand and cope with physical aggression ranging from the pushing and poking of peers to criminal violence in their neighborhoods or families Sometimes children describe the efforts of adults to influence their conflicts efforts they sometimes welcome and sometimes resist Their stories show them taking on gender and other cultural commitments We are not just watching children become more and more like us as they move through the elementary school years we are watching them become the architects of a future we will only see to the extent that we understand their way of making sense
