Sermons On Election And Reprobation:

Sermons on Election & Reprobation John Calvin,1996 This collection of sermons from the book of Genesis deals with an awesome topic that has throughout time been repeatedly misunderstood unfairly ignored but most often shamefully denied and taught against Calvin will cause the reader of these sermons to rightly understand this profound doctrine to come away with the Biblical truth of the Sovereignty of the Creator and to understand that God is God and needs not man to excuse or explain away the power of the Potter over the clay as he makes to dishonor the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction

Uncovering Calvin's God Forrest H. Buckner,2020-08-20 Although God loves you is a common summary of the central message of Christian teaching and preaching a close reading of the Bible and attention to the Christian tradition will reveal passages of Scripture and Christian doctrines particularly John Calvin s doctrine of predestination that seem to undermine confidence in God s love for all people For numerous theologians including many within the Reformed tradition the secret decree of Calvin s God to save some and condemn others seems to undercut completely one s assurance of salvation along with one s ability to trust in and worship God However pastor and scholar John Calvin confidently spoke of God as a loving Father throughout his teaching and preaching In Uncovering Calvin s God Forrest H Buckner unearths Calvin s teaching about the God of love who reigns sovereign over predestination Drawing upon sources from across Calvin s corpus Buckner examines Calvin s teaching on the knowledge of God and the doctrine of predestination to provide a more robust and cohesive understanding of Calvin s theology which Buckner then confirms through an extensive examination of Calvin s preaching in Geneva He then offers a critical comparison of Calvin s approach with the teaching of Luther Zwingli Bullinger Arminius and Barth Using Calvin s system as a starting point this book helps readers perceive the essentials and trade offs of any doctrine of predestination that takes seriously both the Bible and the loving God revealed in Jesus Christ and Reprobation No Part of St. Paul's Teachings John Andrews Harris,1985 Christianity and Fear Oscar Pfister,2020-12-17 Originally published in 1948 Christianity and Fear explores the nature and history of Christian love in relation to the problem of fear Based on methods of depth psychology and mental hygiene the book argues for the necessity of a general concentration of the Christian religion and way of life upon the unity of love through faith and faith through love. It presents the struggle between the teaching of Christian love and the many instances of disputes on dogma that have prompted hatred and fear throughout ecclesiastical history. By using the theory of fear and compulsions it attempts to explain the directions assumed by these aberrations in Christian history and to highlight love as the essence of the teaching of Jesus. Christianity and Fear will appeal to those with an interest in the history of Christianity, theology, and the psychology of religion.

Politics and the Paul's Cross Sermons, 1558-1642 Mary Morrissey, 2011-06-16

English Reformation culture centred on the word preached. Throughout this period the most important public pulpit was Paul's Cross. This book provides a detailed history of the Paul's Cross sermons, exploring how they were delivered and the tensions between the authorities who controlled them.

John Donne and Conformity in Crisis in the Late Jacobean Pulpit Jeanne Shami, 2003

The sermons of John Donne are seen to embody the tensions and pressure on public religious discourse. 1621-25. This book considers the professional contribution of John Donne to an emerging homiletic public sphere in the last years of the Jacobean English Church, 1621-25, arguing that his sermons embody the conflicts, tensions, and pressures on public religious discourse in this period while they are in no way typical of any particular preaching agenda or style. They articulate these crises in their most complex forms and expose fault lines in the late Jacobean Church. The study is framed by Donne's two most pointed contributions to the public sphere: his sermon defending James I's Directions to Preachers and his first sermon preached before Charles I in 1625. These two sermons emerge from the crises of controversy, censorship, and identity that converged in the late Jacobean period and mark Donne's clearest professional interventions in the public debate about the nature and direction of the Church of England. In them, Donne interrogates the boundaries of the public sphere and of his conformity to the institutions, authorities, and traditions governing public debate in that sphere, modelling for his audience an actively engaged conformist identity.
