Charles G. Finney,2017-11-26 Excerpt from Sermons on the Way of Salvation The continued interest manifested by the Christian public in the sermons of President Finney which were first published now nearly sixty years ago bears testimony to the vigor of his reasoning and to the grace and unction of his expression During this century at least he has had no equal as an interpreter and preacher of the gospel The audiences which he moved and guided to the acceptance of the truth always included many persons of the highest intellectual order So clear was his conception of the truth that he was unable to utter an obscure sentence So profound was his conviction of the justice and love of God and of the unreasonableness and folly of sin that he could not but speak with inspiring eloquence when beseeching men to be reconciled to their Lord and Saviour About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Sermons on the Way of Salvation Charles G. The Way of Salvation Albert Barnes, 2016-10-17 Excerpt from The Way of Salvation A Sermon Delivered at Morris Town New Jersey February 8 1829 The original plan of the discourse of necessity precluded extensive discussion A few references with a few notes on the most important topics presented are now added The sermon makes no pretensions to any new or original views It is supposed to be no thing more than is indicated by its title an outline of the way of salvation by the Gospel Such it is hoped it will be found to be One thing has been established in the Author's view by the delivery of this discourse as well as by a very frequent and full but temperate exhibition of the leading doctrines presented in it that injury is not done in a revival by a full exhibition of God's plan of saving men according to his sovereign will and pleasure No doctrine during the revival in this place has been more fully presented than that God is a sovereign in the dispensation of his favors that the sinner has on him no claim that he is wholly dependent for mercy and that if God interpose not he must die At the same time the truth has been as uniformly presented that the obligation of the sinner is not measured by the favors he hopes to obtain The duty of an immediate and unqualified surrender into his hands of a direct and eternal renunciation of all acts of rebellion of an instantaneous submission to all the terms and requirements of the Gospel and of an entire committing of all the interests of the soul to the hands of the God long hated and of the Redeemer long set at nought and contemned Has been urged with all the ability That has been vouchsafed By the Divine blessing on this united presentation of the doctrines of grace and of man's obligation so far as the Author of this discourse has had opportunity of knowing most happy results have followed The convicted sinner has felt the necessity of casting himself on the mercy of God to be saved or lost at his will Doing this peace has followed the burden of sin has been removed and the blessings of redemption have distilled upon the spirit like the dews of the morning About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
