Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age

Louise Bourgeois' Spider Mieke Bal, 2001-06-29 The sculptor Louise Bourgeois is best known for her monumental abstract sculptures one of the most striking of which is the installation Spider 1997 Too vast in scale to be viewed all at once this elusive structure resists simple narration It fits both no genre and all of them architecture sculpture installation Its contents and associations evoke social issues without being reducible to any one of them Here literary critic and theorist Mieke Bal presents the work as a theoretical object one that can teach us how to think speak and write about art Known for her commentary on the issue of temporality in art Bal argues that art must be understood in relationship to the present time of viewing as opposed to the less immediate contexts of what has preceded the viewing such as the historical past of influences and art movements biography and interpretation In ten short chapters or takes Bal demonstrates that the closer the engagement with the work of art the more adequate the result of the analysis She also confronts issues of biography and autobiography key themes in Bourgeois's work and evaluates the consequences of ahistorical experiences for art criticism drawing on diverse sources such as Bernini and Benjamin Homer and Eisenstein This short beautiful book offers both a theoretical model for analyzing art out of context and a meditation on a key work by one of the most engaging artists of our era

Louise Bourgeois: Paintings Clare Davies, Briony Fer, 2022-04-12 Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 is celebrated today for her sculptures Less known are the paintings she produced between her arrival in New York in 1938 and her turn to three dimensional media in 1949 Crucial to her artistic practice these early works the focus of this groundbreaking publication show how Bourgeois evolved her deeply personal artistic lexicon and how the themes and motifs she explored in her paintings coalesced into symbols of her sculptural practice Informed by new archival research and the artist s extensive diaries Louise Bourgeois Paintings explores Bourgeois s relationship to the New York art world of the 1940s and her development of a unique pictorial language adding a key element to our understanding of this crucial artist s career

Lifework Moran Sheleg, 2024-07-23 Following the critical scepticism surrounding the notion of the self as a singular entity during the 1960s many artists and writers sought to test the apparent problem posed by autobiography as both a traditional genre and as a way of working Considering the consequent emergence of autotheory Lifework traces this shift in artistic and literary production during the late twentieth century and beyond examining a set of diverse practices that mine the line between what it is to make art and what it is to live life The book's chapters connect a variety of artistic strategies that cut across medium geography and time uncovering how the historical marginalisation of first person experience has taken on larger social cultural and political implications in the contemporary moment and how the work of living might still relate to the work of art Runaway Girl Jan

Greenberg, Sandra Jordan, 2003-03 Introduces the life of renowned modern artist Louise Bourgeois who is known primarily for her sculptures The Creative Feminine and her Discontents Juliet Miller, 2018-04-24 The Creative Feminine and her Discontents Psychotherapy Art and Destruction is a look at creativity from a woman's perspective By looking at artistic endeavour mothering and psychotherapeutic relationships Juliet Miller considers how a patriarchal world distorts the channels through which women discover their own creative voices She argues that the dynamics of female creativity are more multi layered and conflicted for women for a variety of historical cultural and archetypal reasons and suggests that an attack on the creative feminine has been exacerbated by the history and teaching of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy Miller looks to the artistic community to discover new ways for the creative feminine to grow and assesses how ideas of destruction and anarchy are crucial for the expression of a feminine self The work of two contemporary sculptors Cornelia Parker and Louise Bourgeois is explored to show how there can be authentic relationships to creativity through the ideas of deconstruction and reconstruction in their work This book will interest psychotherapists and analysts and both women and men interested in their own relationship to their creativity The Routledge Companion to Scenography Arnold

Aronson, 2017-09-11 The Routledge Companion to Scenography is the largest and most comprehensive collection of original essays to survey the historical conceptual critical and theoretical aspects of this increasingly important aspect of theatre and performance studies Editor and leading scholar Arnold Aronson brings together a uniquely valuable anthology of texts especially commissioned from across the discipline of theatre and performance studies Establishing a stable terminology for a deeply contested term for the first time this volume looks at scenography as the totality of all the visual spatial and sensory aspects of performance Tracing a line from Aristotle's Poetics down to Brecht and Artaud and into contemporary immersive theatre and digital media The Routledge Companion to Scenography is a vital addition to every theatre library Louise
