Love And Death In The Valley:

Love and Death Martin Avery, 2011 Love and Death in the Sunshine State Cutter Wood, 2019-04-09 Gripping Cutter Wood subverts all our expectations for the true crime genre Leslie Jamison author of The Recovering When a stolen car is recovered on the Gulf Coast of Florida it sets off a search for a missing woman local motel owner Sabine Musil Buehler Three men are named persons of interest her husband her boyfriend and the man who stole the car Then the motel is set on fire her boyfriend flees the county and detectives begin digging on the beach of Anna Maria Island Author Cutter Wood was a guest at Musil Buehler's motel as the search for her gained momentum Driven by his own need to understand how a relationship could spin to pieces in such a fatal fashion he began to talk with many of the people living on Anna Maria and then with the detectives and finally with the man presumed to be the murderer But there was only so much that interviews and transcripts could reveal In trying to understand how we treat those we love this book like Truman Capote's classic In Cold Blood tells a story that exists outside documentary evidence Wood carries the investigation of Sabine's murder beyond the facts of the case and into his own life crafting a tale about the dark conflicts at the heart of every relationship Love and Death in Kathmandu Amy Willesee, Mark Whittaker, 2014-05-27 On June 1 2001 the heir to the Nepalese throne Crown Prince Dipendra donned military fatigues armed himself with automatic weapons walked in on a quiet family gathering and without a word mowed his family down before turning a gun on himself But Dipendra did not die immediately and while lying in a coma was declared king He was now a living god Award winning journalists Amy Willesee and Mark Whittaker set out to understand what could have led to such a devastating tragedy one that fascinated and appalled the world Exploring Kathmandu and other parts of the kingdom they conducted exhaustive interviews with everyone from Maoist guerillas to members and friends of the royal family gaining insight into the people involved in and the events behind the massacre At the heart of the story is the love affair between Dipendra and the beautiful aristocrat Devyani Rana whom he was forbidden to marry Culminating their portrait of Nepal is a chilling reconstruction of the events of that fatal day As conspiracy theories circulate and rebels threaten to topple the monarchy the future of this small Himalayan kingdom promises to be as tumultuous as its past Revealing a country where the twenty first century mingles uneasily with the fourteenth Love and Death in Kathmandu is both an enlightening portrait of a place that is a world apart and a riveting investigation of an incredible crime Love and Death Ross Channing Reed PhD, 2009-02-10 Philosopher Ross Reed Ph D refers to an eclectic array of thinkers in Love and Death an Existential Theory of Addiction in particular existential philosophers Soren Kierkegaard 1813 1855 and Jean Paul Sartre 1905 1980 According to Dr Reed addiction is usually the result of existential or life conditions rather than underlying physiological problems Therefore it may involve not only drugs or alcohol but also relationships belief systems activities and even emotional states Anything that can serve to deflect one's consciousness from reflectively apprehending the task of becoming oneself can serve as an object of addiction If the object is another person one might ask whether in fact addiction can masquerade as love Is it possible to believe that you are in love with someone when in fact you are merely addicted to him or her In this creative and provocative work Reed argues that Sartres theory of love is in fact a theory of addiction Poems of Love and Death Lady Caroline Blanche Elizabeth Fitzroy Lindsay,Lady Lindsay (Caroline Blanche Elizabeth),1907 Songs of Love and Death George R. Love and Death Among the Cheetahs Rhys Bowen, 2020-07-07 Georgie and Darcy are finally on their honeymoon in Kenya's Happy Valley but murder crashes the party in this all new installment in the New York Times bestselling series I was so excited when Darcy announced out of the blue that we were flying to Kenya for our extended honeymoon Now that we are here I suspect he has actually been sent to fulfill another secret mission I am trying very hard not to pick a fight about it because after all we are in paradise Darcy finally confides that there have been robberies in London and Paris It seems the thief was a member of the aristocracy and may have fled to Kenya Since we are staying in the Happy Valley the center of upper class English life we are well positioned to hunt for clues and ferret out possible suspects Now that I am a sophisticated married woman I am doing my best to sound like one But crikey These aristocrats are a thoroughly loathsome sort enjoying a completely decadent lifestyle filled with wild parties and rampant infidelity And one of the leading lights in the community Lord Cheriton has the nerve to make a play for me While I am on my honeymoon Of course I put an end to that right off When he is found bloodied and lifeless along a lonely stretch of road it appears he fell victim to a lion But it seems that the Happy Valley community wants to close the case a bit too quickly Darcy and I soon discover that there is much more than a simple robbery and an animal attack to contend with here in Kenya Nearly everyone has a motive to want Lord Cheriton dead and some will go to great lengths to silence anyone who asks too many questions The hunt is on I just hope I can survive my honeymoon long enough to catch a killer

A Race with Love and Death Richard Williams, 2020-03-19 A tragic age and a tragic character both seemingly compelled to destroy themselves a chilling reminder of how little control we have over our fates Damon Hill One of the greatest motor racing stories Nick Mason Timely vivid and enthralling it's unputdownable Miranda Seymour author of The Bugatti Queen Dick Seaman was the archetypal dashing motorsport hero of the 1930s the first Englishman to win a race for Mercedes Benz and the last Grand Prix driver to die at the wheel before the outbreak of the Second World War Award winning author Richard Williams reveals the remarkable but now forgotten story of a driver whose battles against the leading figures of motor racing's golden age inspired the post war generation of British champions The son of wealthy parents educated at Rugby and Cambridge Seaman grew up in a privileged world of house parties jazz and fast cars But motor racing was no mere hobby it became such an obsession that he dropped out of university to pursue his ambitions squeezing money out of his parents to buy better cars When he was offered a contract with the world beating state sponsored Mercedes team in 1937 he signed up despite the growing political tensions between Britain and Germany A year later he celebrated victory in the German Grand Prix with the beautiful 18 year old daughter of the founder of BMW Their wedding that summer would force a split with his family a costly rift that had not been closed six months later when he crashed in the rain while leading at Spa dying with his divided loyalties seemingly unresolved He was just 26 years old A Race with Love and Death is a gripping tale of speed romance and tragedy Set in an era of rising tensions where the urge to live each moment to the full never seemed more important it is a richly evocative story that grips from first to last

Hawaiian idylls of Love and Death Herbert Henry Gowen, 2020-09-28 Kaneakama was as handsome a young fellow as you could have found on the eight islands neither unknown to war nor unskilled in divination and the learning of the priests But he had one vice he was an inveterate gambler And here he sat in his grass hut on the slopes of the Olukui feeling as miserable as any wretch of to day who had squandered his patrimony at Monte Carlo for he had been playing maika the whole day long and luck had been against him at every throw The devil he thought must have been in the smooth black stones throw as he might they would not go straight Yes they were certainly bewitched And now he had nothing to call his own but one little pig everything was lost Why did he not stake the pig you ask Ah Kaneakama had asked himself that question many a time that evening but had each time repelled the very thought as a temptation For he had dedicated this pig to his Aumakua or tutelary divinity and with all his faults he was too pious to break his vows to the gods So although happy thus far in the possession of a good conscience he nursed his grief until the kind divinities sent their messenger sleep welcome to all men everywhere And as Kaneakama slept he had a wonderful vision The song of a bird broke upon his ear then the sweet sounds transformed themselves into an aura of radial light and in the light he beheld the loveliest form he had ever seen It was that of a young girl but Kaneakama s first impression was that it was some glorious bird for he wanted to get up and throw a mat across the door lest she should fly away Her black hair fell in a great shadow behind her like a pair of wings no chief arrayed for battle had feather cloak so rich in orange and scarlet as that which clung to her perfect form from throat to shapely knee Her eyes too even in the bright aura which encircled her shone like stars in the night Kaneakama gazed he knew not how long and when he came to himself he was only conscious of having received a command from the goddess for such indeed was his adorable visitant to take his dedicated pig and stake it as he had done the rest You see the gods and goddesses of ancient Hawaii had rather backward ideas regarding the morality of gambling However Kaneakama is not to be blamed for this He did as his divinity had told him and now if the ill luck of his former experience had been surprising still more so was the turn of fortune which seemed to pour riches into his lap He went home from that day s maika playing a rich man but remembering the source of his wealth he determined to dedicate one half of it to the service of the goddess and to build a temple where she might dwell and receive his worship This he did and no sooner was the temple so far completed that it only lacked its central idol than once more the vision of the Aumakua broke in upon his sleep This time there was no doubt about the voice It was as sweet to hear as the vision was to see Go to the king O Kaneakama it said tell him that the akua wish to dwell in the temple made by man in the shadow of his court Power shall be his if he will shelter them Let him send warriors with their axes and knives to the top of Maunaloa Out of the wood let them hew me an image and

this shall be my shrine in the heiau you have built and you O Kaneakama shall be my high priest worshipper and lover of Kalaipahoa terrible to mortals When Kaneakama awoke he hastened to obey the command and the king was pleased to hear of the honours in store Three hundred men were chosen and these carrying besides their weapons great folds of kapa for the venom of the poison goddess was a thing to be dreaded set out on their march Kaneakama commissioned by the king went before them as a guide to the spot designated in his sleep As they marched they recalled all they had heard of the poison goddess how she had come from an unknown land to Molokai and had made her home on Maunaloa There so it was said the earth was burnt and blackened and the birds fell dead as they flew over it It was moreover the dwelling place of Laamaomao the god of the winds and at any moment a strong spirit of the air might break loose from the calabash of the god and hurl the intruders afar into the Paiolo Channel

Love and Death in the American Novel Leslie A. Fiedler, 1997 No other study of the American novel has such fascinating and on the whole right things to say Washington Post Love and Death on Long Island Gilbert Adair, 2007-12-01 A reserved British intellectual falls obsessively in love with a young American heartthrob in this witty and poignant tour de force Literary Review When he wanders into the wrong theater and finds himself watching the wretched teen pic Hotpants College II cerebral British author Giles De Ath becomes romantically obsessed with dreamboat Ronnie Bostock Giles's infatuation drives him to the unthinkable he reads American fan magazines and watches movies with titles like Tex Mex and Skid Marks And finally he travels to Long Island intent on meeting Ronnie in the flesh The basis for the hit independent film starring Jason Priestley and John Hurt Love and Death on Long Island is a brilliant and heartrending update of Thomas Mann's early twentieth century novella Death in Venice It offers both a poignant meditation on passion and a very funny portrait of an extraordinarily unworldly academic's introduction to the dizzyingly incomprehensible realm of popular culture Nick Hornby Brief pure intense The writing is masterly the conjuring of contrasting worlds a triumph The Financial Times Passing: A Memoir of Love and Death Michael Korda, 2019-10-08 In the tradition of The Year of Magical Thinking comes a legendary editor's unflinching love song about his radiant wife Margaret and her battle with cancer It was a warm April in Pleasant Valley when Margaret Korda normally a fearless horsewoman dropped her horsewhip while she was riding Such a mild slip was easy to ignore but when other troubling symptoms accumulated she confided to her husband Michael I think something serious is wrong with me Within a few rapid weeks the fiercely independent former fashion model was diagnosed with brain cancer while Michael once reliant on her steeliness became her caregiver deciphering bewildering medical reports and packing her beloved toiletries for the hospital An operation performed by a renowned surgeon allowed Margaret to ride her favorite competition horse Logan go Bragh a few more times but Margaret's tumors quickly returned leaving her to grapple with the reality of impending death In rapturous prose Korda a modern day Orpheus braids her heroic story with heartrending details of their final year together Passing a tender memoir is a testament to the transcendent possibilities of love Love and Death in Edith Wharton's Fiction Tricia

Huebner, 2018 Americans today harbor no strong or consistent collective memory of the First World War Ask why they fought or what they accomplished and democracy is the most likely if vague response The circulation of confusing or lofty rationales for intervention started from the moment President Woodrow Wilson secured a war declaration in April 1917 Yet amid those shifting justifications Love and Death in the Great War argues was a more durable and resonant one Americans would fight for home and family Intervention came at a moment when arbiters of tradition regarded those very institutions the white family in particular under pressure from all sides industrial work women's employment immigration urban vice woman suffrage and most incendiary the imagined threat of black sexual aggression Alleged German crimes in France and Belgium seemed to further imperil women and children Americans would fight many said to protect the family literally but also indirectly War promised to restore convention stabilize gender roles and sharpen male character Love and Death in the Great War tracks such ideas of redemptive war across public and private spaces policy and implementation home and front popular culture and personal correspondence Huebner merges untold stories of men and women from Missouri Wisconsin Alabama Louisiana and other places with a history of wartime culture Studying the radiating impact of war alongside the management of opinion he recovers the conflict s emotional dimensions its everyday rhythms heartbreaking losses soaring possibilities and broken promises Telling the war story as a love story however generated contradictions and challenges some subtle some transformative some violent African Americans and women serving in the army disrupted narratives of white chivalric rescue Military life proved inhospitable to virtue Death and injury brought destruction not regeneration An army of mostly drafted men sought recompense for lives interrupted as much as patriotic or personal credibility After the Great War the mobilization of real and symbolic families would never quite look the same again
