

Love poem

I keep a flower in my pocket,
And ribbons in my hair.
A picture in my locket,
That I always like to wear.

I've got memories in a shoebox,
And apples on my mind.
I go for lots of walks,
And save the leaves I find.

I keep rainbows in a flowerpot,
And letters under my bed.
I use bookmarks to save carefully,
The best things ever said.

I've got dreams in hiding places,
extra smiles for when I'm blue.
But that place in my heart...
I'm saving just for YOU!

Gray,2017-12-29 Love begets poetry poetry begets love So thinkers from Plato onwards have claimed and even today when poetry has largely disappeared from the mainstream of popular culture it is still commonly considered the most seductive of all forms of art But why should this be What are the connections between poetry and love that lead us to associate them so strongly with one another In this study Erik Gray draws on a broad range of Western thought and poetry to reveal the qualities and structures that love and poetry share Above all he argues both are founded on paradox Love is at once necessarily public because interpersonal and intensely private hence love both requires expression and resists it Likewise the experience of love is simultaneously surprising and familiar singular and conventional In poetry especially lyric poetry which is similarly both dependent on and resistant to language both exceptionally regular and exceptionally irregular love finds a natural outlet The Art of Love Poetry illuminates many of the recurrent tropes that poets across the centuries have employed to represent and express love exploring such topics as the poetic kiss the lyric of conjugal love and the role of animals in love poetry In describing the inherent erotics of poetry it offers new insights not only into the long tradition of love lyric but into the nature of love itself

Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin,2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain
