Indigeneity and the Decolonizing Gaze Robert Stam,2023-01-26 Against the long historical backdrop of 1492 Columbus and the Conquest Robert Stam s wide ranging study traces a trajectory from the representation of indigenous peoples by others to self representation by indigenous peoples often as a form of resistance and rebellion to colonialist or neoliberal capitalism across an eclectic range of forms of media arts and social philosophy Spanning national and transnational media in countries including the US Brazil Canada France Germany and Italy Stam orchestrates a dialogue between the western mediated gaze on the Indian and the indigenous gaze itself especially as incarnated in the burgeoning movement of indigenous media that is the use of audio visual digital media for the social and cultural purposes of indigenous peoples themselves Drawing on examples from cinema literature music video painting and stand up comedy Stam shows how indigenous artists intellectuals and activists are responding to the multiple crises climatological economic political racial and cultural confronting the world Significant attention is paid to the role of arts based activism in supporting the struggle of indigenous artistic activism of the Yanomami people specifically to save the Amazon forest and the planet

Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy Robin Zape-tah-hol-ah Minthorn,Christine A. Nelson,Heather J. Shotton,2022-08-19 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy highlights the experiences and narratives emerging from Indigenous mothers in the academy who are negotiating their roles in multiple contexts The essays in this volume contribute to the broader higher education literature and the literature on Indigenous representation in the academy filling a longtime gap that has excluded Indigenous women scholar voices This book covers diverse topics such as the journey to motherhood lessons through motherhood acknowledging ancestors and grandparents in one s mothering how historical trauma and violence plague the past and balancing mothering through the healing process More specific to Indigenous motherhood in the academy is how culture and place impacts mothering specifically if Indigenous mothers are not in their traditional homelands as they raise their children how academia impacts mothering how mothering impacts scholarship and how to negotiate loss and other complexities between motherhood and one s role in the academy Wilma Mankiller Tamrala Swafford Bliss,2023-02-14 An excellent resource for students of Native American women s history Wilma Mankiller provides an overview of contemporary federal Indian policy and explores how Mankiller negotiated the relationship between the Cherokee Nation and the United States in the late 20th century Incorporating aspects of federal Indian policy and Cherokee History chapters explore Mankiller s involvement at the Indian Center her interactions with other Indian activists and her participation in the occupation of Alcatraz Island in 1969 and the Pit River tribes struggle in the early 1970s Also covered is Cherokee history from the 1830s concerning the Trail of Tears and its impact on Cherokee identity Chronological organization allows readers to discover Mankiller s growth and development from a student activist in San Francisco to a Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation in rural northeastern Oklahoma The book explores the themes of land education community identity treaty rights and sovereignty and traditional tribal knowledge

The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff,2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives

A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues Peter Hughes, 2021-09-14 From antiquity to the present day this book offers a fascinating insight into the histories movements and conflicts which have come to shape our world viewed through the stories of the destruction of 21 statues Confederate soldiers hacked to pieces A British slave trader dumped in the river An Aboriginal warrior twice beheaded A Chinese philosopher consumed by fire A Greek goddess left to rot in the desert Statues stand as markers of collective memory connecting us to a shared sense of belonging When societies fracture into warring tribes we convince ourselves that the past is irredeemably evil So we tear down our statues But what begins with the destruction of statues ends with the killing of people This remarkable book is a compelling history of love and hate spanning every continent religion and era told through the destruction of 21 statues Peter Hughes original approach blending philosophy psychology and history explores how these symbols of our identity give us more than an understanding of our past In the wars that rage around them they may also hold the key to our future The 21 statues are Hatshepsut Ancient Egypt Nero Suffolk UK Athena Syria Buddhas of Bamiyan Afghanistan Hecate Constantinople Our Lady of Caversham near Reading UK Huitzilopochtli Mexico Confucius China Louis XV France Mendelssohn Germany The Confederate Monument US Sir John A Macdonald Canada Christopher Columbus Venezuela Edward Colston Bristol UK Cecil Rhodes South Africa George Washington US Stalin Hungary Yagan Australia Saddam Hussein Iraq B R Ambedkar India and Frederick Douglass US A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues is a profound and necessary meditation on identity which resonates powerfully today as statues tumble around the world roots in histories of colonialism This connection to the past feels familiar for some and less relevant for others Understanding and responding to these connections is more crucial than ever yet some resist rather than face this task directly Others resist oppressive postcolonial conditions Using intercultural stories and pastoral care scholarship this book charts pathways through five resistances not me not here not now not relevant not possible to awaken creative pastoral care in a postcolonial world McGarrah Sharp recommends practices that everyone can do believing in each other revisiting how histories are taught imagining more passable futures heeding prophetic poets and crossing borders with healthy boundaries Tree of Rivers: The Story of the Amazon John Hemming, 2009-11-30 In his long career of exploration and scholarship Hemming has become a powerful advocate for the Amazon The New York Times John Hemming Amazonia is one of the most magnificent habitats on earth Containing the world's largest river with more water and a broader basin than any other it hosts a great expanse of tropical rain forest home to the planet's most luxuriant biological diversity The human beings who settled in the region 10 000 years ago learned to live well with its bounty of fish game and vegetation It was not until 1500 that Europeans first saw the Amazon and unsurprisingly the rain forest's unique environment has attracted larger than life personalities through the centuries John Hemming recalls the adventures and misadventures of intrepid explorers fervent Jesuit ecclesiastics and greedy rubber barons who enslaved thousands of Indians in the relentless quest for profit He also tells of nineteenth century botanists fearless advocates for Indian rights and the archaeologists and anthropologists who have uncovered the secrets of the Amazon's earliest settlers Hemming discusses the current threat to Amazonia as forests are destroyed to feed the world's appetite for timber beef and soybeans and he vividly describes the passionate struggles taking place in order to utilize protect and understand the Amazon BBC Wildlife, 1991 Irish and Scottish Encounters with Indigenous Peoples Graeme Morton, David A. Wilson, 2013-05-01 The expansion of the British Empire during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries created the greatest mass migration in human history in which the Irish and Scots played a central complex and controversial role The essays in this volume explore the diverse encounters Irish and Scottish migrants had with Indigenous peoples in North America and Australasia The Irish and Scots were among the most active and enthusiastic participants in what one contributor describes as the greatest single period of land theft cultural pillage and casual genocide in world history At the same time some settlers attempted to understand Indigenous society rather than destroy it while others incorporated a romanticized view of Natives into a radical critique of European society and others still empathized with Natives as fellow victims of imperialism These essays investigate the extent to which the condition of being Irish and Scottish affected settlers attitudes to Indigenous peoples and examine the political social religious cultural and economic dimensions of their interactions Presenting a variety of viewpoints the editors reach the provocative conclusion that the Scottish and Irish origins of settlers were less important in determining attitudes and behaviour than were the specific circumstances in which those settlers found themselves at different times and places in North America Australia and New
