Candler School of Theology Emory University Koch's first volume on the prophets of ancient Israel displays his sound and creative scholarship and will fill a bibliographical gap. He displays the individuality of each prophet with perceptive insight but he also compares and interrelates them in his various summaries. Furthermore, Koch relates his study of individual prophets to theological currents that have been flowing through the scholarly world in recent decades. Bernhard W. A Grammar of Christian Faith Joe R. Jones, 2002-06-03 A Grammar of Christian Faith is a two-volume set that aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today. As a grammar, it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning, practicality, and hope. It advances the thesis that learning how to speak Christian language in worship and life is crucial to learning how to be a Christian. Rather than supposing that Christian language and theology need continual updating in order to be relevant to the world, Jones urges the church to recover anew how Christian concepts and understanding are intended to form Christian life in all its rich depths. Construing theology as confessional theology in the context of the church, Jones understands the church as that liberative and redemptive community called into being by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to witness in word and deed the triune God for the benefit of the world. The full range of doctrinal themes that are deemed essential to the witness of the church are explored, including clear explanations of why they are essential and how they are to be understood. In pursuit of a truthful and beneficial witness of the church, the work centers on a trinitarian understanding of God in which God freely and lovingly interacts with the world as Creator, Reconciler, and Redeemer. The work throughout affirms the belief that the gracious triune God is the Ultimate Companion who will redeem all creation.

Shriver,2005-11 This collection of letters is a continuation of my earlier collection The Gabriel Letters I stumbled on the idea of writing imagined letters from an archangel advising a young guardian while reading an introduction to C S Lewis Screwtape Letters It has been a marvelous way perhaps delusional of standing back and imagining that I can see the world through angel eyes The amazing result for me has been a sense of objectivity and good will The intended purpose of the letters is to apply to all things the idea of God s complete love self sacrificing eternal parent like love This idea is the center of Christianity It is Jesus message and it is St Paul s good news If we desire to be Christian we should begin it seems to me by attempting to apply Jesus teachings to all things to our behavior to our human relationships especially family to our work and our business dealings to the way we run our churches and to the way we study the scriptures If we take Jesus seriously we must reevaluate much of the Bible the parts which are not specifically the teachings of Jesus Jesus Himself questioned much of the scriptures These letters cover a variety of subjects many of them Biblical Some Biblical passages need correction in light of Jesus ideas Some Biblical passages are so marvelous that we need to lift them to the sky and shout Look at this Some Biblical passages are confusing and we need to wrestle with them But in all we should be trying to see them through Jesus eyes To see through Jesus eyes is I suspect what the true Gabriel wants and it is the intent of this book Richard V Shriver
