Love And Other Thoughts:

Love and Other Thought Experiments Sophie Ward, 2021-09-28 This impressive debut novel longlisted for the 2020 Booker Prize takes its premise and inspiration from ten of the best known thought experiments in philosophy the what ifs of philosophical investigation and uses them to talk about love in a wholly unique way Married couple Rachel and Eliza are considering having a child Rachel wants one desperately and Eliza thinks she does too but she can't quite seem to wrap her head around the idea When Rachel wakes up screaming one night and tells Eliza that an ant has crawled into her eye and is stuck there Eliza initially sees it as a cry for attention But Rachel is adamant She knows it sounds crazy but she also knows it's true As a scientist Eliza is skeptical Suddenly their entire relationship is called into question What follows is a uniquely imaginative sequence of ten interconnecting episodes each from a different character's perspective inspired by some of the best known thought experiments in philosophy Together they form a sparkling philosophical tale of love lost and found across the universe

Gay Love and Other Big Disasters Dylan James, Jordan and Benjamin's love story has always been like a fairy tale What they don't realize is that old fairy tales often have a bad ending Freshly home from their first year of university Jordan and Benjamin are looking forward to reconnecting with family and friends and growing even closer as a couple But Jordan's parents are fighting like they've never fought before their friends are moving forward in their relationships in ways that make Jordan doubt his own and all the subtle differences between straight and gay relationships start to become loud warning signs that his fairy tale love with Benjamin is headed toward disaster There's one thing that can get him through all of this opening up to Benjamin and telling him his deepest fears but Jordan is too afraid to do so If he exposes the cracks in their relationship will Benjamin conclude it's unsalvageable

First Love and Other Fascinating Stories of Spanish Life offers an enthralling journey through the intricacies of Spanish culture and society encapsulated through a diverse array of literary styles and narratives. This anthology paints a vivid picture of Spain's rich tradition of storytelling, blending romance, social commentary, and a deep exploration of human emotions. By curating stories that range from the whimsical to the profound, the collection affirms the dynamism of Spanish literature, inviting readers into a world where the personal becomes universal. The anthology teems with expertly crafted tales that not only entertain but also provoke reflection on societal norms, love, and the human experience. The compendium features the works of seminal authors such as Pedro Antonio de Alarcón, Juan Eugenio Hartzenbusch, Armando Palacio Valdés, Serafín Esteban, Calderón, and Emilia Pardo Bazán, each contributing to a nuanced tapestry of narratives. These authors, while distinguished in their own right, collectively illuminate the varied facets of life in Spain during the 19th and early 20th centuries. As proponents of Romanticism and Realism, they imbue the anthology with insights drawn from their engagement with cultural and historical movements, making each story a microcosm of broader societal dialogues. For readers eager to traverse the geographical and emotional landscapes of Spain, this anthology provides an indispensable portal. The collection promises not just an aesthetic experience but an educational one, facilitating a multifaceted exploration of Spanish literary artistry. Through its broad spectrum of voices and perspectives, First Love and Other Fascinating Stories of Spanish Life encourages a dialogue across time and space, making it a must-read for those seeking to deepen their understanding of Spain's literary heritage and cultural nuances.
