Nation Ideas Identities Essays In Honour Of Ramsay Cook:

A Nation Beyond Borders Michel Bock, 2014-04-29 Recipient of the 2005 Governor General's Literary Award in non-fiction Quand la nation d bordait les fronti res is considered the most comprehensive analysis of Lionel Groulx's work and vision as an intellectual leader of a nationalist school that extended well beyond the borders of Qu bec For over five decades historians and intellectuals have defined the nationalist discourse primarily in territorial terms In this regard Groulx has been portrayed more often than not as the architect of Qu becois nationalism Translated by Ferdinanda Van Gennip A Nation Beyond Borders will continue to spark debate on Groulx's description of the parameters of the French Canadian nation Highlighting the often neglected role of French Canadian minorities in his thought this book presents the Canon as an uncompromising advocate of solidarity between all French Canadian communities

Nation, Ideas, Identities Ramsay Cook, 2000 These fifteen essays all inspired by the work of Ramsay Cook focus on cultural and intellectual history the impact of race indigenous peoples history and women's history Topics include radio in Canada the Native vote in Saskatchewan the writings of Harold Innis Canadian missionaries in Korea and the role of women in the textile industry and their attitudes toward unions The book provides a rich cross section of the work of contemporary historians in Canada

The Regenerators, 2nd Edition Ramsay Cook, 2016-01-01 A crisis of faith confronted many Canadian Protestants in the late nineteenth century With their religious beliefs challenged by the new biological sciences and historical criticism of the Bible they turned from personal salvation to the dire social problems of the industrial age The Regenerators explores the nature of social criticism in this era and its complex ties to the religious thinking of the day showing how the path blazed by nineteenth century religious liberals led not to the Kingdom of God on earth but ironically to the secular city The winner of the Governor General's Literary Award for Non Fiction when it was first published in 1985 The Regenerators became an instant classic for its fascinating portraits of evolutionists rationalists spiritualists socialists and free thinkers before the turn of the century This new edition features an introduction by historian and biographer Donald Wright

Historical Identities Euthalia Lisa Panayotidis, Paul James Stortz, 2006-01-01 As intellectual engines of the university professors hold considerable authority and play an important role in society By nature of their occupation they are agents of intellectual culture in Canada Historical Identities is a new collection of essays examining the history of the professoriate in Canada Framing the volume with the question What was it like to be a professor editors Paul Stortz and E Lisa Panayotidis along with an esteemed group of Canadian historians strive to uncover and analyze variables and contexts such as background education economics politics gender and ethnicity in the lives of academics throughout Canada's history The contributors take an in depth approach to topics such as academic freedom professors and the state faculty development discipline construction and academic cultures religion biography gender and faculty wives images of professors and background and childhood experiences Including the best and most recent critical research in the field of the social history of higher education and professors Historical Identities

examines fundamental and challenging topics issues and arguments on the role and nature of intellectualism in Canada

Duty to Dissent Geoff Keelan, 2019-11-01 During the First World War Henri Bourassa fierce Canadian nationalist politician and journalist from Quebec took centre stage in the national debates on Canada's participation in the war its imperial ties to Britain and Canada's place in the world In Duty to Dissent Geoff Keelan draws upon Bourassa's voluminous editorials in Le Devoir the newspaper he founded in 1910 to trace Bourassa's evolving perspective on the war's meaning and consequences What emerges is not a simplistic sketch of a local journalist engaged in national debates as most English Canadians know him but a fully rendered portrait of a Canadian looking out at the world By situating Bourassa within a larger panorama that connects him to prominent war resisters from around the globe Keelan offers fresh insight into one of Canada's most influential historical figures reshaping our understanding of why Quebec's position on the Great War differed so radically from the rest of Canada

Nation, Ideas, Identities Ramsay Cook, 2000 These fifteen essays all inspired by the work of Ramsay Cook focus on cultural and intellectual history the impact of race indigenous peoples history and women's history Topics include radio in Canada the Native vote in Saskatchewan the writings of Harold Innis Canadian missionaries in Korea and the role of women in the textile industry and their attitudes toward unions The book provides a rich cross section of the work of contemporary historians in Canada

Les idées en mouvement Michel Ducharme, Damien-Claude Bélanger, Sophie Coupal, 2004

Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework Richard Connors, John M. Law, University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies, 2005-11 Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework analyzes the principal events and processes that precipitated the emergence and formation of the law and legal culture of Alberta from the foundation of the Hudson's Bay in 1670 until the eve of the centenary of the Province in 2005 The formation of Alberta's constitution and legal institutions was by no means a simple process by which English and Canadian law was imposed upon a receptive and passive population Challenges to authority latent lawlessness interaction between indigenous and settler societies periods pre and post 1905 of jurisdictional confusion and demands for individual group and provincial rights and recognitions are as much part of Alberta's legal history as the heroic and mythic images of an emergent and orderly Canadian west patrolled from the outset by red coated mounted police and peopled by peaceful and law abiding subjects of the Crown Papers focus on the development of criminal law in the Canadian west in the nineteenth century the Natural Resources Transfer Agreement of 1930 the National Energy Program of the 1980s Federal Provincial relations and the role and responsibilities of the offices of Justices of the Peace and of the Lieutenant Governor and the legacies of the Lougheed and Klein governments

Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio's Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University
