Ralph Waldo Emerson Realist Essays Of Resignation And Renewal:

Ralph Waldo Emerson, Realist Ralph Waldo Emerson, Matt Berry, 2002-10-01 INTRODUCTION We already know Emerson He is the American transcendentalist An Idealist He proposed an egocentrism that threatens our moral heritage He is that proponent of self reliance who fell just short of the achievement known as Henry David Thoreau And let us not neglect his compulsory five minutes in our university education no doubt in American History 101 not Literature It is interesting that in his day Emerson was criticized for not being spiritual enough and for humanizing our notions of the 10 divine Today he is not real enough Yesterday he was criticized for taking the collapse of Christianity for granted Today if Emerson is not entirely useful as a mystic he nonetheless has the practical application of padding self help books Fortunately Emerson is a universalist and so it is entirely appropriate that of two bitterly opposed camps he should find himself the universal enemy of both ally of neither We do not know Emerson very well Our modern detractors have pressed a single essay to our noses so often that we are tempted to re title it The Over sold The harm in such an emphasis is that the remaining essays continue to be undersold Mechanist Books then puts forth as its first title Ralph Waldo Emerson Realist for we wish to set the following essays onto the scales as it were as counterweight to the popular notion that Emerson was not real enough
