Ram Chanders Story:

Memorable War Stories Ranbir Singh Gp Capt,2009-01-01 Memorable War Stories is a collection of 27 war stories and incidents placing on record the exciting exploits of our own fliers of the Indian Air Force and the intrepid fighters of the Army and Navy operating in our own environment All the stories incidents recorded in the book are true and factually correct and are based on research first person accounts and published stories carried by different newspapers and magazines over a period of time Although most of the names of the crews have been clipped down to their squadron nicknames nevertheless they will be quite identifiable to their colleagues and contemporaries The book has been fictionalised to an extent to make it readable and bring in the human angle but there is no compromise on the factual details The war stories and the other incidents cover a wide spectrum beginning with the Kashmir operations and race the reader through the 1962 Sino Indian Frontier War the Twenty Two Fateful Days of the 1965 Indo Pak Conflict the Fourteen Days 1971 war and not forgetting the Kargil Operation Vijay The book has been written in an easy and fluid style which makes it immensely readable and the simple language though with a defence flavour should find favour with the men in uniform as well as civilians It is a welcome addition to the books on defence themes

Narratives Across Borders Manju Jaidka,2016-04-26 This volume is centred around the idea that the aim of literature is to build bridges to bring people together and to highlight underlying similarities despite the apparent differences in world literatures As such the book focuses on the moral purpose of literature and its tendency to overcome divisive forces It supports the idea of cosmopolitanism a re working of the ancient Indian ideal of Vasudhaiva Kuttumbakam or the world is my home a concept close to the African notion of ubuntu which refers to an open society as against a small enclosed one and relates to the essence of being human and working for the benefit of a larger community The book uses examples from texts across geographical and cultural borders beginning with classics like the Indian epics the Panchatantra the Kathasaritsagar and the Arabian Nights before moving on to contemporary texts in the age of information technology Although these may originate against diverse backdrops they have a commonality that cannot be denied The stories we tell the tales we love to hear and repeat all share certain features which reach out across boundaries of time and space thus bridging the gap between people and places Living in today's globalized world there is a need to study literature in a broader perspective and to be aware that though stories may be rooted in a particular time and place they are still a part of the world heritage and comprise what is called world literature The book will be of particular interest to scholars studying the art of storytelling as well as the lay reader passionate about literature
