Ramona Her Mother Inscried:

Criss-crossing Gender, Autobiography and History in Latina Auto-fictional Discourse Sobeira Latorre, 2003

Ramona Helen Hunt Jackson, 1887 Set in Southern California after the Mexican American War it portrays the life of a mixed race Scots Native American orphan girl who suffers racial discrimination and hardship addicted.pregnant.poor Kelly Ray Knight, 2015-09-17 For the addicted pregnant and poor women living in daily rent hotels in San Francisco's Mission district life is marked by battles against drug cravings housing debt and potential violence In this stunning ethnography Kelly Ray Knight presents these women in all their complex humanity and asks what kinds of futures are possible for them given their seemingly hopeless situation During her four years of fieldwork Knight documented women's struggles as they traveled from the street to the clinic jail and family court and back to the hotels She approaches addicted pregnancy as an everyday phenomenon in these women's lives and describes how they must navigate the tension between pregnancy's demands to stay clean and the pull of addiction and poverty toward drug use and sex work By creating the space for addicted women's own narratives and examining addicted pregnancy from medical policy and social science perspectives Knight forces us to confront and reconsider the ways we think about addiction trauma health criminality and responsibility The Constructed Child Linda G. Benson, 1997 Vista Lenora Buffi, 2017-10-31 Ariana Santino is a young violin prodigy when she is first haunted by frightening dreams of a woman living in the nineteenth century When she turns eighteen the dreams stop leading her to believe they are finally over Seven years later after she lands a full time job with the Reno Philharmonic Ariana's life is blissfully normal until she experiences a vision in the middle of a concert Alarmed she begins a search to discover the story behind the woman in her dreams But as her sanity slowly starts to unravel a desperate Ariana turns to her former violin teacher Hector Arguello for answers When she learns there is another life another violinist tied to her own Ariana is led on a gripping journey from the casinos of Reno to the jungles of the Yucatan where she learns the past has a direct link to the present and a mystery deeper than anything she could have ever imagined In this gripping tale a violin prodigy embarks on a dangerous quest to find the enigmatic woman who haunts her dreams a quest that leads her to a startling truth Madness in the Family William Saroyan, 1988 What a delight to find seventeen of Saroyan's uncollected stories within one cover charming tales all blessed with Saroyan's pixieish imagination and magical writing style Even today they read as though they have been freshly minted from the Saroyan treasure house A discovery for those who love Saroyan's fiction his spark is still wonderfully alive Library Journal Ramona N. Balaji, 2025-04-12 Two tender kids a girl Ramona and the boy Brian almost in the same age level from different rural outskirts grow against the society's savage and asymmetrical consideration towards their urchin backdrop With their dexterous focus on their survival they engage in child labour for pittance sometimes nomadic on streets without food and shelter They seesaw unpredictable turbulence both from the nature and their ilk in the society and by their experience learn discomfort is the basis of comfort living When life gives little fillip for survival

Ramona and Brian rise up with some hope to continue their daily chores As the fillip gets dried up or snatched away by the society s grandiose pillars their despair resurfaces gleefully Lola, a Tale of the Rock Arthur Griffiths,1893 A Re-mapping of Womanhood and Creativity Clara Oropeza, PhD,2025-04-24 A Re mapping of Womanhood and Creativity investigates the diverse ways in which women set out to find a matrilineal line as a wellspring for creative transformation and through a lens of analytical psychology how we read women s literary history and narratives about womanhood While following the feminine influences that forged her own search and nature as a writer this book re maps the life and work of Clara Oropeza s literary mother Ana s Nin focusing on Nin s formative affinity with her mother alongside her own personal mother In this mother map Oropeza looks closely at the relationship between mothers and daughters the formation of the maternal wound and ways to move towards healing Oropeza examines the pivotal role that a reconnection to a maternal line has in shaping a woman s creative life This book argues that synthesizing our intellectual spiritual and ancestral ways of knowing away from the harmful narratives that shape our lives is essential today With scholarly and personal insight Oropeza sheds new light on how women come to shores of understanding themselves beyond unresolved familial and historical tensions Combining literature myth and psychology this book will be an illuminating read for students scholars and professionals in the areas of literature psychoanalysis and mythology This book will be crucial reading for women in particular women of color interested in the process of individuation creativity and womanhood Helen Ring Robinson Pat Pascoe,2011-11-01 Helen Ring Robinson was Colorado s first female state senator and only the second in the United States Serving from 1913 to 1916 she worked for social and economic justice as a champion of women children and workers rights and education during a tumultuous time in the country s history Her commitment to these causes did not end in the senate she continued to labor first for world peace and then for the American war effort after her term ended Helen Ring Robinson is The first book to focus on this important figure in the women s suffrage movement and the 1913 1914 and 1915 sessions of the Colorado General Assembly Author Pat Pascoe herself a former Colorado senator uses newspapers legislative materials Robinson s published writings and her own expertise as a legislator to craft the only biography of this contradictory and little known woman Robinson had complex politics as a suffragist peace activist international activist and strong supporter of the war effort in World War I and a curious personal life with an often long distance marriage to lawyer Ewing Robinson yet close relationship with her stepdaughter Alycon Pascoe explores both of these worlds although much of that personal life remains a mystery This fascinating story will be a worthwhile read to anyone interested in Colorado history women s history labor history or politics Queer Culture in Romania, 1920-2018 Ramona Dima,2023-08-12 This book is an in depth extensive study of Romanian queer cultural products It brings an essential contribution to the literature on Central and South Eastern European gender studies post communism studies media and cultural studies as well as transnational queer studies The book looks at Romanian queer culture from inside and from the acknowledgment that the research process is guided by the sensitivity of the approached topics by the lack of archival footprints and by a solid dose of media archaeology especially when looking at the beginning of Romanian LGBT activism in the 90s The book starts from contemporary Romanian cultural products that are focusing on queer topics and or produced by queer creators It looks back at the memories of seminal queer and trans activists in extensive interviews conducted for this volume and fragmented literary and media sources that cover the most part of the 20th century About the translation This book has been translated from Romanian by Andreea Moise The Introduction and Chapter 6 were translated by Maria Cohut The Unconventional Nancy Ruth Ramona Lumpkin,2021-05-11 Born into privilege but expected to use her advantages for the good of others Senator Nancy Ruth has led an uncommon unconventional life From her religious ministry to rewriting Canada s national anthem to make it gender neutral this outspoken complicated woman has put her stamp on Canada s public life Her generous feminist philanthropy allowed numerous women s organizations to flourish and her talents for friendship and for controversy meant the work was serious but never dull Like Nancy herself this book is rich in surprises and contradictions about a remarkable woman who used her privilege to support social change and the battle to better women s lives in Canada Lola Arthur Griffiths,1877 Lola. A Tale of the Rock Arthur Griffiths,2024-06-01 Reprint of the original first published in 1876

Jean Stafford Mary Ellen Williams Walsh,1985 Las Hermanas Lara Medina,2004 In this historical study Lara Medina examines the early development and continuing influence of Las Hermanas a feminist organization established in 1971 to counter the patriarchy and Eurocentrism of the U S Catholic Church Medina weaves archival research and oral interviews into a cohesive narrative that highlights the keen ethnic and political awareness among the movement s leaders and participants Medina also illuminates the strides made by Las Hermanas in undermining and reorienting the male dominated structure of both the Catholic ministry and the Chicano civil rights movement By showing how the group has engaged such issues as moral authority sexuality and domestic abuse through its religiously informed efforts in grassroots community organizing and education Medina showcases the crucial role played by Las Hermanas in the articulation of a spiritually and politically grounded Latina Chicana identity Grizzly Bear ,1924 Imagining Literacy Ramona Fernandez,2010-01-01 Defining the common knowledge a literate person should possess has provoked intense debate ever since the publication of E D Hirsch s controversial book Cultural Literacy What Every American Needs to Know Yet the basic concept of common knowledge Ramona Fernandez argues is a Eurocentric model ill suited to a society composed of many distinct cultures and many local knowledges In this book Fernandez decodes the ideological assumptions that underlie prevailing models of cultural literacy as she offers new ways of imagining and modeling mixed cultural and non print literacies In particular she challenges the biases inherent in the encyclopedias of knowledge promulgated by E D Hirsch and others by Disney World s EPCOT Center and by the Smithsonian Institution In contrast to these she places the writings of Zora Neale Hurston Maxine Hong Kingston Gloria Anzald a and Leslie Marmon Silko whose works model a cultural literacy that weaves connections across many local knowledges and many ways of knowing The Bodies That Were Not Ours Coco Fusco, 2013-10-11

Interdisciplinary artist and writer Coco Fusco is one of North America's leading interpreters of intercultural theory and practice. This volume gathers together her finest writings since 1995 and includes critical essays by Jean Fisher and Caroline Vercoe that interpret her work. Engaging and provocative, these essays, interviews, performance scripts, and fotonovelas take readers on a tour of our current multicultural landscape. Fusco explores such issues as sex tourism in Cuba as a barometer of the island's entry into the global economy, Frantz Fanon's theorization of metropolitan blackness, and artistic and net activist responses to the effects of free trade on the Mexican populace. She interviews such postcolonial personae as Isaac Julien, Hilton Als, and Tracey Moffatt. Approaching the dynamics of cultural fusion from many angles, Fusco's satires, commentaries, and sociological inquiries collapse boundaries and form a sustained meditation on how the forces of globalization impact upon the making of art.

Citizenship and Belonging in France and North America Ramona Mielusel, Simona Emilia Pruteanu, 2020-01-09

The first decades of the new millennium have been marked by major political changes. Although The West has wished to revisit internal and international politics concerning migration, policies, refugee status, integration, secularism, and the dismantling of communitarianism, events like the Syrian refugee crisis, the terrorist attacks in France in 2015-2016, and the economic crisis of 2008 have resurrected concepts such as national identity, integration, citizenship, and reshaping state policies in many developed countries. In France and Canada, more recent public elections have brought complex democratic political figures like Emmanuel Macron and Justin Trudeau to the public eye. Both leaders were elected based on their promising political agendas that aimed at bringing their countries into the new millennium. Trudeau promotes multiculturalism, while Macron touts the diverse nation and the inclusion of diverse ethnic communities to the national model. This edited collection aims to establish a dialogue between these two countries and across disciplines in search of such discursive illustrations and opposing discourses. Analyzing the cultural and political tensions between minority groups and the state in light of political events that question ideas of citizenship and belonging to a multicultural nation, the chapters in this volume serve as a testimonial to the multiple views on the political and public perception of multicultural practices and their national and international applicability to our current geopolitical context.

Enjoying the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Ramona Her Mother Inscried
