Rape My Story:

Rape Jill Saward,1995 Real Rape Susan Estrich,1987 Many men believe that they can force women to have sex against their will and that it isn't rape at least not if the man knows the woman and doesn't beat her up or wield a weapon The law's casual treatment of such rape cases is the subject of this pioneering book which is both a powerful exposé of the often shocking facts and a trenchantly written call for reform The Teacher's Body Diane P. Freedman,Martha Stoddard Holmes,2012-02-01 These highly personal essays from a range of academic settings explore the palpable moments of discomfort disempowerment and or enlightenment that emerge when we discard the fiction that the teacher has no body Visible and or invisible the body can transform both the teacher's experience and classroom dynamics When students think the teacher's body is clearly marked by ethnicity race disability size gender sexuality illness age pregnancy class linguistic and geographic origins or some combination of these both the mode and the content of education can change Other less visible aspects of a teacher's body such as depression or a history of sexual assault can have an equally powerful impact on how we teach and learn The collection anatomizes these moments of embodied pedagogy as unexpected teaching opportunities and examines their apparent impact on teacher student educational dynamics of power authority desire friendship open mindedness and resistance It's a Girl Dr Mehnaaz Nadiadwala,2017-03-01 Alpha women are not born they are made For them age is just a number The society their personal experiences and the will to never die makes them alpha women They are confident majestic leaders and believe in no game playing They believe in an equal or superior position to men They tap their weaknesses to convert it to their strengths She makes a posthumous mark on society and the world In other words alpha women make an imprint on life It's not a difficult task to be one of them One just has to make up their minds and the journey starts BE the prototype for the woman in the future Be an alpha woman Victims Ross McGarry,Sandra Walklate,2015-06-05 The study of victims of crime is a central concern for criminologists around the world In recent years some victimologists have become increasingly engaged in positivist debates on the differences between victims and non victims how these differences can be measured and what could be done to improve the victims experience of the criminal justice system Written by experts in the field this book embraces a much wider understanding of social harms and asks which victims voices are heard and why McGarry and Walklate break new ground with this innovative and accessible book it offers a broad discussion of social harms the role of the victim in society and the inter relationship between trauma testimony and justice and asks how has harm been understood and under what circumstances have those harms been recognised how and under what circumstances are those harms articulated how and under what circumstances are the voices of those who have been harmed listened to Each chapter draws on case studies and a range of questions designed to assist in reflection and critical engagement This book is perfect reading for students taking courses on victimology victims and society victims rights and criminal justice Rape Mithu Sanyal,2019-05-14 A bold honest and unflinching look at the way we talk and think about rape Thanks to Title IX cases MeToo and Times Up the issue of rape seems to be constantly in the news But our thinking on the subject has a long history one that cultural critic Mithu Sanyal elegantly reconstructs She narrates a history spanning from Lucretia whose legendary rape and suicide was said to be the downfall of the last Roman king to second wave feminism Tarzan and Roman Polanski Sanyal demonstrates that the way we understand rape is remarkably and alarmingly consistent across the ages even though the world has changed beyond recognition It is high time for a new and informed debate about sexual violence sexual boundaries and consent Mithu Sanyal shows that our comprehension of rape is closely connected to our understanding of sex sexuality and gender Why is it that we expect victims to be irreparably damaged When we think of rapists why do we think of strangers rather than uncles husbands priests or boyfriends And in the era of MeToo what should justice look like Rape From Lucretia to MeToo examines the role of race and the recurrent image of the black rapist the omission of male victims and what we mean when we talk about rape culture Sanyal takes on every received opinion we have about rape arguing with liberals conservatives and feminists alike Telling Sexual Stories Ken Plummer, 2002-11 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Treating the Trauma of Rape Edna B. Foa, Barbara Olasov Rothbaum, 2001-10-24 After reviewing the relevant treatment literature the authors detail how to assess and treat PTSD using a cognitive behavioral approach Complete instructions are given for planning treatment as well as for introducing the patient to the various interventions Nine exposure and stress management techniques are then detailed including imaginal exposure trauma reliving in vivo exposure relaxation training thought stopping cognitive restructuring covert modeling and role playing Enhancing the book's clinical utility are numerous case examples illustrating how to implement the techniques as well as explanations of how to cope with common problems and complications in treatment The final chapter presents detailed outlines of three suggested treatment programs Rape Narratives that Paved the Way for #MeToo Marta Fernández-Morales, 2025-08-12 This book examines a decade of rape memoirs produced by English speaking women around the emergence of MeToo as a global phenomenon It argues that their autobiographical praxis opened a crack in the long standing wall of silence that the 2017 online campaign and its echoes still resonating today are systematically eroding Jana Leo Joanna Connors Roxane Gay Myriam Gurba Chanel Miller Jeannie Vanasco Eve Ensler Thordis Elva and other survivors helped set and reaffirm the bases for the current zeitgeist around sexual violence characterized by a tsunami of stories in circulation and a growing audience that is more ready than ever to listen to the victims ethically and empathically This volume offers an in depth analysis of a literary corpus that contributes to the conversation about the narrative politics of the fourth wave of feminism and some of its key preoccupations such as consent accountability and justice Of particular value for academics and activists working on against sexual violence as well as for life writing and gender studies scholars it can also be useful to specialists in the fields of ethics affect theory trauma studies memory studies cultural studies phenomenology victimology or ethnic and minority studies Rethinking Sexual
