Rational A Man:

Heroic Egoism Darin Penzera, 2012-08-17 Heroic Egoism explains the great moral art the sculpting of moral character showing you how to sculpt your soul into the form of greatness The purpose of this book is to provide an ethical training system for creating ideal human beings This book will provide you with a step by step guide on how to practice a rational code of morality in your everyday life When you exercise in the steps of moral training outlined in these pages consistently and sincerely they will produce in you true strength of character

A Compendium of the Theological Writings of Emanuel Swedenborg Emanuel Swedenborg, Samuel Mills Warren, 1885 Models of Man Martin Hollis, 2015-10-15 This classic book is Martin Hollis's influential rationalist account and exploration of human action and identity Decision Making Anthony G. McGrew, Michael John Wilson, 1982 The analysis of decision making under uncertainty has again become a major focus of interest This volume presents contributions from leading specialists in different fields and provides a summary and synthesis of work in this area It is based on a conference held at the Harvard Business School The book brings together the different approaches to decision making normative descriptive and prescriptive which largely correspond to different disciplinary interests Mathematicians have concentrated on rational procedures for decision making how people should make decisions Psychologists have examined how people do make decisions and how far their behaviour is compatible with any rational model Operations researchers study the application of decision models to actual problems Throughout the aim is to present the current state of research and its application and also to show how the different disciplinary approaches can inform one another and thus lay the foundations for the integrated analysis of decision making The book will be of interest to researchers teachers for use as background reading for a decision theory course students and consultants and others involved in the practical application of the analysis of decision making It will be of interest to specialists and students in statistics mathematics economics psychology and the behavioural sciences operations research and management science

Rational Man and Irrational Society? Brian Barry, Russell Hardin, 1982-04 The Prisoner's Dilemma and Kenneth Arrow's General Possibility Theorem are two of the most simple yet far reaching concepts in social science The first captures in an easily understood paradox how individually rational acts that benefit individual people can combine to produce a result that is of less benefit to everyone The Arrow Theorem shows that there is no formula for ranking the preferences of many people into a rational aggregate This book is a collection of the best work done on these two ideas It is an ideal introduction for students or sourcebook for professionals it presents the traditional works addressing the problems of rationality in social and political theory the anthology represents a much need A New Approach to Utilitarianism C.L. Sheng, 2012-12-06 1 1 Utilitarian Theories This book is a monograph on moral philosophy and social philosophy particularly the part of the philosophy of economics that is related to the general distribution problem It presents a comprehensive ethical theory together with an application of the theory to distributive justice The viewpoint of this theory is utilitarian However this theory is different in some crucial points as well as in minor details from all existing forms of utilitarianism Moral philosophy deals essentially with the moral judgment of actions i e whether a moral action is right or wrong good or bad The judgment is usually based on a line of logical reasoning which can be traced to a final reason called the justification or ultimate principle An ethical theory is a self consistent system built upon a basic or ultimate principle An ultimate principle can never be rigorously proven and is not unique Different philosophers establish different ethical theories upon different principles Therefore in the history of development of moral philosophy there have been a large number of ethical theories and schools Even within the same school having the same ultimate principle different philosophers may have different versions of the theory because of small variations in the interpretation of the ultimate principle or in the elaboration of the details

Action and Interpretation Christopher Hookway, Philip Pettit, 1980-05-08 These eight essays converge on the themes of intentionality realism and theory choice in philosophy and the social sciences Heavenly Arcana which are in the Sacred Scripture Or Word of the Lord, Laid Open, Together with Wonderful Things which Were Seen in the World of Spirits and in the Heaven of Angels Emanuel Swedenborg, 1838 The Apocalypse Explained According to the Spiritual Sense in which are Revealed the Arcana which are There Predicted and Have Been Hitherto Deeply Concealed Translated from a Latin Work of Emanuel Swedenborg, 1859 The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts, 1898
