Same Stuff As Stars:

The Same Stuff as Stars Katherine Paterson, 2003 Angel's dad is in jail and her mum's abandoned her and her little brother at their great grandmother's crumbling farmhouse. Grandma can't even look after herself let alone two children so Angel finds that it's left up to her. In a dreary and lonely world there is only one bright spot: a mysterious stranger who appears on clear nights to teach Angel all about the stars. Katherine Paterson is an internationally acclaimed author who has won the Newbery Medal twice, the National Book Award for Children's Literature USA twice and the prestigious Hans Christian Andersen Award.

Action Research Jean McNiff, 2002-01-22 Since the first edition of this established text was published in 1988, action research has gained ground as a popular method amongst educational researchers and in particular for practising teachers doing higher level courses. In this new edition, Jean McNiff provides updates on methodological discussions and includes new sections of case study material and information on supporting action research. The book raises issues about how action research is theorised, whether it is seen as a spectator discipline or as a real life practice, and how practitioners position themselves within the debate. It discusses the importance for educators of understanding their own work and showing how their educative influence can lead to the development of good orders in formal and informal learning settings and in the wider community. This second edition comes at a time when, after years of debate over what counts as action research, it is now considered an acceptable and useful part of mainstream research practice.

Rethinking Pastoral Care Una M Collins, Jean McNiff, 2012-10-12 The issue of pastoral care and how a teacher effectively provides it is currently a topic of great debate in the media. With teachers increasingly bearing the brunt of their pupils difficult personal lives they feel under pressure to do the right thing and to do it in an informed and professional manner This book investigates how teachers can attempt to give good quality pastoral care whether as a form tutor in the first instance or in a managerial role further along in their development It uses practical case studies as examples of what can be achieved and explores the theory of this subject making it the perfect resource for teachers counsellors and undergraduates on PGCE BEd and BA courses

On the Production of Subjectivity S. O'Sullivan, 2012-09-24 This book offers a series of critical commentaries on and forced encounters between different thinkers At stake in this philosophical and psychoanalytical enquiry is the drawing of a series of diagrams of the finite infinite relation and the mapping out of the contours for a speculative and pragmatic production of subjectivity

Ethics and Children's Literature Claudia Mills, 2016-05-13 Exploring the ethical questions posed by in and about children's literature this collection examines the way texts intended for children raise questions of value depict the moral development of their characters and call into attention shared moral presuppositions The essays in Part I look at various past attempts at conveying moral messages to children and interrogate their underlying assumptions What visions of childhood were conveyed by explicit attempts to cultivate specific virtues in children What unstated cultural assumptions were expressed by growing resistance to didacticism How should we prepare children to respond to racism in their books and in their society Part II takes up the ethical orientations of various classic and contemporary texts including prosaic ethics in the Hundred Acre Wood moral discernment in Narnia ethical recognition in the distant worlds traversed by L. Engle and virtuous transgression in recent Anglo American children's literature and in the emerging children's literature of 1960s Taiwan Part III's essays engage in ethical criticism of arguably problematic messages about our relationship to nonhuman animals about war and about prejudice The final section considers how we respond to children's literature with ethically focused essays exploring a range of ways in which child readers and adult authorities react to children's literature Even as children's literature has evolved in opposition to its origins in didactic Sunday school tracts and moralizing fables authors parents librarians and scholars remain sensitive to the values conveyed to children through the texts they choose to share with them passages from which they were adapted Programming ideas that can be adapted for use across different age levels from preschool to YA Comments from prominent children s authors who have shared Readers Theatre experiences with Poe Combining the theoretical and the practical Poe s book helps children and YA librarians assist young people in developing a lifelong love of literature

Stitches Anne Lamott, 2013-10-29 The New York Times bestseller from the author of Dusk Night Dawn Hallelujah Anyway Bird by Bird and Almost Everything Lamott s most insightful book yet Stitches offers plenty of her characteristic witty wisdom this slim readable volume is a lens on life widening and narrowing encouraging each reader to reflect on what it is after all that really matters People What do we do when life lurches out of balance How can we reconnect to one other and to what s sustaining when evil and catastrophe seem inescapable These questions lie at the heart of Stitches Lamott s profound follow up to her New York Times bestselling Help Thanks Wow In this book Lamott explores how we find meaning and peace in these loud and frantic times where we start again after personal and public devastation how we recapture wholeness after loss and how we locate our true identities in this frazzled age We begin Lamott says by collecting the ripped shreds of our emotional and spiritual fabric and sewing them back together one stitch at a time It s in these stitches that the quilt of life begins and embedded in them are strength warmth humor and humanity

Life After Death Alan Segal, 2010-06-23 A magisterial work of social history Life After Death illuminates the many different ways ancient civilizations grappled with the question of what exactly happens to us after we die In a masterful exploration of how Western civilizations have defined the afterlife Alan F Segal weaves together biblical and literary scholarship sociology history and philosophy A renowned scholar Segal examines the maps of the afterlife found in Western religious texts and reveals not only what various cultures believed but how their notions reflected their societies realities and ideals and why those beliefs changed over time He maintains that the afterlife is the mirror in which a society arranges its concept of the self The composition process for Judaism Christianity and Islam begins in grief and ends in the victory of the self over death Arguing that in every religious tradition the afterlife represents the ultimate reward for the good Segal combines historical and anthropological data with insights gleaned from religious and philosophical writings to explain the following mysteries why the Egyptians insisted on an afterlife in heaven while the body was embalmed in a tomb on earth why the Babylonians viewed the dead as living in underground prisons why the Hebrews remained silent about life after death during the period of the First Temple yet embraced it in the Second Temple period 534 B C E 70 C E and why Christianity placed the afterlife in the center of its belief system He discusses the inner dialogues and arguments within Judaism and Christianity showing the underlying dynamic behind them as well as the ideas that mark the differences between the two religions In a thoughtful examination of the influence of biblical views of heaven and martyrdom on Islamic beliefs he offers a fascinating perspective on the current troubling rise of Islamic fundamentalism In tracing the organic historical relationships between sacred texts and communities of belief and comparing the visions of life after death that have emerged throughout history Segal sheds a bright revealing light on the intimate connections between notions of the afterlife the societies that produced them and the individual s search for the ultimate meaning of life on earth Evolution Equals Genesis Dr. Guillermo Escamilla,2022-11-03

I imagine that from the moment humans were able to communicate they have contemplated their place in Creation in this universe Stories handed down from parents to children elders to tribes teachers to pupils and civilization to civilization about the story of Creation Countless versions throughout human history all try to explain our place in existence Two such versions are in Genesis and the Theory of Evolution These have been the most hotly debated versions in recent history It is the purpose of this book to show the reader how the seven days of Creation written in the book of Genesis can be matched to the sequence of events in evolution It is my hope that a new debate can be born of this The debate of how Genesis and evolution are more similar than they are different Similarly it is my wish to create a sense of wonderment and curiosity to things spiritual and science Paul and the Person Susan Grove Eastman,2017 In this book Susan Grove Eastman presents a fresh and innovative exploration of Paul s participatory theology in conversation with both ancient and contemporary conceptions of the self Juxtaposing Paul ancient philosophers and modern theorists of the person Eastman opens up a conversation that illuminates Paul s thought in new ways and brings his voice into current debates about personhood
