Christianity, Modernity and Culture John

Stenhouse,G. A. Wood,2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country s social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains

A History of the Churches in Australasia Ian Breward,2001-12-13 This pioneering study of Australian New Zealand and Pacific Christianity opens up new perspectives on Christianization and modernization in this richly complex region The reception of Christianity into Pacific cultures has produced strongly Christian societies Based on research in widely scattered archives this book not only deals with regional interactions but pays careful attention to developments in microstates and to the variety of indigenous religious movements which were earlier regarded as deviations from Christian orthodoxy but are now seen as significant adaptations of Christian teaching In Australia and New Zealand too European Christian beginnings have been given local emphases producing Churches with distinctive identities Lay leadership is emphasized not only in the Churches but as part of the Christian presence in the realms of politics business and culture The broad liturgical theological constitutional and pastoral developments of the 19th and 20th centuries are mapped as a context for the striking changes which have taken place since the 1960s The dynamics of religious change and conflict the ambiguities of religious authority and the destructive effects of Christian colonialism on indigenous communities especially Australian aborigines are all frankly dealt with The decline of the institutional impact of the Churches in Australia and New Zealand is explored as is the growth of partnership between government and Churches in education social welfare and overseas aid and development Interchange in personnel and ideas is strikingly illustrated in the missionary activities of the regional Churches and their cultural impact The author s involvement in Church and community leadership ecumenism and theological education makes this volume in The Oxford History of the Christian Church a valuable addition to the series describing both continuities with world Christianity and little known local developments

our leading historians offers a new account of the origins of New Zealand how Pakeha settlers a Better Britain While both experiments were first conceived by savants and philosophers they gained ongoing support by lodging in the hearts and minds of the settlers whalers and missionaries mothers and farmers In turn Maori adapted these new ideas to their own ends giving up slavery and inter tribal warfare and adapting the institutions of the colonisers in ways that would re define the experiments This then is an ethnography of tangata Pakeha a people of European descent changed by their encounters with tangata Maori and their land just as Maori were themselves changed and the story of the society they built together Ranging across intellectual and cultural history from the beach at Paihia to the coffee houses of Paris Olssen enables us to understand the origins of New Zealand anew The Oxford History of Anglicanism, Volume III Rowan Strong, 2017-01-26 The Oxford History of Anglicanism is a major new and unprecedented international study of the identity and historical influence of one of the world s largest versions of Christianity This global study of Anglicanism from the sixteenth century looks at how was Anglican identity constructed and contested at various periods since the sixteenth century and what was its historical influence during the past six centuries It explores not just the ecclesiastical and theological aspects of global Anglicanism but also the political social economic and cultural influences of this form of Christianity that has been historically significant in western culture and a burgeoning force in non western societies today The chapters are written by international experts in their various historical fields which includes the most recent research in their areas as well as original research The series forms an invaluable reference for both scholars and interested non specialists Volume three of The Oxford History of Anglicanism explores the nineteenth century when Anglicanism developed into a world wide Christian communion largely but not solely due to the expansion of the British Empire By the end of this period an Anglican Communion had come into existence as a diverse conglomerate of often competing Anglican identities with their often unresolved tensions and contradictions but also with some measure of genuine unity The volume examines the ways the various Anglican identities of the nineteenth century are both metropolitan and colonial constructs and how they influenced the wider societies in which they formed Anglican Churches A History of the English Church in New Zealand Henry Thomas Purchas, 1914

Beyond Betrayal Keith Newman, 2013-09-25 Beyond Betrayal delves into New Zealand s pioneering history and asks why such promising partnerships descended into decades of distrust After the Treaty of Waitangi was signed a succession of governors resisted missionary advice despite their local knowledge and peacemaking skills and influenced a raft of misunderstandings that provoked violent outbreaks across the country The rise of Maori prophetic movements and an intense desire for Maori to have a unified political voice saw allegiances split between those supporting the government and those frustrated at failed Treaty promises The pressure to surrender tribal lands had the same impact a shattered economy and a dispossessed people The thrilling follow up to Keith Newman s bestselling Bible Treaty Beyond Betrayal looks behind the events that led to the first Maori land protests and follows the unfolding drama through the stories of the early missionaries and Maori heroes of the faith These dramatic and heartrending tales of injustice sacrifice and redemption form an important and often misunderstood backdrop to the wider New Zealand story one of the most turbulent periods in our history told with skill sensitivity and heart

A Bibliography of the Literature Relating to New Zealand Thomas Morland Hocken, 1909 New Zealand Henry Jacobs, 1889 "Art, Sex and Eugenics " Anthea Callen, 2017-07-05 This book reveals how art and sex promoted the desire for the genetically perfect body Its eight chapters demonstrate that before eugenics was stigmatized by the Holocaust and Western histories were sanitized of its prevalence a vast array of Western politicians physicians eugenic societies family leagues health associations laboratories and museums advocated through verbal and visual cultures the breeding of the master race Each chapter illustrates the uncanny resemblances between models of sexual management and the perfect eugenic body in America Britain France Communist Russia and Nazi Germany both before and after the Second World War Traced back to the eighteenth century anatomy lesson the perfect eugenic body is revealed as athletic hygienic pure blooded and sexually potent This paradigm is shown to have persisted as much during the Bolshevik sexual revolution as in democratic nations and fascist regimes Consistently posed naked these images were unashamedly exhibitionist and voyeuristic Despite stringent legislation against obscenity not only were these images commended for soliciting the spectator's gaze but also for motivating the spectator to act out their desire An examination of the counter archives of Maori and African Americans also exposes how biologically racist eugenics could be equally challenged by art Ultimately this book establishes that art inculcated procreative sex with the Corpus Delecti the delectable body healthy wholesome and sanctioned by eugenicists for improving the Western race

My Hand Will Write what My Heart Dictates Frances Porter, Charlotte Macdonald, Tui MacDonald, 1996 The women of this book are mainly Pakeha They are domestic servants governors wives and farmers married single widowed or deserted They write about love friendship children destitution illness and grief Maori women write about land loss and love about families and domestic events in both Maori and English

The Problems of Success: a History of the Church Missionary Society, 1910-1942 Gordon Hewitt, 1971 The New Zealand Cross Dr. Brian L Kieran, 2016-03-15 The New Zealand Cross There has been no comprehensive history of the award published in one place Dr Kieran explores the development of the creation and inauguration of the award a listing of all the recipients and an outline of the New Zealand Wars from 1860 to 1872 The Victoria Cross and other decorations were being awarded to Imperial troops but the settlers in the Volunteers and Militia were not being recognised for carrying out similar acts of bravery The recognition of acts worthy of the NZC were anticipated to become well known however the awards spanned a period to 1910 and thus the impact of the bravery leading to an award of the NZC was not achieved Personalities like King Tawhiao Sir George Bowen Sir George Grey Lt General Cameron Te Kooti Titokowaru and Major General Whitmore were involved in the conflict A major issue leading to battles arose due to land confiscation by the settlers The battles were mainly restricted to the North Island Taranaki and Wanganui

on the West Coast Waikato in the Central area and on the East Coast at Gisborne Napier Tauranga and the Urewera
