Prisoner of War Camp Unlike other POWs the traditional Japanese Bushido Code and their fanaticism leaves them ill equipped for surrender and imprisonment Ashamed subdued and sullen one man Second Lieutenant Maseo Naka is an exception Obstructing the Australian authorities at every turn he was the first Japanese soldier to escape from Cowra This action becomes the precursor for the more than 1000 Japanese prisoners who escape in the bloodiest Breakout of World War II that ultimately saw 234 Japanese and four Australian guards killed His escape and the defiance guilt and shame that motivated it led to his court martial Naka nevertheless stands out as very human another tragic victim of the global inferno that was World War II Adhering to the Samurai Code of Bushido he doggedly undertakes actions that he views as necessary for the maintenance of his honour Through the insights of those around Naka together with new research including the personal accounts of Australian interrogators the author shows how this handsome loner provided the impetus for the dramatic events in the early hours of August 5 1944 where hundreds of Japanese soldiers stormed the Camp defences for honour or death

The Geopolitics of East Asia Robyn Lim, 2012-10-12 East Asia is a potential area of international conflict with a number of possible flashpoints and with the absence of strong regional organisations able to deal with conflict resolution. At the same time, global powers frequently get involved in the international politics of the region in order to protect their interests. This book presents a comprehensive overview of the geopolitics of the region. It focuses in particular on the way geographical and historical forces continue to play a key role in shaping international relations here. It considers the role of both regional and international powers and assesses the risks of war in the region. Asian Futures, Asian Traditions Edwina Palmer, 2021-10-01 To what extent are our futures likely to be determined by our traditions from the past? Asian Futures, Asian Traditions is a collection of conference papers by scholars of Asian Studies who explore the topics of continuity and change in Asian societies through essays in history, politics, gender studies, language, literature, film, performance, and music. Recurring among the themes of the book are the invention and reinvention of tradition, nostalgia, issues of national and ethnic identity, colonial heritage, nationalism, reform, and the effects of globalizing economies. Both the power and the precariousness of several Asian economies are revealed in studies of the Asian Economic Crisis of the late 1990s and the conversion of some communist states to market socialism. Cuisine and Culture Linda Civitello, 2011-03-29 Cuisine and Culture presents a multicultural and multiethnic approach that draws connections between major historical events and how and why these events affected and defined the culinary traditions of different societies. Witty and engaging, Civitello shows how history has shaped our diet and how food has affected history. Prehistoric societies are explored all the way to present-day issues such as genetically modified foods and the rise of celebrity chefs. Civitello's humorous tone and deep knowledge are the perfect antidote to the usual scholarly and academic treatment of this universally important subject.
