Sanctification Liberation Theologies In Light Of The Wesleyan Tradition:

Sanctification & Liberation Theodore Runyon, 1981 Nineteenth century America Timothy L Smith Whither evangelicalism Donald W Dayton The Wesleyan movement and women's liberation Nancy A Hardesty Sanctification and liberation in the black religious tradition James H Cone The Methodist witness and the African situation Kwesi A Dickson A liberating Pastoral for the rich Dow Kirkpatrick Sanctification and Liberation World Methodist Council, Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Paul, the Community, and Progressive Sanctification James M. Howard, 2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God's transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God's glory to the broader creation Decolonizing Wesleyan Theology Filipe Maia, 2024-02-15 What can movements for decolonization teach Wesleyan theology This book faces this question to show that decolonial voices are reshaping the contours of Methodist and Wesleyan traditions Contributors to this volume include theologians pastors and leaders in the Global South who are leading the people called Methodists to encounter the tradition anew in the radical spirit of decolonization Exploring the Range of Theology Theodore Runyon, 2012-01-25 Every human being is a theologian We have a curiosity about the ultimate context in which we exist Theologians help us spell that out and examine what faith is all about The wide ranging issues and questions this book addresses begin with the differences between Christianity and other religions examine the relation between the Bible science and evolution explore the role of religious experience in the birth of faith and consider the contribution theologians like Paul Tillich Friedrich Gogarten Teilhard de Chardin Jurgen Moltmann and John Wesley can make to our thought today Salvation in Melanesia Michael Press, 2020-06-15 Salvation in Melanesia explores the views of salvation held by Methodist Lutheran and Pentecostal Christians in Fiji and Papua New Guinea uncovering the ways in which a Protestant theology of unconditional salvation through God's judgment and grace has been combined with traditional Melanesian religious concepts of reciprocity retribution and obedience to cultural laws While Pentecostal churches have offered new experiences of transformation by rejecting what they regard as the mingling of Melanesian culture with Christianity in other churches they have also kept certain elements of traditional Melanesian spirituality Meanwhile today economic globalization and secularization result in new questions about the relationship between the people the leaders the land and God Michael Press uses mission sources and interviews to describe the different concepts of mission their reception the main images of God and the relationship between religion and culture in Melanesian churches as well as the factors that support or hinder personal transformation

Responsible Grace Randy L. Maddox, 1994-10-01 Of special focus in this reflective overview of Wesley's theological convictions is highlighting the practical theological dynamics of Wesley's work and suggesting possible implications for contemporary attempts to recover theology as a practical discipline Another distinctive focus of this work is a systematic consideration of the integration of theological emphases traditionally divergent in Eastern and Western Christianity The author also closely examines the consistency of Wesley's thought throughout his career

Love in a Time of Climate Change Sharon Delgado, 2017-06-30 Love in a Time of Climate Change challenges readers to develop a loving response to climate change which disproportionately harms the poor threatens future generations and damages God's creation This book creatively adapts John Wesley's theological method by using scripture tradition reason and experience to explore the themes of creation and justice in the context of the earth's changing climate By consciously employing these four sources of authority readers discover a unique way to reflect on planetary warming theologically and to discern a faithful response The book's premise is that love of God and neighbor in this time of climate change requires us to honor creation and establish justice for our human family for future generations and for all creation From the introduction As we entrust our lives to God we are enabled to join with others in the movement for climate justice and to carry a unified message of healing love and solidarity as we live into God's future offering hope in the midst of the climate crisis that another world is possible God is ever present always with us Love never ends

Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli-Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism

Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish, 2015-08-24 At the beginning of Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish reminds us that dogmatics involves critical transmission of the Christian heritage The dogmatic theologian must interpret and assess the traditional beliefs of the church while also considering the new and changing conditions in which that tradition is being embodied With that Gerrish goes on to outline the various presuppositions and affirmations of the Christian faith before ultimately offering a powerful and compelling restatement of Christian faith for the twenty first century As part of his framework Gerrish includes a critical comparison of Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion and Schleiermacher's Christian Faith while still paying close attention to the great cloud of theological witnesses from across the spectrum of Christian traditions Gerrish's book provides a robust and penetrating revisioning of Christian theology one that is thoroughly grounded in the classical traditions of the church The Early Methodist Class Meeting David Lowes Watson, 2002-04-22

Pentecostal Perspectives on Social Justice Thomas U. Kurt, 2025-06-10 The beginnings of the Pentecostal movement were characterized by charismatic gifts and an extraordinary missionary dynamic At the same time early Pentecostals stood out from their social environment for their liberal practices on race and women's issues and for their pacifism In a world characterized by violence oppression and exploitation the question of justice is crucial for the future of this world At the same time for Pentecostals the question of the future of this world is closely linked to the kingdom of God This book explores whether there is a common denominator in Pentecostal social ethics what that denominator consists of and what its theological categories are To answer these questions it examines four representatives of the global Pentecostal church who have made prominent contributions in the field of social ethics The results are then discussed in a dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann one of the most prominent voices in systematic theology for social justice and the liberation of the oppressed

John Woolman and the Government of Christ Jon R. Kershner, 2018-03-01 In 1758 a Quaker tailor and sometime shopkeeper and school teacher stood up in a Quaker meeting and declared that the time had come for Friends to reject the practice of slavery That man was John Woolman and that moment was a significant step among many toward the abolition of slavery in the United States Woolman's antislavery position was only one essential piece of his comprehensive theological vision for colonial American society Drawing on Woolman's entire body of writing Jon R Kershner reveals that the theological and spiritual underpinnings of Woolman's alternative vision for the British Atlantic world were nothing less than a direct spiritual christocracy on earth what Woolman referred to as the Government of Christ Kershner argues that Woolman's theology is best understood as apocalyptic centered on a supernatural revelation of Christ's immediate presence governing all aspects of human affairs and envisaging the impending victory of God's reign over apostasy John Woolman and the Government of Christ explores the theological reasoning behind Woolman's critique of the burgeoning trans Atlantic economy slavery and British imperial conflicts and fundamentally reinterprets 18th century Quakerism by demonstrating the continuing influence of early Quaker apocalypticism

An Introduction to World Methodism Kenneth Cracknell, Susan J. White, 2005-05-05 The world Methodist community now numbers over 75 million people in more than 130 countries The story of Methodism is fascinating and multi faceted because there are so many distinct traditions within it some stemming directly from Britain and some arising in the United States In this book the authors address the issue of what holds all Methodists together and examine the strengths and diversity of an influential major form of Christian life and witness They look at the ways in which Methodism has become established throughout the world examining historical and theological developments and patterns of worship and spirituality in their various cultural contexts The book reflects both the lasting contributions of John and Charles Wesley and the on going contribution of Methodism to the ecumenical movement and inter religious relations It offers both analysis and abundant resources for further study Religion, Rebellion, Revolution Bruce Lincoln,1985-07-22 Papers from a symposium on Religion and revolution held at the University of Minnesota 6 8 Nov 1981 The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell,2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Mu ammad Ibn abd al Wa hab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader The Sower and the Seer Joseph Hogan,Jon Lauck,Paul Murphy,Andrew Seal,Gleaves

Whitney,2021-02-17 This collection of twenty two essays a product of recent revivals of interest in both Midwestern history and intellectual history argues for the contributions of interior thinkers and ideas in forming an American identity The Midwest has been characterized as a fertile seedbed for the germination of great thinkers but a wasteland for their further growth The Sower and the Seer reveals that representation to be false In fact the region has sustained many innovative minds and been the locus of extraordinary intellectualism It has also been the site of shifting interpretations to some a frontier to others a colonized space a breadbasket a crossroads a heartland As agrarian reformed and Michigander Liberty Hyde Bailey expressed in his 1916 poem Sower and Seer the Midwestern landscape has given rise to significant visionaries just as their knowledge has nourished and shaped the region The essays gathered for this collection examine individual thinkers writers and leaders as well as movements and ideas that shaped the Midwest including rural school consolidation women s literary societies Progressive era urban planning and Midwestern radical liberalism While disparate in subject and style these essays taken together establish the irrefutable significance of the intellectual history of the American Midwest

Spirit Speech Dr. Luke A. Powery, 2010-10-01 That the Holy Spirit is present in preaching is something we take for granted How the Spirit is present is a question we seldom ask Luke Powery suggests that we fail to ask that question to the detriment of our preaching Drawing on the tradition of African American preaching he locates the Spirit's activity in the sermon in two primary places First in celebration the joyous acceptance of God's gifts to the church and to the world But equally as powerful is the expression of lament the lifting up of our sorrow grief and suffering In these two experiences the Spirit plays the decisive role enabling the preacher to lay the congregation's joys and sorrows at the feet of the living God and announcing God's presence in both our celebration and our lament
