

Congratulations to QUILL & QUIRE and its editorial group for this commemorative magazine featuring the 1997 Giller Prize shortlist – it is a creative and unique tribute to the finalists.

As the major publication of the book trade in Canada, QUILL & QUIRE set the odds last year. This year, they've set the pace.

For that, I want to express my gratitude. This publication not only demonstrates recognition and support for Canadian talent, it also highlights the imagination and marketing support that media, booksellers, and publishers have extended to the Giller finalists – support which has made an enormous contribution to book sales in Canada.

It is efforts like this that provide vision and expertise that augur well for the continuing recognition of Canadian literary talent.

Thanks to all.

Jack Rabinovitch

Quill & Quire is proud to present this written memento of the 1997 Giller Prize. The five nominees included on this year's shortlist and profiled here illustrate once again the magnificent strength and diversity of Canadian literature and the care and thought with which the Giller judges make their choices.

From the magic realism of Shani Mootoo's sensual debut, Cereus Blooms at Night, to Carol Shields' keen observation of a man's life in Larry's Party, this year's nominees truly offer literature to suit every taste.

That good books are published in this country is not enough, however. Writers need to find an audience, and one of the great achievements of the Giller Prize – established by Jack Rabinovitch in 1994 in honour of his late wife, literary journalist Doris Giller – has been to raise the profile of the wonderful books being published in Canada.

That's something Quill & Quire has, in its own way, been doing since 1935, and we are very pleased to offer our congratulations in the form of this literary tribute to the 1997 nominees.
