Sangoma My Odyssey Into The Spirit World Of Africa:

Sangoma James Hall, 2009 Nothing in James Hall's life prepared him for what happened When he was in Africa writing about the legendary singer Miriam Makeba she perceived he had the rare gift to see both into the future and into people's souls At her urging Hall consulted a sangoma a traditional healer who told him he was possessed by ancestral spirits Hall could receive the power to heal others and to become a sangoma himself if he was willing to take the risk He did embracing an uncertain future and undergoing a two year spiritual and physical ordeal What he experienced shook his grasp of reality to the core as he surrendered himself to souls from the spirit world learned to read messages in divination bones and attained a lifetime's worth of knowledge about collecting and preparing the plants used in traditional medicine James Hall has written a candid dramatically personal account of his unique spiritual journey
