The Last Fire Season Manjula Martin, 2025-05-13 H Is for Hawk meets Joan Didion in the Pyrocene in this arresting combination of memoir natural history and literary inquiry that chronicles one woman's experience of life in Northern California during the worst fire season on record FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD NATIONAL BESTSELLER AN NPR BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR Told in luminous perceptive prose The Last Fire Season is a deeply incisive inquiry into what it really means now to live in relationship to the elements of the natural world When Manjula Martin moved from the city to the woods of Northern California she wanted to be closer to the wilderness that she had loved as a child She was also seeking refuge from a health crisis that left her with chronic pain and found a sense of healing through tending her garden beneath the redwoods of Sonoma County But the landscape that Martin treasured was an ecosystem already in crisis Wildfires fueled by climate change were growing bigger and more frequent each autumn her garden filled with smoke and ash and the local firehouse siren wailed deep into the night In 2020 when a dry lightning storm ignited hundreds of simultaneous wildfires across the West and kicked off the worst fire season on record Martin along with thousands of other Californians evacuated her home in the midst of a pandemic Both a love letter to the forests of the West and an interrogation of the colonialist practices that led to their current dilemma The Last Fire Season follows her from the oaky hills of Sonoma County to the redwood forests of coastal Santa Cruz to the pines and peaks of the Sierra Nevada as she seeks shelter bears witness to the devastation and tries to better understand fire's role in the ecology of the West As Martin seeks a way to navigate the daily experience of living in a damaged body on a damaged planet she comes to question her own assumptions about nature and the complicated connections between people
