Santalia Catalog Of Santali Manuscript:

Santalia Paul Olaf Bodding,1999 The Reverend P O Bodding lived as a missionary amongst the Santals in Santal Parganas in India for more than 30 years During that period he helped the Santals to collate their folklore which he transcribed into the documents which are presented in this catalogue The Santal Rebellion 1855-1856 Peter B. Andersen,2022-11-22

The book presents a new interpretation of the Santal Rebellion the Hul 1855 1856 drawing on the colonial sources as well as Santal memories It offers a critique of postcolonial approaches that overlook specifically tribal perspectives and see the Hul as a class based peasant rebellion The author analyses the Hul and its participants the Santals and their opponents both the colonial administration and the Bengalis He also looks at the attempts of the Hul s leaders Sido and K nhu to reform the Santal religion Offering a new respectful reading of the Hul s religious legitimization the book argues that changes in Santal religion and ethics were responses to the colonial regime s new and aggressive economic order The Hul s leaders Sido and K nhu demanded the introduction of just laws based on the universal principle of equality This historical approach leads to a call for the inclusion of the voice of tribal and Adivasi minorities when formulating politics for their development in the 21st century The book is relevant for researchers and students of social history social reform tribal and indigenous studies postcolonial studies and South Asian studies The State and the Iron Industry in Han China Donald B. Wagner,2001 This book brings both literary and archaeological evidence to bear in an investigation of the history of the Han state s iron monopoly and considers the reasons for its establishment and the intense opposition it provoked Contemporary Society Georg Pfeffer,Deepak Kumar Behera,1997 Contributed articles in honor of S N Ratha former professor at Sambalpur University Orissa v 7 Identity intervention and ideology in tribal India and beyond Deepak Kumar Behera Georg Pfeffer

Development, Decentralization and Democracy Robert Thörlind,2000 This book explores the controversy in political science surrounding the civil society social capital paradigm by studying the performance of decentralized governments in West Bengal and Bangladesh Gram panchayats and NGOs provide the focus of the study The study intends to determine whether a growth in social capital can explain why decentralized governments seem to be more effective in West Bengal though both areas decentralized their governments around the same time The two regions have shared for centuries a common history civic culture ethnic identity and language though religion led to the separation of the regions A New Testament Tone Bleie,2023-12-19 A NEW TESTAMENT offers a recast economic legal and social history of the strangely neglected enduring and power laden relationship between a Scandinavian Transatlantic mission and the Santals Boro and Bengalis of East India Northern Bangladesh and Eastern Nepal Bleie s kaleidoscopic portraits transport readers back to the medieval period and Danish and British Company Rule The British Raj and the early post Independence period remain her principal framing however This customized text enables readers to navigate and selectively immerse themselves in theoretical and descriptive chapters brimming with immersive storytelling The volume is relevant for university curricula in

Wang,1999 The 1940s saw the outbreak of the so called Yili rebellion which led to the collapse of Chinese state authority over a wide area of Xinjiang in the chaotic years of the later 1940s Much of the story has been told before but what is especially interesting here is Wang s demonstration that the rebellion was not an internal Chinese matter but very much an international affair Here he looks not just at the ethnic and religious dimensions which of course had many international ramifications But what is not generally recognized is that politically there were three external actors in the affair the Guomindan government Chinese communists and especially the Soviets The dynamics between these actors as World War II came to an end and the Chinese civil war gathered pace had a major impact on the course of events in Xinjiang between 1944 and 1949 The scant details of the Uighur unrest emerging from Xinjiang in 1997 suggest that the ethnic religious and political dynamics behind the events of the 1940s are similar to those behind today s events Bon, Buddhism and Democracy Per Kvaerne,Per Kværne,Rinzin Thargyal,1993 Indonesia and the Muslim World Anak Agung Banyu Perwita,2007 Annotation This book explores the position of Islam as one of the domestic political variables in Indonesia s foreign policy during the Soeharto era It argues that the foreign policy of Indonesia toward the Muslim world under Soeharto was increasingly the result of political struggles between domestic actors particularly the Muslim community and the State Democratising Indonesia Mikaela Nyman,2006 The fall of Suharto has drawn much media and academic attention but the focus has been on the elite perspective the role of the regime and military and little has been published on civil society Gender issues are also often by passed Indonesia is at a crossroads and the greater involvement of civil society is being seriously considered for the first time by government representatives and demanded by civil society actors political think tanks and social commentators This study which covers the lead up to and ousting of Suharto up until the 2004 democratic elections analyses the role of civil society in Indonesia s transition towards democracy by applying social movement theory and the framework of political opportunities It shows the importance of social movements as civil society s primary catalysts for change and the need for a strong civil society to take over where the social movements left off in order to consolidate attitudinal changes in the political economic and social spheres The actions and limitations of various parts of the Indonesian pro democracy movement are discussed providing case studies of three groups of actors the student movement the women s movement and the labour movement focusing on times when they have joined forces to form social movements The shortcomings and successes of the pro democracy movement are discussed as are the prospects for civil society in the future Natural Resources and Cosmology in Changing Kalasha Society Mytte Fentz,1996 Teaching and Learning in Tibet Ellen Bangsbo,2004 Comprises a literature review of research and policy publications related to basic and primary schooling and quality education in the Tibetan Autonomous Region TAR These have been collected from selected official Chinese sources Tibetan NGOs outside Tibet international news agencies and Chinese Tibetan and international scholars with knowledge of social and educational issues in China and Tibet The study is in two parts Part I a review of research and policy publications related to basic and primary education in Tibet China and Part II an annex with a list of literature websites and journals and other statistical information Individualism and Collectivism Uichol Kim,Ŭi-ch'öl Kim,1995 State Growth and Social Exclusion in Tibet Andrew Martin Fischer,2005 The most pressing economic challenges facing the Tibetan areas of western China relate to the marginalization of the majority of Tibetans from rapid state led growth The urban rural divide plays an important role in this polarized dynamic but alone only partially explains differences with other Chinese regions all of which generally exhibit strong spatial inequalities This book therefore focuses on several further factors that determine the ethnically exclusionary character of current peripheral growth in the Tibetan areas These include processes of urbanization immigration employment and education as key factors underlying structural economic change Nationalism as Political Paranoia in Burma Mikael Gravers,2004-07-31 This study examines the complex relationship between nationalism violence and Buddhism in nineteenth and twentieth century Burma bringing us to present day Burma and the struggle by Aung San Suu Kyi for a new Burmese identity Islam, Human Rights and Child Labour in Pakistan Alain Lefebvre,1995 What this study argues using the example of child labour in Pakistan is that a distinction has to be made between the notions of human rights as they are expressed within Islam and the objective socio economic and political conditions of each specificMuslim country Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Asian Folklore Studies ,2005 Contemporary Society: Concept of tribal society Georg Pfeffer,Deepak Kumar Behera,1997 Contributed articles in honor of S N Ratha former professor at Sambalpur University Orissa
