Sculptures In The Gardens Of Queluz:

The Sculpture Journal ,2004 Corrosion of Archaeological and Heritage Artefacts EFC 45 Philippe

Dillmann,2017-12-02 This special issue of Corrosion Engineering Science and Technology is dedicated to the study of corrosion of objects from historical sites The issue contains contributions from the 2009 EUROCRR session on Corrosion of Archaeological and Heritage Artefacts organised by the European Federation of Corrosion s working party and commissioned articles on other key issues The objective is to give the reader a broad understanding of corrosion of ancient materials for the most part metal but also glass Articles shed light on a range of analytical approaches related to the study of the complex systems that make up historical artifacts In order to arrive at an understanding of the nanometric organisation of rust layers and interphases such studies must be approached on a macroscopic scale Techniques used include macrophotography synchrotron radiation and transmission electron microscopy TEM that ensure results that are both exhaustive and representative of particular observations This issue demonstrates the wealth of approaches possible in the study of the corrosion of ancient materials Sculpture Collections in Europe and the United States 1500-1930 ,2021-04-26 Exploring the variety of forms taken by collections of sculpture this volume presents new research by twelve internationally recognized scholars The essays delve into the motivations of different collectors the modes of display and the aesthetics of viewing sculpture bringing to light much new archival material The book underscores the ambiguous nature of sculpture collections variously understood as decorative components of interiors or gardens as objects of desire in cabinets of curiosity or as autonomous works of art in private and public collections Emphasizing the collections and the ways in which these were viewed and described this book addresses a significant but neglected aspect of art collecting and contributes to the literature on this branch of art and cultural history This book evolved from a symposium Sculpture Collecting and Display 1600 2000 organized by the Center for the History of Collecting that was held at The Frick Collection on May 19 and 20 2017 Both the book and the symposium were made possible through the generous support of the Robert H Smith Family Foundation The book is published in association with The Frick Collection Spanish & Portuguese Gardens Rose Standish Nichols,1924
