Ancient West & East, 2009 Ancient Greeks West and East G.R.

Tsetschladze, 2018-07-17 This volume deals with the concept of West and East as held by the ancient Greeks Cultural exchange in Archaic and Classical Greece through the establishment of Hellenic colonies around the ancient world was an important development and always a two way process To achieve a proper understanding of it requires study from every angle All 24 papers in this volume combine different types of evidence discussing them from every perspective they are examined not only from the point of view of the Greeks but from that of the locals The book gives new data as well as re examining existing evidence and reinterpreting old theories The book is richly illustrated Northern Pontic Antiquities in the State Hermitage Museum John Boardman,Sergei Solovyov,G.R. Tsetskhladze,2021-10-18 This volume written by staff of the State Hermitage one of the world s finest museums publishes Graeco Roman antiquities kept there Much of the material has been unearthed during the museum s field projects in Berezan Myrmekion and Nymphaeum Many items are published here for the first time In addition there are new studies and reinterpretations of well known material The book also contains reviews and notes on new publications on the Black Sea from Eastern and Western Europe and North America The volume provides a good account of the manifold activities in which the staff of the Department of the History and Culture of the Ancient World and of the Hermitage in general are engaged The book is very richly illustrated with nearly 150 photographs line drawings maps etc Achaemenid Impact in the Black Sea Jens Nieling, Ellen Rehm, 2010-07-16 For 200 years from the second half of the sixth century to the decades before 330 BC the Persian dynasty of the Achaemenids ruled an enormous empire stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to Afghanistan and India The Great Kings Dareios I and Xerxes I even tried to conquer Greece and the northern Black Sea territories Although they failed parts of Thrace did become part of their dominion for a short period The question always rises as to why the Great Kings were interested in the western and northern Pontic zones In contrast to some of the other satrapies such as Egypt Phoenicia and Syria the Black Sea had no prosperous cities or provinces to offer One possible answer might be the desire to conquer every part of the known world After 479 BC it seems that the Great Kings acknowledged the fact that the coast and the Caucasus formed the natural borders of their Empire The satraps on the other hand could not avoid becoming involved in the affairs of the Black Sea region in order to safeguard the frontiers they had established They had to incorporate the Greeks as accepted inhabitants of their province into the Persian administrative system Possibly they achieved this by granting them the monopoly in sea trade and using the Anatolian Greeks as the main active bearers and transmitters of Persian customs and culture More research into this chapter of Persian history is still required The Art of the Scythians Esther Jacobson, 2022-11-14 This volume considers the art of the Scythians of the northern littoral of the Black Sea as that art was expressed in gold silver bronze and bone Appearing by the seventh century B C at the edge of an expanding Hellenic world the history and art of the Scythians must be considered within a context that recognizes the sources of Scythian culture in the Eurasian Steppe as well as the historical contingency of West Asia and the Greek colonies By approaching the understanding of artistic traditions in terms of an evolving process rooted in an archaic steppe culture but ultimately shaped by the confrontation of Near Eastern Hellenic and Hellenistic tastes this discussion goes beyond the traditional location of Scythian art as a subset of Greek goldwork Particular consideration is given to the gradual transformation of object types and styles from their reflection of archaic zoomorphic representations in carved bone wood and bronze to traditions expressive of Hellenized tastes and sensibilities in gold and silver By examining in detail individual objects as well as classes of objects this volume articulates a specifically Scythian stylistic and iconographic tradition and a specifically Scythian contribution to the working of precious metals related to but ultimately distinguishable from the goldworking traditions of Achaemenid Iran late Classical Greece and the larger Hellenistic world This volume offers substantial bibliography relating to the extensive research on Scythian art archaeology and history published in the Russian and Ukrainian languages over the last 150 years     History of Central Asia, The: 4-volume set Christoph Baumer, 2018-04-18 This set includes all four volumes of the critically acclaimed History of Central Asia series The epic plains and arid deserts of Central Asia have witnessed some of the greatest migrations as well as many of the most transformative developments in the history of civilization Christoph Baumer's ambitious four volume treatment of the region charts the 3000 year drama of Scythians and Sarmatians Soviets and transcontinental Silk Roads trade routes and the transmission of ideas across the steppes and the breathless and brutal conquests of Alexander the Great and Chinghiz Khan Masterfully interweaving the stories of individuals and peoples the author's engaging prose is richly augmented throughout by colour photographs taken on his own travels This set includes The Age of the Steppe Warriors Volume 1 The Age of the Silk Roads Volume 2 The Age of Islam and the Mongols Volume 3 and The Age of Decline and Revival Volume 4

Scythians and Greeks Ellis H. Minns, 1913     Reconstructing Ancient Linen Body Armor Gregory S. Aldrete, Scott M. Bartell, Alicia Aldrete, 2013-05-01 A thorough and original study of the linothorax the linen armor worn by Alexander the Great Alexander the Great led one of the most successful armies in history and conquered nearly the entirety of the known world while wearing armor made of cloth How is that possible In Reconstructing Ancient Linen Body Armor Gregory S. Aldrete Scott Bartell and Alicia Aldrete provide the answer An extensive multiyear project in experimental archaeology this pioneering study presents a thorough investigation of the linothorax linen armor worn by the Greeks Macedonians and other ancient Mediterranean warriors Because the linothorax was made of cloth no examples of it have survived As a result even though there are dozens of references to the linothorax in ancient literature and nearly a thousand images of it in ancient art this linen armor remains relatively ignored and misunderstood by scholars Combining traditional textual and archaeological analysis with hands on reconstruction and experimentation the authors unravel the mysteries surrounding the linothorax They have collected and examined all of the literary visual historical and archaeological evidence for the armor and detail their efforts to replicate the armor using materials and techniques that are as close as possible to those employed in antiquity By reconstructing actual examples using authentic materials the authors were able to scientifically assess the true qualities of linen armor for the first time in 1 500 years The tests reveal that the linothorax provided surprisingly effective protection for ancient warriors that it had several advantages over bronze armor and that it even shared qualities with modern day

Kevlar Previously featured in documentaries on the Discovery Channel and the Canadian History Channel as well as in U S News and World Report MSNBC Online and other international venues this groundbreaking work will be a landmark in the study of ancient warfare

North Pontic Archaeology G.R. Tsetskhladze, 2021-11-22 This volume deals with the classical archaeology of the northern Black Sea littoral discussing excavations and studies conducted by Russian Ukrainian German Czech and British archaeologists and classicists over the last 10 12 years It presents the results of excavations of such sites as Berezan Nikonion the chora of Olbia the chora of Chersonesus rural settlements of the European Bosphorus sites on the Taman Peninsula etc Several articles discuss the Scythians and other local peoples as well as particular objects This 6th volume of Colloquia Pontica publishes much previously unknown material and gives a clear picture of the achievements of scholarship in the study of the North Pontic Region Included are book reviews and an elaborate listing of new publications The book is very richly illustrated

Fantastic Fauna from China to Crimea Petya Andreeva, 2024-03-05 Numerous Iron Age nomadic alliances flourished along the 5000 mile Eurasian steppe route From Crimea to the Mongolian grassland nomadic image making was rooted in metonymically conveyed zoomorphic designs creating an alternative ecological reality The nomadic elite nucleus embraced this elaborate image system to construct collective memory in reluctant diverse political alliances organised around shared geopolitical goals rather than ethnic ties Largely known by the term e animal stylee this zoomorphic visual rhetoric became so ubiquitous across the Eurasian steppe network that it transcended border regions and reached the heartland of sedentary empires like China and Persia This book shows how a shared fluency in animal style design became a status defining symbol and a bonding agent in opportunistic nomadic alliances and was later adopted by their sedentary neighbours to showcase worldliness and control over the e Other In this study of enormous geographical scope the author raises broader questions about the place of nomadic societies in the art historical canon
