The Riverman Robert Keppel, 2010-06-15 After a search of over twenty years one of America's most elusive serial killers was finally apprehended Now read the true story of one man's attempt to get inside the mind of the Green River Killer July 15 1982 3 woman's strangled body was found caught on the pilings of Washington state's Green River Before long the Green River Killer would be suspected in at least forty nine more homicides with no end in sight Then the authorities received an unbelievable letter from the infamous serial killer Ted Bundy then on Florida's death row offering to help catch the Green River Killer But he would only talk to one man Robert Keppel the former homicide detective who had helped track Bundy's cross county killing spree Now these conversations are revealed in which Bundy speculates about the motive and methods of the Green River Killer and reveals his own twisted secrets as well Now as never before we look into the face of evil and into the heart of a killer

The Search for the Green River Killer Carlton Smith, Tomás Guillén, 2017-07-04 New York Times Bestseller From the journalists who covered the story the shocking crimes of Gary Ridgway America's most prolific serial murderer In the 1980s and 1990s forty nine women in the Seattle area were brutally murdered their bodies dumped along the Green River and Pacific Highway South in Washington State Despite an exhaustive investigation even serial killer Ted Bundy was consulted to assist with psychological profiling the sadistic killer continued to elude authorities for nearly twenty years Then in 2001 after mounting suspicion and with DNA evidence finally in hand King County police charged a fifty two year old truck painter Gary Ridgway with the murders His confession and the horrific details of his crimes only added fuel to the notoriety of the Green River Killer Journalists Carlton Smith and Tomas Guillen covered the murders for the Seattle Times from day one receiving a Pulitzer Prize nomination for their work They wrote the first edition of this book before the police had their man Revised after Ridgway's conviction and featuring chilling photographs from the case The Search for the Green River Killer is the ultimate authoritative account of the Pacific Northwest killing spree that held a nation spellbound and continues to horrify and fascinate spawning dramatizations and documentaries of a demented killer who seemed unstoppable for decades

Green River, Running Red Ann Rule, 2004-10-31 In the most extraordinary book Ann Rule has ever undertaken America's master of true crime has spent more than two decades researching the story of the Green River Killer who murdered more than forty nine young women The quest to discover the most prolific serial killer in American history has been an intimate part of Ann Rule's life with some of the corpses found only a mile or so from where she lived and raised her own daughters She did not know the killer but he apparently knew her and attended many of her book signings For twenty one years the killer carried out his self described career as a killing machine ridding the world of women he considered evil His eerie ability to lure his victims to their deaths and hide their bodies made him far more dangerous than any infamous multiple murderer in the annals of crime A few men including a law student a truck painter and a taxi driver eventually emerged as the prime suspects among an unprecedented forty thousand scrutinized by the Green River Task

Force Still there was no physical evidence linking any of them to the murders until 2001 when investigators used a new DNA process on a saliva sample they had preserved since 1987 with stunning results Ann Rule has followed the case since July 1982 when the first body that of teenager Wendy Lee Coffield was found in the Green River snagged on pilings under a bridge Rule has compiled voluminous files working through an incredible 95 000 pages of official police records transcripts photographs and maps winnowing out the chaff and identifying what is truly important Over the years she gained unparalleled access to all the key players from King County Sheriff Dave Reichert to those close to the killer and his victims When finally apprehended and convicted the killer made a detailed confession of his twisted sexual obsessions that will shock even the most jaded reader Green River Running Red is a harrowing account of a modern monster a killer who walked among us undetected It is also the story of his quarry of who these young girls were and who they might have become A chilling look at the darkest side of human nature this is the most important and most personal book of Ann Rule s long career

Chasing the Devil David Reichert,2005-12-27 It began with the discovery of three women s bodies found near suburban Seattle s Green River in August 1982 Soon more corpses and human remains would be found some as far as Oregon They were teenage runaways or other women whose anonymous lifestyles had made them easy vulnerable targets and they were all the victims of a faceless murderer whose rampage would span two decades and take as many as forty nine lives No other serial killer in the nation s history had killed so many people For twenty long years Sheriff David Reichert played a cat and mouse game with the Green River killer who managed to stay one step ahead of Reichert the local authorities and even the FBI But Reichert had no doubt in his mind that he was going to find the Green River killer no matter how long it took That day came in 2001 when DNA evidence linked fifty two year old truck painter Gary Ridgway to three of the murder victims The long nightmare was finally over for Reichert and the families of the murder victims With startling insider disclosures and the fascinating forensic details of the relentless manhunt itself Chasing the Devil exposes the heart of true evil and reveals the dauntless efforts behind one man s quest to chase it

No Human Involved Sheron Linn, 2016-02-11

When Shanna Edwards' weird new neighbor moves in, next-door things begin to go haywire, including her discovering her friend's grisly, bloody head decorating a fireplace mantel. Meeting Dr. Stevens, San Diego's acting medical examiner and chief forensic pathologist at the crime scene, the two begin piecing together the puzzle of fifty-three murders marked NHI (no human involved) on crime reports. The serial killer stalks prostitutes and runaways, believing he's purifying the human race of an infestation, a sickly disease of street trash. Before he's through, at least fifty-three women will be dead. Unlike previous serial killers, he finds creative new ways to murder, mutilate, and dump the bodies, aided and abetted by the indifference of the chauvinistic SDPD. Shanna, an ex-cop, and the ME open a Pandora's box of intrigue as their investigations lead them to believe that San Diego's killer is, in reality, Washington's Green River Killer or his protégé. So many twists and turns in the investigation will keep a reader holding her breath for the next surprise revelation.
