keep to ourselves      The Search for Paradise Lost Elizabeth Ann Smith, 2014-04-08 The Search for Paradise Lost is a collection of uplifting and amusing reminiscences of Liz's travels with her husband Alan in Central Africa searching for an unconventional rural environment to raise her family. In spite of many setbacks caused by the unsettled political situations her exciting journey proves to be one of self discovery opening new worlds beyond her limited expectations and leading to unusual friendships. The journey starts in 1960 in the earthy African town Zomba Nyasaland. There Liz discovers Paradise and revels in its untamed natural magnificence. She learns to deal with many challenges including coping with the colonial lifestyle, nasty insects, unhygienic conditions and encounters with leopards and witch doctor curses. Unfortunately the magic waned with the new African independence. On returning to Rhodesia an en route terrorist ambush didn't dampen their enthusiasm but taught them to cope with the ensuing war years in an isolated school in Somabula. There they adapted to pastoral life and formed friendships with locals who were greatly amused by their lack of farming knowledge and unconventional teaching methods. Holidays were spent exploring the mystical Matopos and enjoying halcyon weeks camping in ancient Sofala in Mozambique. The tranquil palm studded golden beaches, Portuguese wine and abundant seafood made the perfect playground for the family. Once again political changes forced them to leave their beloved paradise but they carried with them heartwarming lessons and memories of a lost unsophisticated era that can never be repeated.      The Panhandle

Search J.R. Roberts,      Memories of the Quaker Past: Stories of Thirty-Seven Senior Quakers, 2014-02-07 The book consists of excerpts from interviews of senior members of State College Friends Meeting. The narrators who lived through the Great Depression tell of their difficult childhood and yet in most cases one they regarded as happy. Some of the conscientious objectors during WWII tell of life in CPS camps, others speak of using nonviolent methods with mental patients while still others relate the story of the human guinea experiments, some of them participated in. Of those who did relief work after the war overseas, probably the most exciting tales are told by the four who worked with the Friends Ambulance Unit in China. They happened to be located close to where the Nationalists and the Communists were fighting.      Thirty-seven Days of

Peril Truman Everts, 1923      In Search of Jason Andrew Grover, 2000-09-01 IN SEARCH OF JASON is the story of Jason Reilly, a lowly employee at B Pictures, a cut rate New York City film production company whose owner Mr B is a confidante of many curious characters inhabiting both sides of the law. In the course of one of his many errands for Mr B, Jason goes to hand some papers to a diplomat at the United Nations and in the course of his time there misplaces a film script he was carrying. From that loss dire consequences arise for the film for which the script was written was to have been shot in the Caribbean with the production serving as cover for a drug courier operation run by one of Mr B's less than legitimate pals, an underworld dynamo named Sicky. In addition to his illegal interests, Sicky has entertained a lifelong legitimate interest in some day becoming a major feature film producer. Thus the idea of someone like Jason not only endangering his profits which would be bad enough but also imperiling his cinematic opportunity of a lifetime is an outrage to which the only answer can be one of summary execution Now its one thing when youre seeking to prove your innocence to a law officer who theoretically is subject to some constraints but when youre trying to explain yourself to a paranoid gunman who acknowledges no laws save those in his own options become more limited Such is the case for Jason So after narrowly avoiding being murdered in his bed and getting run over by a speeding car aimed at a pay phone booth hes calling from Jason makes his escape from the city He heads for the New Jersey Turnpike Chesapeake Bay Virginia the Carolinas Georgia the Florida swamps Miami and finally the Caribbeans blue carpet Along he way he picks up a partner in crime or perhaps innocence Dr Sam Albert is a former 1960s college revolutionary present day psychiatrist and off hours bush pilot whose set of wings Jason finds useful in Miami when the ships captain hes hired to take him afloat begins to cause problems Later while island hopping in the Caribbean with Albert Jason gets unwittingly another partner in the form of Aringapu a Central American Indian whose ancestors 500 years earlier were either massacred or driven off the very island where Sicky now proposes to set up his supreme shoot You wouldnt expect Jason to come to earth practically right under Sickys Ray Bans Youd think it would be the last place Aringapu would want to turn up in too Youd think above all that the good Dr Albert skilled in providing wise counsel and comfort would look out for Jasons interests and fly him out at once Youd be wrong on all counts particularly on the last You might also expect on this page to find out how it all wraps up but this place is meant to stimulate your appetite not satiate it All that can be said for now is that in a curious and appropriate way the punishment fits the crime
