Love Devotion:

Becoming Two in Love Roland J. De Vries, 2013-07-25 This book draws Soren Kierkegaard and Luce Irigaray into conversation on the nature and ethics of sexual difference While these two initially seem like doubtful dialogue partners the conversation between them yields a rich and compelling account of intersubjectivity between man and woman an account that moves beyond the limited and tired debate over egalitarianism vs complementarianism Through engagement with Irigaray and Kierkegaard this book develops a constructive theological ethics of sexual difference that focuses on an epistemological and subjective gap that sets man and woman at a decisive distance from each other They are a mystery to each other Yet it is also an ethical framework that allows woman and man to encounter one another in ways that respect the independence subjectivity and becoming of each Above all this is a theological ethics of sexual difference that centers on Jesus Christ who is defined as the middle term in every relationship and whose love command defines the encounter between man and woman in difference

“Love Across Beliefs: A Comparative Study of Love in 14 Major Religions, Atheism, Spirituality, and 28 Indigenous Cultures Vincent Froom, 2024-11-26 This comprehensive book explores the concept of love as it is understood practiced and taught across 14 major world religions atheism spirituality and 28 indigenous cultures from around the globe It provides an in depth comparison of how these belief systems define love its role in human relationships and how it informs ethical and moral behavior The book also contrasts the teachings of world religions with the rich traditions of indigenous cultures offering insights into how love is both a universal concept and a culturally specific experience
