A Human Catechism Joel David Aguilar Ramirez, 2024-01-26 A Human Catechism is a theopoetic journey It is the integration of personal experience theological reflection and contextual analysis This book proposes a radical way of discipleship in which we are invited to run the risk of positively imitating one another through the imitation of Christ If violence happens through the imitation of one another maybe good things do too As the reader embarks on a contextually self-reflective journey this book invites us to take the chance of believing in a God in whom there is no violence A Human Catechism will be a journey from what seemed impossible to what became second nature all the way to becoming responsible for modeling a way of being otherwise to those around us

Nouwen's friends, colleagues, and family members. What he discovered was far more compelling than what he had imagined. Though Nouwen was indeed the generous and loving man many thought he was, he was also never able to find consistent peace in his own life. Tormenting him were profound feelings of anxiety, insecurity, and loneliness. This portrait gives an honest and well-balanced account of Nouwen's life that leaves no stone unturned, investigating his childhood, his family, his sexuality, and his life as a priest and member of the L'Arche Daybreak community in Toronto. Though he counseled many people during his lifetime, his principles of spiritual direction were never written down. Now two of his longtime students, Michael Christensen and Rebecca Laird, have taken his famous course in spiritual direction and supplemented it with his unpublished writings to create the definitive work on Nouwen's thoughts on the Christian life.
