Love in Several Masques Henry Fielding, 1728 Henry Fielding Martin C Battestin, 2023-05-09 First published in 1989 Henry Fielding is a biography presenting a fresh interpretation of Fielding's life and thought. Using newly discovered information including new facts, three hitherto unknown pictures of Fielding drawn from life documents, manuscripts, and many crucially important and engrossing new letters, Martin C. Battestin, the foremost Fielding scholar, illuminates every aspect of Fielding's life and work. Fielding and the life he led in the West Country at Eton, at the University of Leyden, and in the theatres and brothels, sponging houses and police courts of London, make for fascinating reading. This authoritative and timely biography will appeal to all those interested in the society and literature of eighteenth-century England.

The Plays of Henry Fielding Albert J. Rivero, 1989 Henry Fielding was one of the most interesting playwrights of his time because of his historical position, similar to that of George Bernard Shaw, and his awareness of what it meant to be a playwright at a time when the native dramatic tradition appeared to have settled down for a long sleep and when the only hope for an awakening lay in such low crowd-pleasers as farces, puppet shows, laughing tragedies, and ballad operas. By focusing on the plays themselves, Rivero tells the story of Fielding's dramatic career without burdening the reader with an exhaustive history of contemporary plays and playwrights. He provides us with a clear critical account of Fielding's dramatic career in terms of trends in contemporary dramatic affairs that help to account for his artistic choices in individual plays.

What Made the Eighteenth Century Writers and Their Novels Stefano Mochi, 2023-05-26 This book examines eighteenth-century novels with a focus on the skills that readers were expected to master in order to read these works. It analyses how such skills were shaped by the cultural and political climate of the time. Starting with a review of the debate on education that began in England in the eighteenth century and the way it was influenced by philosophers such as John Locke, it then discusses the demands that novelists like Defoe, Fielding, Sterne, Godwin, Smollett, and Richardson made concerning this subject. Various scientific, philosophical, religious, and linguistic theories are used to examine the issues above: Chaos Theory, Wittgenstein's idea of logical space, Grice's cooperative principle, Aristotle's poetics, and de Molinos' Quietism.

Henry Fielding, Critic and Satirist Frans Pieter van der Voorde, 1966 Fielding himself frequently stated that satire was his aim. Taking this statement as his point of departure, the author considers Fielding's criticism of men, manners, his attitude towards his treatment of the literature, the politics, the learned professions, the social conditions of his day.
