Love Is A Story A New Theory Of Relationships:

Love Is a Story Robert J. Sternberg, 1999-06-03 In this groundbreaking work Robert Sternberg opens the book of love and shows you how to discover your own story and how to read your relationships in a whole new light What draws us so strongly to some people and repels us from others What makes some relationships work so smoothly and others burst into flames Sternberg gives us new answers to these questions by showing that the kind of relationship we create depends on the kind of love stories we carry inside us Drawing on extensive research and fascinating examples of real couples Sternberg identifies 26 types of love story including the fantasy story the business story the collector story the horror story and many others each with its distinctive advantages and pitfalls and many of which are clashingly incompatible These are the largely unconscious preconceptions that guide our romantic choices and it is only by becoming aware of the kind of story we have about love that we gain the freedom to create more fulfilling and lasting relationships As long as we remain oblivious to the role our stories play we are likely to repeat the same mistakes again and again But the enlivening good news this book brings us is that though our stories drive us we can revise them and learn to choose partners whose stories are more compatible with our own Quizzes in each chapter help you to see which stories you identify with most strongly and which apply to your partner Are you a traveler a gardener a teacher or something else entirely Love is a Story shows you how to find out Love is a Story Robert J. Communal Relationship Differentiation Belinda Campos, 2003 Library Journal, 1998 Distinctions Between Sexual Desire and Love in Narrative Report, Nonverbal Expression and Physiology Gian Carles Gonzaga, 2001 Marriages and Families Mary Ann Schwartz, Barbara Marliene Scott, 2003. Taking an historical, cross cultural and global approach, this book focuses on the link between social structure and the everyday lives of people's diverse experiences of marriages, families and intimate relationships. It shows how contemporary families go well beyond the traditional heterosexual two parent white middle class family and heterosexual legally sanctioned marriage. It challenges the assumption that one culture's way of doing things is the natural or right way. It shows how marriage and family life have changed historically over time and from place to place and how political and economic globalization impacts families worldwide. Features extensive boxed material accompanied by questions for personal reflection. Marriages and Families Over Time: Ways of Studying and Explaining Marriages and Families Understanding Gender: Its Influence in Intimate Relationships. The Many Faces of Love: Dating, Coupling and Mate Selection. Sexuality and Intimate Relationships. Nonmarital Lifestyles. The Marriage Experience: Reproduction and Parenting. Evolving Work and Family Structures. Violence and Abuse. The Process of Uncoupling. Divorce in the United States. Remarriage and Remarried Families. Families in Later Life. Marriages and Families in the Twenty-first Century: U.S. and World Trends. For anyone interested in marriage and family dynamics including individuals, counselors, nurses, social workers, home economists, etc. Gender Linda Brannon, 2002. A balanced approach to the gender course providing research related to both men and women's issues and encouraging critical thinking about topics that are relevant to all people. This book examines the topic of gender, the behaviours and attitudes that relate but are not entirely congruent with biological sex. Research and scholarship form the basis of this book, providing the material for a critical review and an attempt at an overall picture of gender from a psychological perspective. To accent the relevance of research findings in vivid detail, Brannon supplements the review of scholarly research with personal narrative accounts of gender relevant aspects of people's lives as well as highlights from a cross cultural perspective of gender. The personal narrative and diversity highlights help to balance the research based scholarship with the personal experience of gender. Lust and Love Gabriele

Froböse, Rolf Froböse, 2006 Philosophers have mused over them poets have written about them and musicians have sung about them Love desire and passion will at some point touch everyone's life yet they are little understood and some of the oldest mysteries of mankind Why do people fall in love and what is love anyway What makes people attractive How do these emotions tie in with our physiology and how we have evolved Lust and Love Is it more than Chemistry provides answers to some of these questions through the eyes of science It takes a light hearted and entertaining approach in explaining the current scientific knowledge of why people are attracted to each other from the first moments of meeting to how emotions change in a long lasting partnership The book covers research from the fields of chemistry biochemistry neurology psychiatry psychology physics and medicine while using the love story of a fictional couple to take the reader on a journey through science Additional topics on the tools of attraction including the history of the lipstick the development of perfumes and aphrodisiacs provide an absorbing insight into the subject Medical treatments and conditions including contraception erectile dysfunction and the climacteric phenomenon are also discussed This engaging and unusual book is ideal for anyone interested in the science behind love desire and passion Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-04 A Guide to Teaching Introductory Psychology Sandra Goss Lucas, 2008-05-27 Focusing on the critical aspects of teaching introductory psychology to undergraduate students this title includes ideas tips and strategies for effectively teaching this course and provides useful answers to commonly asked questions
