The Land We Love, 1866 A Love Episode Émile Zola, 2005 Rougon Macquart volume 8

There can be no doubt in the mind of the judicial critic that in the pages of A Love Episode Une page d'amour the reader finds more of the poetical more of the delicately artistic more of the subtle emanation of creative and analytical genius than in any other of Zola's works In all literature there is nothing like the portrayal of the punishment of Helene Grandjean Helene and little Jeanne are reversions of type The old neurosis seen in earlier branches of the family reappears in these characters Readers of the series will know where it began Poor little Jeanne most pathetic of creations is a study in abnormal jealousy a jealousy which seems to be clairvoyant full of supernatural intuitions turning everything to suspicion a jealousy which blights and kills Could the memory of those weeks of anguish fade from Helene's soul This dying of a broken heart is not merely the figment of a poet's fancy It has happened in real life The coming of death save in the case of the very aged seems nearly always brutally cruel at least to those friends who survive
