Durkin, 2014-09-04 This book shortlisted for the British Sociological Association's Philip Abrams Memorial Prize 2015 argues that Fromm is a vital and largely overlooked contribution to twentieth century intellectual history and one who offers a refreshingly reconfigured form of humanism that is capable of reintegrating explicitly humanist analytical categories and schemas back into social theoretical and scientific considerations The War of Ideas Walid Phares, 2025-04-16 From Afghanistan and Iraq to Europe and the United States we are engaged in one of the most heated wars of all time In this incisive new book the man that has been called the only one to understand the mind of the jihadist shows that the most important battle is actually taking place in the hearts and minds of the world's population. This is the war of ideas where ideology is the most powerful weapon of all. Phares explores the beliefs of two opposing camps: one standing for democracy and human rights and the other rejecting the idea of an international community and calling for jihad against the West. He reveals the strategies of both sides, explaining that new technologies and the growing media savvy of the jihadists have raised the stakes in the conflict. And most urgently, he warns that the West is in danger of losing the war for whereas debate and theorizing rarely translate into action here, ideas and deeds are inextricably linked for the forces of jihad.

The chapters that follow present twenty-three major theories; coverage of each theory also encompasses a biographical sketch of each theorist, related research, and applications to real life. Changes in the 8th edition included a new chapter 8 on evolutionary personality theory focusing on the work of David Buss. The Related Research sections in each chapter have also been updated.

The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular, 2014-05-28. The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular: Studies on the Future of Religion contains the work of fifteen international scholars who have wrestled with the question of the relevancy, meaning, and future of religion within the context of the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization. Through their chosen topics in analyzing these issues in the 20th and 21st centuries, each author also indicates the possibility of mitigating, if not preventing, the continuation of this antagonism by historically moving toward a more reconciled and humane future global society.
