Samuelson,2018-03-04 Although the earliest authentic records of Romania or more correctly speaking of Dacia the Roman province which embraced Romania Transylvania and some adjoining territories of to day do not reach further back than about the century immediately preceding the Christian era a good deal of information is to be gathered from the writings of Herodotus Dion Cassius and other early historians regarding the Get the race from whom the Dacians sprang The Get were in all probability a branch of the Thracians who were amongst the earliest immigrants from the East and for some time before they appeared in Dacia which was situated on the northern side of the Danube or Ister as it was called by the Romans they had settled between the south bank of that river and the Balkans Mount H mus of the Romans About the fourth century b c however the Get had crossed the river either driven north by an inimical neighbouring tribe the Triballi or in consequence of the growth of the nation itself When they were first encountered by the Greeks they occupied the eastern part of Dacia reaching probably to one portion of the Black Sea and some account of them is given by Ovid who was exiled to their vicinity but little is known of them until they came in contact with the Roman armies The Get have little direct interest for us but as we find associated with them the names of Philip of Macedon Alexander the Great and Lysimachus a few words concerning their connection with those heroes may not be out of place and will at least serve to fix a period in the history of the people Revelations of Byzantium ,2021-01-12 The monasteries and painted churches of Moldavia stand today as a testament to the rich cultural and spiritual heritage of the Romanian people As the Romanians living in the historical provinces of Wallachia Moldavia and Transylvania which today form modern Romania struggled to maintain their autonomy against Ottoman expansion their relative freedom allowed them to express themselves both artistically and culturally Among their most remarkable creations are the monasteries and painted churches of Moldavia in northeastern Romania the subjects of this book These monuments unique in the world reflect a cultural legacy inherited from Byzantium and the Roman Empire

After the fall of Byzantium and the expansion of Ottoman rule throughout the Balkan Peninsula the Romanian principalities became the most important depository of the Byzantine heritage. It was here that this tradition was preserved having been passed on to the Romanians of the Middle Ages by their ancestors. From here this heritage continued to spread throughout Europe and influence European society and culture creating the historical phenomenon that the great Romanian historian Nicolae Iorga would refer to as Byzantium after Byzantium. The monasteries and painted churches of Northern Moldavia stand today as true revelations of Byzantium. This full color album is written and photographed by Alan Ogden the author of Romania Revisited On the Trail of English Travellers 1602-1941 and Fortresses of Faith: A Pictorial History of the Fortified Saxon Churches of Romania both published by the Center for Romanian Studies. The author provides a comprehensive introduction discussing the art and architecture of the monasteries and painted churches of Northern Moldavia. Each church is then presented separately in words and pictures to reveal its own unique history and artistic beauty. Also included is an introduction to the history of Moldavia and Romanian lands during the Middle Ages by Kurt W. Treptow a noted specialist on Romanian history and original illustrations by renowned artist Octavian Ion Penda.

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004-01-01. Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites, multicultural cities, border areas, cross cultural corridors, multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages. By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study. Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however.
