Practicing Prayer for the Dead James B. Gould, 2016-11-04 Throughout history Christians have prayed for the dead This book challenges Protestants who seldom pray for the dead to begin doing so and Roman Catholics and Eastern Orthodox who pray only for the Christian dead to include the unsaved as well Gould discusses the meaning of prayer for final consummation of all things growth of the blessed in heaven purification of the imperfect in purgatory and salvation of the unsaved in hell identifying the necessary conception of the afterlife required by each particular prayer He also reflects on the spiritual value of prayer for the departed how it enhances faith builds hope and sharpens discipleship and provides some sample prayers for public liturgy and private devotion In essence Practicing Prayer for the Dead offers an outline of theology from the perspective of death arguing that prayer for all the departed is one aspect of a tightly knit web of doctrines The argument while revisionary in some respects is orthodox ecumenical and integrative engaging a range of academic disciplines so as to be biblically accurate historically informed and philosophically reasoned Removing Obstacles through Prayer and Fasting Theodore Andoseh, 1901 This was the 20th collective prayer crusade since brother Zach went to be with the Lord during which the Lord wanted to do two things to consolidate our ministry He wanted to establish the Zach Forum's ministry among his ZTF own people to consolidate the decisions that were taken by the whole ministry during the third world convention the accomplishment of our God revealed goal of Phase 3 Each night an average of 1 000 brethren gathered in Koume to cry out to the Lord for these objectives while multitudes from 185 nations on all the six continents plugged in each night via radio and television average of 678 unique hubs God was fully at work In this volume we have laboured to compile the daily proceedings from the two slots on global and national intercession on actual conditions standing on God's way according to 1 Timothy 2 and praying for the goal of Phase three May the Lord visit you and your service for Him as you relive these redefining moments
