A Dialogue On Love Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick,2000-06-09 When she begins therapy for depression after breast cancer treatment the author brings with her an extraordinarily open and critical mind but also shyness about revealing herself Resisting easy responses to issues of dependence desire and mortality she warily commits to a male therapist who shares little of her cultural and intellectual world Although not without pain their improvised relationship is as unexpectedly pleasurable as her writing is unconventional Sedgwick combines dialogue verse and even her therapist s notes to explore her interior life and delivers and delicate and tender account of how we arrive at love

Raising Uncommon Kids Sami Cone,2016-01-12 The single greatest lesson parents teach their kids isn t anything they say it s what they do And while most parents would say they want to raise compassionate kids they might be surprised to discover just how little they re actually modeling the behaviors they hope to pass on qualities such as unconditional love gentleness forgiveness patience gratitude humility and more In this unique book Sami Cone shows parents a new way to look at molding their children one in which focusing on adding good behaviors and attitudes is more powerful than eliminating bad ones Grounding her advice in Scripture specifically the twelve characteristics found in Colossians 3 12 17 Cone offers plenty of stories from her own life to show these principles in action And she offers practical things parents can do right now to create a home and family that exhibits love harmony and generosity of spirit in a self centered world

Preventing Teen Pregnancy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform and Oversight. Subcommittee on Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations,1997 The Subcommittee on Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations of the House of Representatives Committee on Government Reform and Oversight met to consider the causes of and solutions to teen pregnancy and the role of community organizations in prevention efforts Opening remarks by Representative Christopher Shays were followed by statements by a number of people with expertise in teen pregnancy prevention beginning with the statement of Representative Edolphus Towns which emphasizes that in many cases the fathers of the babies of teenage girls are much older than the mothers Statements of Representatives Nancy Johnson and Eva M Clayton further defined the problem and emphasized that solutions must be community based Remarks and a panel discussion were presented by 1 Henry W Foster Jr Senior Advisor to the President 2 Kristin A Moore from the National Campaign To Prevent Teen Pregnancy 3 Pat Funderburk Ware former director of the Office of Adolescent Pregnancy Programs and 4 Kathleen Kennedy Townsend Lieutenant Governor of Maryland The panel discussion of these representatives of national initiatives was followed by a panel discussion of representatives from Best Friends a program for girls and young women and the Institute for Responsible Fatherhood and Family Revitalization The transcribed comments and prepared statements of members of both panels are supplemented by letters statements and other documents submitted for the record Panelists and Congress members were in general agreement that community based approaches are needed to address the problems of teen pregnancy and that the role of fathers must be strengthened SLD How to Raise an Adult Julie
