Rambo The Dalai Lama:

Rambo and the Dalai Lama Gordon Fellman, 1998-01-01 Contrasts two approaches to conflicts and their resolution the aggressive confrontative elements of the adversary paradigm represented by the fictional figure Rambo and the compassionate non violence of the mutuality paradigm advocated by the Dalai Lama Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Human Dignity and Human Rights Hoda Mahmoudi, Michael L. Penn, 2019-11-18 This timely collection brings together a diverse array of field leading contributors in order to offer an interdisciplinary investigation into a discourse research and action agenda in pursuit of the universal application of human dignity The Enigmatic Academy Christian J. Churchill, Gerald Levy, 2011-06-15 The Enigmatic Academy is a provocative look at the purpose and practice of education in America Authors Christian Churchill and Gerald Levy use three case studies a liberal arts college a boarding school and a Job Corps center to illustrate how class bureaucratic and secular religious dimensions of education prepare youth for participation in American foreign and domestic policy at all levels The authors describe how schools contribute to the formation of a bureaucratic character how middle and upper class students are trained for leadership positions in corporations government and the military and how the education of lower class students often serves more powerful classes and institutions Exploring how youth and their educators encounter the complexities of ideology and bureaucracy in school The Enigmatic Academy deepens our understanding of the flawed redemptive relationship between education and society in the United States Paradoxically these three studied schools all prepare students to participate in a society whose values they oppose Peace Education, 3d ed. Ian M. Harris, Mary Lee Morrison, 2014-01-10 Now in its third edition Peace Education provides a comprehensive approach to educating for a just and sustainable future It begins with religious and historical trends that have molded our understanding of peace and then presents a variety of ways to practice peace education in schools and communities and explains how it can motivate students The teaching and practice of peace education provides a basis of valuable knowledge about resolving conflicts and transforming violence without the use of force Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Putting Peace into Practice, 2022-06-08 This book examines the role and limits of policies in shaping attitudes and actions toward war violence and peace Authors examine militaristic language and metaphor effects of media violence on children humanitarian intervention sanctions peacemaking sex offender treatment programs nationalism cosmopolitanism community and political forgiveness to identify problem policies and develop better ones The Social Construction of Man, the State and War Franke Wilmer, 2004-04-16 The Social Construction of Man the State and War is the first book on conflict in the former Yugoslavia to look seriously at the issue of ethnic identity rather than treating it as a given an unquestionable variable Combining detailed analysis with a close reading of historical narratives documentary evidence and first hand interviews conducted in the former Yugoslavia Wilmer sheds new light on how ethnic identity is constructed and what that means for the future of peace and sovereignty throughout the world Putting Peace Into Practice Nancy Nyquist Potter,2004 This book examines the role and limits of policies in shaping attitudes and actions toward war violence and peace Authors examine militaristic language and metaphor effects of media violence on children humanitarian intervention sanctions peacemaking sex offender treatment programs nationalism cosmopolitanism community and political forgiveness to identify problem policies and develop better ones
