How to Be Love(d) Humble the Poet,2023-12-26 We all want love Everything we do is in pursuit of it But as we count likes on social media and measure our worth by the numbers in our bank accounts we are programmed to see love as something to earn or win That programming obscures the simple truth that we ourselves are beautiful infinite eternal sources of love Instead of seeking to be loved by the world we must be love With short chapters filled with insight advice and personal anecdotes from Humble s own journey this book is a guide to self love that helps clarify your path inward toward the inherent love and value that is within each of us Throw away old ideas that prevent you from realizing the love you ve always had within you Instead of earning more achieving more and gaining more attention clear pathways for love to enter and flourish

How to Build a Better World for Our Generation Habtemariam Micael,2018-09-21 Teach about what matters Our job is to excite students and adult learners about the world to help them see the role that they can play in making society more equal and more just to express their ideas powerfully to see that social and historical materialism studies is about real people s lives and about their relationship to each other and to nature to be enlightened No matter how long the night the day is sure to come Transformation is only valid if it is carried out with the people not for them Liberation is like a childbirth and a painful one The person who emerges is a new person no longer oppressor or oppressed but a person in the process of achieving freedom is only the oppressed who by freeing themselves can free their oppressors The age of nations is past The task before us now If we would not perish it is to shake off our ancient prejudices and to build the earth You can be the most beautiful person in the world and everybody sees light and rainbows when they look at you But if you yourself don t know it all of that doesn t even matter To achieve a new and better order of society the oppressed working class need not allow their oppressors to represent them in parliament To decide which member of the ruling class is to repress and crush the people through parliament is the real essence of to realize the dictatorship character in the parliament Dictatorship is a rule based directly upon force and unrestricted by any laws The role of the oppressed societies need to be organized for the necessity of revolution to defeat dictatorship s ideology as it can never be solved by reformation according the revolutionary theory What we achieve inwardly will change outer reality Most people are not achieving their dreams because they are living in their fears Achievement is the product of conscious decisions and action that can challenge the tragedy of life Action clarity dare create the achievement of the required goal

Speech and System Peter Bornedal, 1997 In this investigation creative writing and philosophy are shown to be specific types of language games distinct from speech as used in communicative interaction between individuals The author deals with thinking speech and systems respectively I Thinking is understood as a soliloquy preceding any kind of creative activity and any kind of writing The author analyses thinking as a subject s listening to its own voice with a split between I and me close to Derrida s notion of difference as a condition for the production of meaning II Analyzing with reference to Benveniste Austin and Searle what speech is the author deduces the so called pragmatic subject in contrast to the first section's reflective. In its elementary speech act the pragmatic subject does constitute itself in rudimentary ways. In dealing with the product of reflective activity the author finds the so called textual inconsistency or logical aporias inherent in any logical or pseudo logical system to be in line with Goedel's incompleteness theorems and he rejects the tendency to use deconstruction to understand these aporias as is usual in Western metaphysics. The author's philosophical position is closest to that of Paul Ricoeur and Jacques Derrida but on crucial issues he advances his own ideas on the relationship between speech and writing also establishing a criticism of metaphysics that may be more radical than what has previously been developed.

The Gargoyle in the Garden Michael Howell, 2012-09-09 Leonardo da Vinci is famous for his paintings but he spent much more time with his codices which contained all of his great observations and designs. Michael J Howell recreates the process of designing a codex using his writing and art to illuminate his thoughts about creativity and the power of art to heal and generate new life in the form of a personal renaissance. This codex is designed for the modern world and Howell invites the reader to consider the vast potential for growth that lies within every single person and which often goes untapped. This codex was specifically designed as a download.

The Saints' Guide to Happiness Robert Ellsberg, 2003-11-01 Eloquent and delightfully readable Catholic convert Ellsberg makes the spiritual struggles of sanctified men and women accessible and relevant. Publishers Weekly In All Saints published in 1997 and already a classic of its kind. Robert Ellsberg told the stories of 365 holy people with great vividness and eloquence. In The Saints Guide to Happiness Ellsberg looks to the saints to answer the questions: What is happiness and how might we find it? Countless books answer these questions in terms of personal growth, career success, physical fitness and the like. The Saints Guide to Happiness proposes instead that happiness consists in a grasp of the deepest dimension of our humanity which characterizes holy people past and present. The book offers a series of lessons in the life of the spirit: the struggle to feel alive in a frenzied society, the search for meaningful work, real friendship and enduring love, the encounter with suffering and death and the yearning to grasp the ultimate significance of our lives. In these lessons our guides are the saints, historical figures like Augustine, Francis of Assisi and Teresa of Avila and moderns such as Dorothy Day, Flannery O'Connor and Henri J. Nouwen. In the course of the book the figures familiar from stained glass windows come to seem exemplars not just of holy piety but of life in abundance, the quality in which happiness and holiness converge. If you've been thirsting for a more authentic life, this is your book. In these pages are living templates which spark recognition.
