Socratic fashion the stinging impatient character of a gadfly the book consists of two sets of deliberations on love the first set addressing love as a duty and the second examining the applications of love Throughout Kierkegaard contrasts romantic love and love of one's friends with the selfless Christian love or agape of the New Testament ultimately contending that the only way to purge self interest from love is to love one's neighbor as oneself and oneself as one's neighbor who is indeed unconditionally every person Although careful to distinguish his deliberations from clerical sermons Kierkegaard insisted that in order to grasp the full meaning of the texts that constitute Works of Love one must hear them Kierkegaard makes this point repeatedly in his journals and indeed the preface of a work he published a few years after Works of Love begins with the words My dear reader If possible read aloud If you do so let me thank you for it While previous translations have not given sufficient attention to this critical aural aspect of the text Bruce H Kirmmse's translation preserves it thus making the same request of its readers that Kierkegaard once made of his to hear the argument by reading it aloud Featuring an illuminating introduction by Kirmmse this new translation of Works of Love promises to become the standard for generations to come
